A MUSICAL OFFERING

TO

THE SABBATH SCHOOLS,

OF

CHILDREN'S HOSANNAS TO THE SON OF DAVID.

“And when the Chief Priests and Scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, HOSANNA TO THE SON OF DAVID, they were sore displeased, and said unto Him, ‘Hearst thou what these say?’ And He said unto them, ‘Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?’”

Dec. 28, 1894

Entered, according to Act of Congress, in the year 1864, by WM. B. BRADBURY, in the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York.

P R E F A C E .

A GREAT IMPROVEMENT has been made within a few years in the Music of our Sabbath Schools. This may be attributed in part at least to the character of the music and hymns recently introduced. No longer resorting to low Negro melodies for their devotional hymns, our Schools have turned their attention to music of a higher order; music composed expressly for and adapted to the use of Sabbath Schools. It has perhaps been as much the privilege of the author of THE GOLDEN CENSER, as that of any one to contribute to this result. The hundreds of thousands of Golden Chains, Showers, and Oriflats that have winged their way all over the land, testify to the success of this enterprise; while thousands of letters from Superintendents, Teachers and Pastors received by the author of these works, bidding him "God speed," bear uniform testimony to the good that has already been accomplished through their circulation.

The writer's especial attention was called to this work upon observing, a few years since, the character of the music that was placed in the hands of Sabbath School children, and, with a determination that his best talents as a composer should be devoted to the Sabbath School cause until our Sabbath Schools should at least be in possession of melodies and hymns composed expressly for their use, that were not only pleasing and attractive, but free also from all unhallowed associations, he set himself at work.

An ardent love for the employment, and a pretty extensive acquaintance with leading Sabbath School friends throughout the country, has brought to the author's aid a host of valuable assistants—writers of some of the sweetest hymns in our language, and many of these, ladies, whose devotion to the cause has inspired their pens with heavenly ardor. These hymns are brimful of the Gospel, and if they do not sing themselves right into the hearts of both teachers and children, the fault must be in the music, and not in the hymn. More than the usual number of scripture themes will here be found, while that most popular and appropriate modern feature, the ever recurring "Refrain" and "Chorus," sung as children only can sing them, tend to fasten like "a nail in a sure place" the sentiment of the hymn. We leave space only to suggest to those about adopting the CENSER, the names of a few pieces as an introduction, viz.: Glory to the Lamb, page 5; My Sabbath Song, p. 6; The Sinner's Friend, 7; Sunday School Recruiting Song, 10; Jesus Paid it All, 12; We are Coming, 17; Never be Afraid, 20; The Blessed Sunday School, 30; Jesus Died for me, 36; Blessed Bible, 42; Bright Mansions, 43; The Better Part, 56; Seeking Jesus, 68; The House upon a Rock, 72; White Robes, 84; Something to do in Heaven, 80; The Little Band, 60; Always There, 9, &c., &c., &c.

We offer in the Golden Censer our sweetest incense,—the incense of children's Hosannas to their Saviour and King. May these be to him an acceptable offering,—an offering of a sweet smelling savor.

DIRECTIONS FOR THE MOVEMENT.—Directions, partly in figures, are given to the different pieces at their beginning, as "24—two to the measure," etc., the meaning of which is, Take a string and attach a light weight to one end of it, holding the other between the thumb and finger, at a distance of twenty-four inches from the weight. Set the string in motion, oscillating like the pendulum of a clock. Two of these vibrations mark the time of a measure of this piece of music. The explanation being in brief thus: "String 24 inches long—two vibrations to the measure," etc., etc. The little pocket circular tape measure is very convenient for this purpose, the case serving for the weight.

NOTICE TO BOOK COMPILERS AND OTHERS.

The MUSIC and POETRY of nearly every piece in the GOLDEN CENSER is the COPY-RIGHT PROPERTY of the author, having been composed and written expressly for this book, and "entered according to Act of Congress." No person, therefore, has a right to print in any form, or for any purpose whatever, either words or music, without first obtaining permission from the author. If hymns or tunes are desired for Sunday School Anniversaries, or for any other purpose, such permission must first be obtained, otherwise the person using them trespasses against the laws of copy-right, makes himself liable, and will be held accountable.

SEMI-CHORUS.

Matthew 21: 15, 16.

FULL CHORUS. ff

1. { "Why should children hold their peace?" Did the loving Sa-voir say, }
 When the haughty, hating Jews Sought their youthful (ΟΜΙΧ....) } songs to stay. "Ho-san - nah, ho - san - nah, ho-san-nah to the Son of Da-vid! Praise him, O praise him, Our Saviour and our King." "Suf-fer them to come," said Je-sus; Hence our youthful throng, "Suf-fer them to come," said Je - sus; Hence our joy - ful song.

2. Why should children hold their peace,
 When the whole creation sings,
 And the rounded firmament
 With its Maker's glory rings?—Cho.

8. Why should children hold their peace,
 When their happy hearts rejoice?
 What so tuneful to our Lord,
 As his praise from childhood's voice?—Cho.

4. Why should children hold their peace?
 Why did God their voices give;
 Save to praise the Lamb who died
 That the children's souls might live?—Cho.

5. If the children hold their peace,
 Then the very stones shall sing,
 And the mountains and the hills
 Shall their echoing tribute bring!—Cho.

PATRIOTIC.

7—Four to each measure.

1. When a-cross the o - cean wide, Where the heav-ing wa - ters flow, Came the

May-Flower o'er the tide, With our Fathers, long a - go; When they neared the rock-y strand, And their cho-rus rent the air, Children in that pilgrim band Clasped their lit - tle hands in prayer, Children in that pil - grim band Clasped their little hands in prayer.

Sweetly rang their evening hymn
 O'er that region vast and wide,
 Through the forest dark and dim,
 And the rocking pines replied.
 'Twas a cold December night,
 And the earth was robed in snow,
 But the stars with mellow light
 Blest our fathers long ago.

3.

When the early buds were seen,
 And the robin's song was heard,
 Children frolicked on the green,
 Happy as the woodland bird;

Culled the daisy young and fair,
 Watched the brooklet's quiet flow,
 Banished every cloud of care
 From our fathers long ago.

4.

When our country's banner bright
 Told her deeds of noble worth,
 Children hailed its radiant light,
 Hailed the land that give them birth;
 Children now rejoice to hear,
 All their youthful hearts can know,
 And the precepts still revere
 Of their fathers long ago.

3. Still the mighty King of Salem
 Comes in holy triumph nigh,—
 Still hosannas, loud resounding,
 Rise from infant tongues on high,—
 Still the sceptic and the scoffer
 Sneer and ridicule the song,—
 And the Saviour smiles as sweetly
 On the happy infant throng.

4. In the day when gathered millions
 Sing hosannas, far away,
 'Mid the shining hosts of angels,
 Infant tongues shall swell the lay.
 Come then, children, to the Saviour,
 Sweetest welcome waits you here;
 And with those bright hosts in heaven,
 You shall sing his praises there.

2. He groaned in spirit while he spoke:

"Where have you laid the dead?"

"Lord, come and see," they murmured low,

He followed where they led;

Beneath a cold sepulchral stone

An only brother slept,

And angels wondered as they gazed,

For lo! the Saviour wept.

3. How oft the prayer our lips would breathe.

The heart alone may speak;

How oft the penitential tear

Bedews the mourner's cheek:

Thy weary lot may be,

With few to smooth life's rugged path,

Thy Saviour wept for thee.

“The Master has Come 'over Jordan.”

Extract from a letter from Rev. Wm. Goodell, D.D., of Constantinople, Turkey, to Rev. Dr. Prime, of New York:

“I come to ask a special favor of you, viz.: that you will see that ‘sweet singer in Israel’ and composer, Mr. _____, and ask him to make a tune for that beautiful hymn beginning with ‘The Master hath come over Jordan.’ The tune should be very simple one and suited to the popular ear, that all the Christian mothers in the world may learn to sing it by hearing it once. We shall pray that Brother _____ may be where John was ‘on the Lord’s day’ (not in exile, but in the Spirit); and may be assisted to make a tune which shall be sung in every land by every tongue, not only till the beginning of the Millennium but straight through till the very end of it, and even far beyond.”

2. The father then looked at her kindly,
And said, as he tenderly smiled,
"Now who but a fond loving mother
Would think of a project so wild.
If the children were tortured by demons,
Or dying with fever, 'twere well;
Or had they the taint of the leper,
Like many around us who dwell."

3. "Nay, nay, do not hinder me, Nathan.
I feel such a burden of care;
And if to the Master I tell it,
That burden He'll help me to bear;
If He lay but His hands on the children,
My heart will be lighter, I know,
For a blessing for ever and ever
Will follow them each as they go."

4. So, over the mountains of Judah,
Along with the vines all so green,
With Esther asleep on her bosom,
And Rachel her brothers between;

With the people who hung on His teaching,
Or waited His touch or His word;
Through the row of proud Pharisees hastening,
She pressed to the feet of the Lord.

5. "Now, why shouldst thou hinder the master,"
Said Peter, "with children like these;
Thou knowest from morn until evening
He is teaching, and healing disease."
Said Jesus: "Forbid not the children,
Permit them to come unto me!"
Then He took in His arms little Esther,
And Rachel He sat on His knee.

6. The care-stricken heart of the mother
Was lifted all sorrow above;
His hands kindly laid on the children,
He blest them with holiest love;
And said of the babes on His bosom,
"Of such are the kingdom of Heaven."
Then strength for all duty and trial,
That hour to her Spirit was given.

This holy hill of Zion;
For I am sure,
The way is pure,
And on it comes "no lion."

Chor. as.—I'm climbing up, &c.

3. Then come with me, we'll upward go,
And climb this hill together;
And as we walk, we'll sweetly talk,
And sing as we go thither.
Then mount up still
God's holy hill,
Till we reach the pearly portals;
Where raptured tongues
Proclaim the songs
Of the shining-robed immortals.
Chorus.—I'm climbing up, &c.

MISSIONARY SONG.—Tune, "Young Soldier."

1. The sacred banner of the Cross,
 The pledge of victory won
 By him who in his anguish cried,
 "Thy will, not mine, be done."

 Its blood-stained colors fair,
 Go where your dear Redeemer trod,
 And plant that standard there.

 The desert bloom again;
 Her ruin'd towers, her crumbled walls,
 Their ancient glory wear;
 The crescent to the Cross shall bend,
 Go plant that standard there.
 A beautiful crown is waiting, &c.

Rit. On the billow's feathery height; Now 'midst fearful depths descending, While we wither at the sight. Rit. D.C.

2. Courage! courage! she's in safety!
 Sec again her buoyant form,
 By his gracious hand uplifted,
 Who controls the raging storm.
 With her precious cargo freighted,
 Now the life-boat nears the shore;
 Parents, brethren, friends, embracing,
 Those they thought to see no more.
3. Christian, pause, and deeply ponder;
 Is there nothing you can do?
 The sinking ship, the storm, the life-boat,
 Have they not a voice for you?

There's a storm, a fearful tempest—
 Souls are sinking in despair;
 There's a shore of blessed refuge,
 Try, O try to guide them there.

4. O, remember Him who saved you,
 Whose right hand deliverance wrought,
 Who, from depths of guilt and anguish,
 You to peace and safety brought;
 'Tis His voice who cheers you onward—
 "He that winneth souls is wise;"
 Launch the Gospel's blessed life-boat;
 Venture all to win the prize.

"A Group of Happy Children."

12—Two to each measure.
Spirited.

The musical score is written for two staves, treble and bass clef, in 2/4 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The piece consists of two systems of music. The first system includes a first ending bracketed as '1.' with lyrics: 'A group of hap-py children, One bright and sunny day, } Were tripping, lightly tripping To Sabbath-school a-way, } Along the fields and meadows, Where buds and blossom'. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment with lyrics: 'grew; Their hearts were full of gladness, Of gladness, of gladness, Their hearts were full of gladness, Their faces smiling, too.'

2.

How pleasant to behold them,
To hear their tuneful lay,
While tripping, lightly tripping
To Sabbath-school away,
Their little merry voices
Rang sweetly on the breeze,
And mingled with the robin,
The robin, the robin,
And mingled with the robin,
That sang among the trees.

3.

What made the children happy,
What made their hearts so gay,
While tripping, lightly tripping
To Sabbath-school away?

They loved the blessed Bible,
They loved the house of prayer,
For there they hear of Jesus,
Of Jesus, of Jesus,
For there they hear of Jesus,
And learn to praise him there.

4.

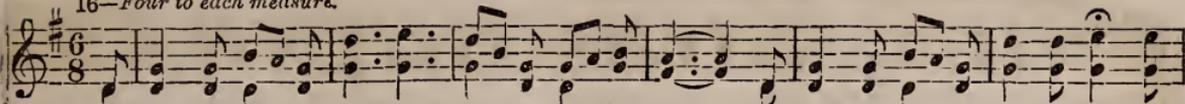

Then let us all remember,
And keep this holy day,
And when we're lightly tripping
To Sabbath-school away,
We'll thank our heavenly Father
For his own word of Truth;
We'll give our hearts to Jesus,
To Jesus, to Jesus,
We'll give our hearts to Jesus,
And serve him in our youth.

Sweetly wafted far away,

DIALOGUE SONG.

QUESTION.

1. What do you do at the Sabbath school, At the Sabbath school, At the Sabbath school? What do you do at the Sabbath school, At the Sabbath school.

ANSWER.

hap- py Sabbath school? { First we sing a song of praise, Then in prayer our voices raise, } { Then we each our les-son say, Closing with an - other lay, } That's what we do at the Sabbath school, At the Sabbath school, At the Sabbath school, That's what we do at the Sabbath school, At the happy Sabbath school.

2. What do you learn at the Sabbath school,
At the happy Sabbath school?

First we learn Commandments Ten,
God's laws sent by him to men;
Then what Christ did here below
To redeem our souls from woe.
That's what we learn at the Sabbath school,
At the happy Sabbath school.

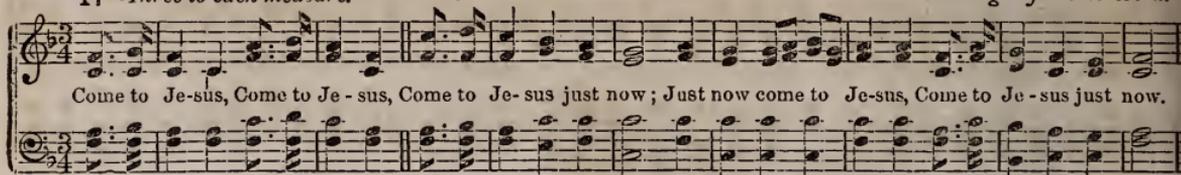

3. Why do you all love the Sabbath school,
Love the happy Sabbath school?

There we with our Saviour meet,
At the blood-bought mercy-seat;
Where he ever whispers, "Come
To thy blissful, heavenly home."
That's why we all love the Sabbath school,
Love the happy Sabbath school.

D.C. We are going, we are going, To a home beyond the skies, Where the fields are robed in beauty, And the sunlight never dies.

Where the fount of joy is flowing In the valley green and fair, We shall dwell in love together, There will be no parting there.

2. We are going, we are going,
And the music we have heard
Like the echo of the woodland,
Or the carol of a bird;
With the rosy light of morning
On the calm and fragrant air,
Still it murmurs, softly murmurs,
There will be no parting there.
We are going, &c.

3. We are going, we are going,
Where the day of life is o'er—
To that pure and happy region
Where our friends have gone before;
They are singing with the angels
In that land so bright and fair;
We shall dwell with them forever,
There will be no parting there.
We are going, &c.

1. Jesus, and shall it ever be— A mortal man ashamed of thee! Whose glories shine thro' endless days.
 Ashamed of thee, whom angels praise,

 No! when I blush, be this my shame,—
 That I no more revere his name.

 No tear to wipe, no good to crave,
 No fears to quell, no soul to save.

The Solid Rock. L. M. 6 lines.

1. My hope is built on nothing less Than Jesus' blood and righteousness; I dare not trust the sweetest frame, But wholly lean on Jesus' name: On Christ, the so-lid rock, I stand; All other ground is sinking sand, All other ground is sinking sand.

2. When darkness seems to veil his face,
I rest on his unchanging grace;
In every high and stormy gale,
My anchor holds within the vale:
On Christ, the solid rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand.

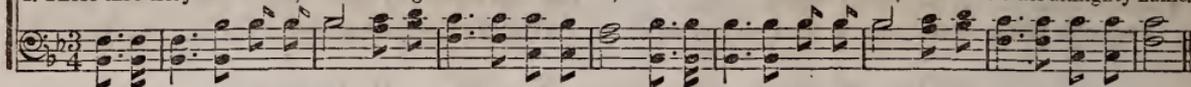

3. His oath, his covenant, and blood,
Support me in the whelming flood:
When all around my soul gives way,
He then is all my hope and stay:
On Christ, the solid rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand.

 Happy, happy, In their own dear Sabbath-school.

SCHOLARS (with Teachers singing 8th stanza.)

9. These heavenly blessings while we share
 Our hearts with wisdom lighted;
 We will remember in our prayer
 Poor children thus benighted.
 God will hear us, He will make them good and happy,
 Happy, happy, In their own dear Sabbath-school.

Evan. C. M.

From "The Shawm." Arranged by DR. LOWELL MASON.

1. Now condescend, Almighty King, To bless this happy throng; And kindly listen while we sing Our humble, grateful song.

2. We come to own the power divine
 That watches o'er our days;
 For this our cheerful voices join
 In hymns of grateful praise.

3. We come to learn thy holy word,
 And ask thy tender care;

Before thy throne, Almighty Lord,
 We bend in humble prayer.

3. May we in safety pass this day,
 From sin and danger free;
 And ever walk in that sure way,
 That leads to heaven and thee.

Response to "Jesus Paid it All."

The following hymn, by the REV. E. P. HAMMOND, was first sung at a large Union Meeting of Children and Youth, in Rochester, N. Y., October 4th, 1868. As a response to that beautiful hymn, "Jesus paid it all," on page 12, it will be found very useful; for who that is truly converted, does not wish to be "doing something" for Jesus?

1. I have cast my "doing" down,
Yes, down at Jesus' feet ;
Now I stand in Him alone,
All glorious and complete.
Jesus paid it all,
All to Him I owe ;
Something either great or small,
From love to Him I'll do

2. Now to Jesus' work I'll cling,
Alone by simple faith ;
Doing was a "deadly" thing,
It would have been my death.
Jesus paid it all, &c.

3. Legal works I've given o'er,
My Jesus is my all ;
Sins that tasted sweet before
Upon my senses fall.
Jesus paid it all, &c.

4. Jesus once in anguish bled
Upon the cruel tree ;
There He bowed His sacred head,
And suffered all for me.
Jesus paid it all, &c.

5. 'Twas my sins that nailed Him there,
My sins that shed His blood,
Mine that pierced His bleeding side,
The blessed Son of God.
Jesus paid it all, &c.

6. All my life shall now be given
To Christ, my risen Lord ;
Learning all the way to Heaven,
My duty in His Word.
Jesus paid it all,
All to Him I owe ;
Something either great or sma',
From love to Him I'll do.

"All By Grace."

⁴ BY GRACE ARE YE SAVED, AND THAT NOT OF YOURSELVES; IT IS THE GIFT OF GOD.

31—Two to each measure. Words written for this work.

1. O, if my soul is saved from death, 'Twill be by grace—all by grace; Let praise employ my latest breath, Praise praise, for grace

My strength in weakness, hope in fear, A living light my way to cheer; O for grace, for saving grace
My refuge when the storm is near,

2. If Jesus cleanse me from my sin,
'Twill be by grace, all by grace;
If now I feel a peace within,
'Tis all by grace.
Be this my shield against despair,
My joy in every pain I bear;
Be this the burden of my prayer,
O for grace, for saving grace!

3. If rescued from the tempter's hand,
'Twill be by grace, all by grace;
If on the Christian's Rock I stand,
'Tis all by grace.
Not of myself, no work of mine
Can light the spark of love divine;
No, Saviour, no, the gift is thine,
O for grace, for saving grace!

4. If on the wings of faith I soar,
'Twill be by grace, all by grace;
Where sin and death are felt no more
'Tis all by grace.
O when my captive soul is free,
When life eternal opens for me,
That glorious theme my song shall be
Saved by grace, yes, saved by grace!

Will You Go?

Will you go? will you go?
In rapturous strains to praise his name,
Will you go? will you go?
The crown of life we there shall wear,
The conqueror's palms our hands shall bear,
And all the joys of heaven we'll share;
Will you go? will you go?

3. Ye weary, heavy-laden, come,
Will you go? will you go?
In the blest house there still is room,
Will you go? will you go?
The Lord is waiting to receive,
If thou wilt on him now believe,
He'll give thy troubled conscience ease,
Will you go? will you go?

Death of a Scholar. 8s & 7s.

Dr. L. MASON.

1. Sister, thou wast mild and lovely, Gentle as the summer breeze; Pleasant as the air of evening, When it floats among the tree
 2. Peaceful be thy silent slumber, Peaceful in the grave so low; Thou no more wilt join our number, Thou no more our songs shalt know

3. Dearest sister, thou hast left us,
 Here thy loss we deeply feel;
 But 'tis God that hast bereft us;
 He can still our sorrow heal.

4. Yet again we hope to meet thee,
 When the day of life is fled;
 Then, in heaven with joy to greet thee,
 Where no farewell tear is shed.

Such testimony as the following, has induced the reprint of this beautiful hymn :

“ Thank you for singing that hymn, ‘ EVEN ME,’ for it was the ‘ singing of that hymn that has saved me. * * *

When they all sung those beautiful words, ‘ Let some droppings light on ME, and Blessing others, O bless me, Even me,’ it seemed to reach my very soul. I thought Jesus can accept ‘ me, EVEN ME,’ and it brought me to his feet, and I feel my burden of sin removed. Jesus has accepted ME, EVEN ME. Can you wonder that I love those words, or love to hear them sung? Ah! may I too sing them, when He shall take me before his throne at the last, and accept EVEN ME. Yours truly,
A CONVERT.”

WM. B. BRADBURY,

From “ THE GOLDEN SHOWER,” by permission.

1. } Lord, I hear of show'rs of blessings, Thou art scattering full and free;

 } Thou might'st leave me, but the rather Let thy mercy fall on me. } Even me, Even me, Let some droppings fall on me.

3. Pass me not, O gracious Saviour
 Let me live and cling to thee:
 Fain I'm longing for thy favor;
 Whilst thou'rt calling, call for me—
 Even me.
4. Pass me not, O mighty Spirit,
 'Thou canst make the blind to see:

 Whilst the streams of life are springing,

The following interesting incident has given rise to the beautiful song, "A Light in the Window."

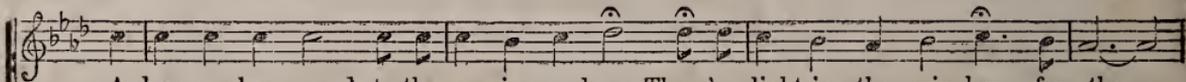

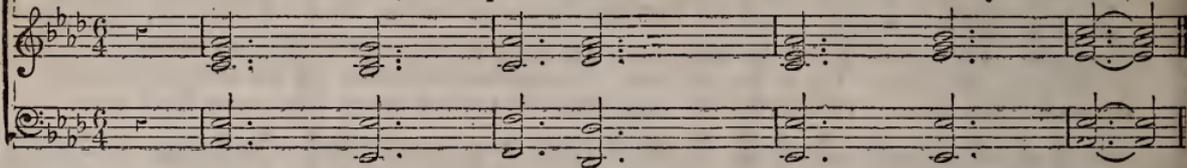

A boy, at the age of twelve years, worked out by the day to support a widowed mother, carrying home his earnings at night. "One night," he says, "it being very dark and muddy, and having three miles to travel, and a heavy bundle to carry, I did not reach home until late: my mother, feeble and weary, had retired, but she quickly awoke when she heard my voice, and soon met me at the door, with a warm kiss, and warmer tears, and a 'God bless you, my dear boy.' As she received my bundle, she exclaimed, 'After this, my son, I'll set a light in the window for you;' and, true to her word, the bright light in the window appeared, and O, how it cheered my heart ever after, for years. Health failing me, I left home, (after my brothers could help mother,) and went to sea. When three years from home, and on the Pacific Ocean, my mother died; but just before she expired, she said to those around her, 'O give Edward my dying blessing, for he has been a good boy. Tell him I have gone to Heaven, and I will set a light in the window for him.'"

SOLO, or a few voices.

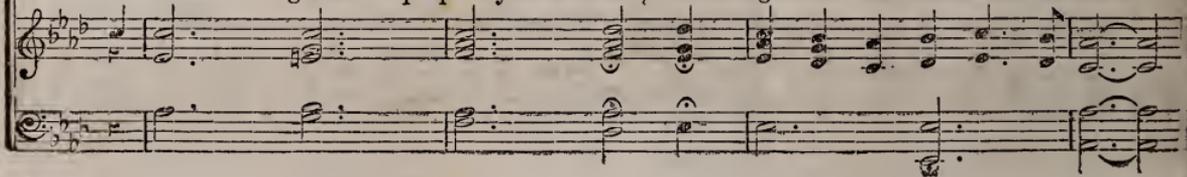

WM. B. BRADBURY.

1. There's a light in the window for thee, brother, There's a light in the window for thee;
2. There's a crown, and a robe, and a palm, brother, When from toil and from care you are free;

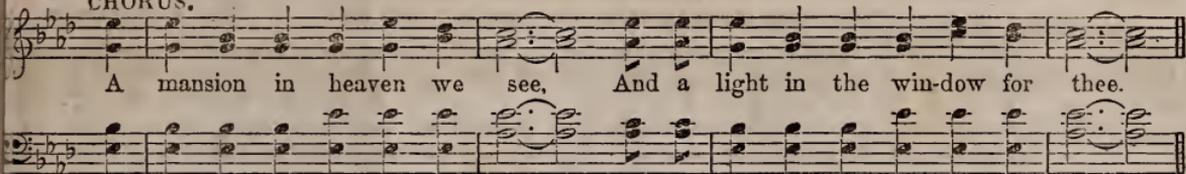

A dear one has moved to the mansions a - bove, There's a light in the win - dow for thee
The Saviour has gone to prepare you a home, With a light in the win - dow for thee.

ANSWER TO "A LIGHT IN THE WINDOW,"

1. O, the moonlight is dreary and cold, mother,
 As it looks in the eye of the sea;
 The waves are asleep in the arms of the deep,
 And my spirit is pining for thee.
Chorus.—Thou art gone, and I soon shall be there,
 In thy crown of rejoicing to share;
 I hear thy soft whisper again,
 And thy "light in the window" I see.

I cannot forget thy sweet lessons of truth,
 Oh, my spirit is pining for thee.—Chorus.

3. I remember the spot where I played, mother,
 When a child, in my innocent glee;
 The church where it stood at the end of the glade,
 And the prayer that I lisped at thy knee.—Cho.

 In my bark on the wide-rolling sea;
 I know there's a rest in the heaven above,
 Oh, my spirit is pining for thee.—Chorus.

 I'm alone on the wide-rolling sea;

“A Cry from Macedonia.” Concluded. 113

1. O how beautiful their feet upon the mountains
The tidings of peace who bring, Who bring
To the nations of the earth who sit in darkness,
And tell them of Zion's king;
Then ye heralds of the cross be up and doing,
Go work in your master's field, Away!
Sound the trumpet, sound the trumpet of salvation,

The Lord is your strength and shield.

Let the distant isles be glad,
Let them hail the Saviour's birth,
And the news of pardon free,
Till the knowledge of the truth
Shall extend to all the earth,
As the waters o'er the sea.

There's a cry from Macedonia, &c.

3. Ye have listed in the army of the faithful
Like heroes the battle fight, Away!
There are foes on every hand that will assail you,
Then gird on your armour bright;
With the banner of the cross unfurled before you,
The sword of the spirit wield, Away!
Ye shall conquer through his mercy who hath loved you,

The Lord is your strength and shield.

Ye are marching to the land
Where the saints in glory stand,
And the just for joy shall sing,
Ye by faith may bring it nigh;
Ye shall reach it bye and bye,
And your shouts of triumph ring.

There's a cry from Macedonia, &c.

Our foe, the cruel tempter,
The world our battle-field,
While the Bible is our weapon,
And God our strength and shield,
Press onward, gallant heroes,
The war will soon be passed.
Then to every soldier of the cross
There's victory at last.
Cho. For there's victory at last, &c.

Our troops are bold and fearless,
And tho' our march be long,
O'er craggy rock and mountain,
We sing our battle-song.

Hosanna in the highest,
Our toil will soon be passed
Then to every soldier of the Cross
There's victory at last.
Cho. For there's victory at last, &c.

O joyful, joyful tidings,
Let every tear be dry,
For our army is advancing,
The promised land is nigh.
And when the war is over,
And every danger passed, [there,
Then we'll sing with all the ransomed
Of victory at last, &c.

Song of the Lilies.

"CONSIDER THE LILIES OF THE FIELD, HOW THEY GROW."—Matt. 6, 28—30.

Woras by Rev. J. A. COLLIER, Kingston, N. Y.

1. Hark, the lilies whisper Tenderly and low, "In our grace and beauty See how fair we grow;" Thus our heavenly Father

Cares for all be-low. The lilies of the field, The beautiful lilies of the field, Your Father cares for them,
And shall he not care for you.

2. Hark, the roses speaking,
Telling all abroad
Their sweet, wondrous story,
Of the love of God,
In the Rose of Sharon,
Jesus Christ the Lord,
The roses how they bloom!
The beautiful roses, how they bloom!
Your Father cares for them,
And shall he not care for you?

3. Buttercups and daisies,
And the violets sweet,
Flowers of field and garden—
All their voices meet;
And their Maker's praises
To our souls repeat.
They sing their Maker's praise,
The beautiful flowers, how they sing!
Your Father cares for them,
And shall He not care for you?

4. Let us, then, be trustful,
Doubting not, although
Much of toil and trouble
Be our lot below.
Think upon the lilies,
See how fair they grow.
The lilies of the field,
The beautiful lilies of the field;
Your Father cares for them,
And shall He not care for you?

The Little Wanderer. L. M.

1. Jesus to thy dear arms I flee, I have no other help but thee; For thou dost suffer me to come, O take a little wand'rer home.

D. S. O take a little wand'rer home.

2. Jesus, I'll try my cross to bear,
I'll follow thee and never fear;
From thy dear fold I would not roam;
O take a little wanderer home.
3. Jesus, I cannot see thee here,
Yet still I know thou'rt very near;

- O say my sins are all forgiven,
And I shall dwell with thee in heaven.
5. And now, dear Jesus, I am thine,
O be thou ever, ever mine,
And let me never, never roam
From thee, the little wanderer's home.

Children in Heaven. C. M. From "THE CHAIN." by permission.

CHORUS.

1. { Around the throne of God in heaven Ten thousand children stand,
Children whose sins are all forgiven, A ho-ly, hap-py band, } Singing glory, glo-ry, glo-ry, hal-le-lu-jah! Singing

2. What brought them to that world above, Both in that pure and precious flood,
That heaven so bright and fair, Behold them white and clean.—Cho.
glory, glory, glory, alle-lu-jah! Where all is peace, and joy, and love?
How came those children there?—Cho.

3. Because the Saviour shed his blood, 4. On earth they sought the Saviour's grace
To wash away our sin; On earth they loved his name;
And now they see his blessed face,
And stand before the Lamb.—Cho.

The Penitent.

Tune, "Children in Heaven."

1. Prostrate, dear Jesus, at thy feet
A guilty rebel lies
And upward to the mercy-seat
Presumes to lift his eyes.
Crying save me, save me!
Save me, blessed Saviour!
Crying save me, save me!
Save me, blessed Saviour!
2. If tears of sorrow would suffice
To pay the debt I owe,

- Tears should from both my weeping eyes
In ceaseless torrents flow.—Chorus.
3. But no such sacrifice I plead
To expiate my guilt;
No tears, but those which thou hast shed—
No blood, but thou hast spelt.—Chorus.
4. Think of thy sorrows, dearest Lord!
And all my sins forgive!
Justice will well approve the word
That bids the sinner live.—Chorus.

D. C. with full Chorus.

1. I am a patriot true, Sir,
 Yes, I am, yes, I am;
 I am a patriot true, Sir,
 Like those of SEVENTY-FIVE.
 I love that patriot spirit,
 Yes, I do, yes, I do;
 I love that patriot spirit,—
 'Tis in my breast alive.
 I will not shun the toil or care,
 But for my country do or dare;
 I will not shun the toil or care,
 But bravely do or dare.

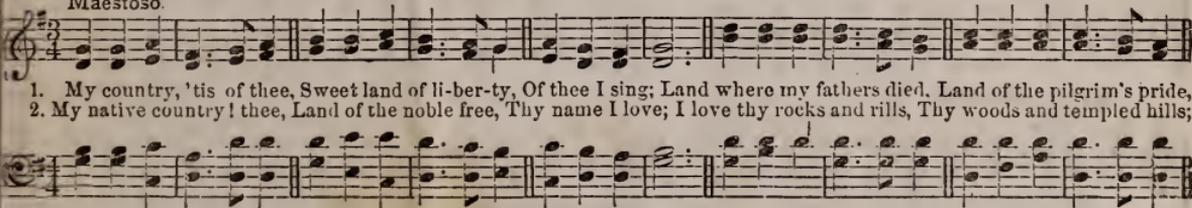

3. I love my country's cause, Sir,
 Yes, I do, yes, I do;
 I love my country's cause, Sir,
 Her noble, sacred cause.
 And I'll obey her laws, Sir,
 Yes, I will, yes, I will;
 And I'll obey her laws, Sir,
 Her just and righteous laws.
 Her Constitution I will prize,
 So just and equal, good and wise,
 Her Constitution I will prize,
 So just, and good, and wise.

4. I am a patriot true, Sir,
 Yes, I am, yes, I am;
 I am a patriot true, Sir,
 All ready for the strife.
 My country's good is all, Sir,
 Yes, it is, yes, it is;
 My country's good is all, Sir,—
 To me the breathe of life.
 I'd pour the blood from every vein,
 To leave her free from every stain,
 I'd pour the blood from every vein,
 To leave her free from stain.

America. National Hymn. Words by F. S. SMITH.

1. My country, 'tis of thee, Sweet land of li-ber-ty, Of thee I sing; Land where my fathers died, Land of the pilgrim's pride,
 2. My native country I thee, Land of the noble free, Thy name I love; I love thy rocks and rills, Thy woods and templed hills;

From ev-'ry mountain side Let freedom ring.
 My heart with rapture thrills, Like that a-bove.

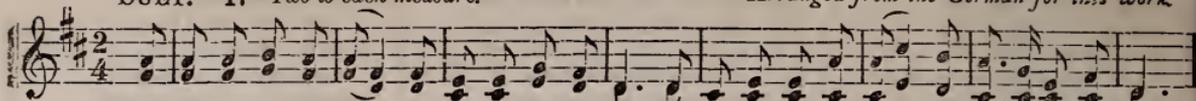

3. Let music swell the breeze,
 And ring from all the trees
 Sweet freedom's song:
 Let mortal tongues awake,
 Let all that breathe partake,
 Let rocks their silence break,
 The sound prolong.

4. Our father's God, to thee,
 Author of liberty,
 To thee we sing:
 Long may our land be bright
 With freedom's holy light;
 Protect us by thy might,
 Great God, our King.

Watchman, Tell Me. 7s & 8s. Double. 123

Moderato. 18—Two to each measure. DIALOGUE.

1. Watchman, tell me, does the morning Of fair Zi-on's glo-ry dawn?
 Have the signs that mark its com-ing Yet up-on thy pathway shone? Pilgrim, yes! a-rise, look round thee; Light is breaking in the skies;... Gird thy bridal robes around thee, Morning dawns, a-rise, a-rise!

2. Watchman, see, the light is beaming,
 Brighter still upon the way;
 Signs through all the earth are gleaming,
 Omens of the coming day
 When the Jubal trumpet sounding,
 Shall awake from earth and sea,
 And the saints of God now sleeping,
 Clad in immortality.
3. Watchman, hail, the light ascending,
 Of the grand Sabbathic year;
 All with voices loud proclaiming
 That the kingdom's very near:
 Pilgrim, yes, I see just yonder,
 Canaan's glorious heights arise,
 Salem too appears in grandeur,
 Towering 'neath its sun-lit skies.

4. Watchman, in the golden city,
 Seated on His jasper throne,
 Zion's king enthroned in beauty,
 Reigns in peace from zone to zone;
 There on sun-lit hills and mountains,
 Golden beams serenely glow;
 Purling streams and crystal fountains,
 On whose banks sweet flow'rets blow.
5. Watchman, see, the land is nearing,
 With its vernal fruits and flowers,
 On just yonder, O how cheering
 Bloom forever Eden's bowers!
 Hark! the choral strains are ringing,
 Wafted on the balmy air,
 See the millions, hear them singing,
 Soon the pilgrim will be there.

THE MUSICAL PROFESSION OF NEW YORK TO WM. B. BRADBURY.

STRONG INDORSEMENT OF
WM. B. BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTES.

The most eminent of the musical profession of New York City, after frequent and thorough trials of my NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTES, have given me the most emphatic and unqualified Testimonials. The following is a specimen of the voluntary testimony I am constantly receiving from gentlemen entirely disinterested, and, as all will acknowledge, most thoroughly qualified to judge of the merits of a Piano-Forte.

"We have examined, with much care, Mr. WM. B. BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTES, and it is our opinion that, in power, purity, richness, equality of tone, and THOROUGH WORKMANSHIP, Mr. BRADBURY'S instruments EXCEL.

"We find GREAT BRILLIANCY and a BEAUTIFUL SINGING QUALITY of tone most happily blended. We have RARELY SEEN a square Piano-Forte combining so many of these qualities essential to a PERFECT INSTRUMENT."

GOTTSCHALK,

The renowned Pianist and Composer, AFTER A CAREFUL AND THOROUGH EXAMINATION OF WM. B. BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTES, says:

"I have examined with GREAT CARE, Mr. WM. B. BRADBURY'S New Scale Piano-Fortes, and it is my opinion that they are VERY SUPERIOR INSTRUMENTS.

"I have especially remarked their THOROUGH WORKMANSHIP, and the power, purity, richness, and EQUALITY of their tone. I recommend, therefore, these instruments to the public in general, and doubt not of their success.

BRADBURY'S PIANO FORTES.

FAVORABLE NOTICES.

. Our friend, Mr. WILLIAM B. BRADBURY, makes Pianos that are equal to the best in the world. We have had one of them in our own house for several years, and for richness and brilliancy of tone it is such a piano as is not exceeded by any that we have ever heard. Its tones are more perfect now than when it was new, which is a good deal more than can be said of most pianos that have had years' faithful use.—Ed. N. Y. Examiner.

THEODORE TILTON, editor of the Independent, in a note to Mr. BRADBURY, says:

"MY DEAR BRADBURY: I have had the beautiful piano so long, that now to ask me how I like it is like asking me how I like one of my children. In fact, if you were to ask the children, I'm afraid they would say they liked it nearly as well as they like me. It speaks every day, the year round, and never loses its voice. I wish its owner could do half as well. Ever your friend, as of old,

THEODORE TILTON.

THE PIANO FORTE.—There is probably no article of utility or luxury in the purchase of which so much must be trusted to the honor and integrity of the manufacturers as the Piano Forte. The name of WILLIAM B. BRADBURY is a musical household word, and is a sure guarantee to the purchaser that the instrument bearing his name is in all respects perfect. Mr. BRADBURY has gained a world-wide celebrity; and having plenty of capital, is determined that his instruments shall not be equalled by those of any other maker.—Christian Advocate and Journal.

[From the New York Evangelist, Dec. 28, 1865.]

BRADBURY'S PIANOS.—New York produces, we suppose, the finest pianos in the world. Very great progress has been made in the manufacture of these instruments within a few years. Perhaps nobody has made more rapid improvement than our friend Mr. BRADBURY. He has recently finished a GRAND SCALE SQUARE, which is claimed to be the finest Square Piano ever built; and though we are not connoisseurs in such matters, we must confess our admiration for its rich roundness, mellowness, and depth of tone. It is not our purpose to vaunt its superiority over any other particular build of pianos, but merely to note its own excellence, with a feeling of gratification that the taste of our citizens is so refined as to create a demand for SUCH INSTRUMENTS. This magnificent instrument possesses not one harsh, jarring, "wooden" or metallic note, either in its highest or lowest registers; it sinks its melodious tones to the softness of an Æolian harp, or in the wildest forte passages pours forth a flood of richest harmony. To us it seemed as if this were about the ideal of a Piano Forte. At any rate, we do not expect to hear, in the next five years, anything which comes nearer to perfection.
