PREFACE TO MUSIC.

THE slave music of the South presents a field for research and study very extensive and rich, and one which has been scarcely more than entered upon.

There are evidently, I think, two legitimate methods of treating this music: either to render it in its absolute, rude simplicity, or to develop it without destroying its original characteristics; the only proper field for such development being in the harmony.

Practical experience shows the necessity, in some cases, of making compensation for its loss in being transplanted. Half its effectiveness, in its home, depends upon accompaniments which can be carried away only in memory. The inspiration of numbers; the overpowering chorus, covering defects; the swaying of the body; the rhythmical stamping of the feet; and all the wild enthusiasm of the negro camp-meeting—these evidently can not be transported to the boards of a public performance. To secure variety and do justice to the music, I have, therefore, treated it by both methods. The most characteristic of the songs are left entirely or nearly untouched. On the other hand, the improvement which a careful bringing out of the various parts has effected in such pieces as “Some o’ dese Mornin’s,” “Bright Sparkles in de Churchyard,” “Dust an’ Ashes,” and “The Church ob God,” which seemed especially susceptible to such development, suggests possibilities of making more than has ever yet been made out of this slave music.

Another obstacle to its rendering is the fact that tones are frequently employed which we have no musical characters to represent. Such, for example, is that which I have indicated as nearly as possible by the flat seventh, in "Great Camp-meetin'," "Hard Trials," and others. These tones are variable in pitch, ranging through an entire interval on different occasions, according to the inspiration of the singer. They are rarely discordant, and often add a charm to the performance. It is of course impossible to explain them in words, and to those who wish to sing them, the best advice is that most useful in learning to pronounce a foreign language: Study all the rules you please; then—go listen to a native.

One reason for publishing this slave music is, that it is rapidly passing away. It may be that this people which has developed such a wonderful musical sense in its degradation will, in its maturity, produce a composer who could bring a music of the future out of this music of the past. At present, however, the freedmen have an unfortunate inclination to despise it, as a vestige of slavery; those who learned it in the old time, when it was the natural outpouring of their sorrows and longings, are dying off, and if efforts are not made for its preservation, the country will soon have lost this wonderful music of bondage.

The melodies in this book, with few exceptions, are published here for the first time, and these exceptions are themselves original in arrangement and effect. The words of the slave hymns are often common property through the South, sung to different tunes in different sections of the country.

THOMAS P. FENNER.

HAMPTON, VA., January 1, 1874.

INTRODUCTION.

IN publishing this new and enlarged edition of the Hampton Songs, little explanation is needed, for it is done in response to a demand. Ever since the publication of the first edition, in 1874, when the band of Hampton Student Singers were helping to raise the walls of Virginia Hall by their concerts in the North, there have been frequent requests for their music. Meanwhile, though the old favorites have not been neglected, many more melodies, striking and beautiful, have been brought in by students from various parts of the South. The field seems almost inexhaustible. Their origin no one exactly knows. An old "Aunty," questioned on the subject, declared that "When Mass'r Jesus He walk de earth, when He feel tired He sit a-restin' on Jacob's well and make up dese yer spirituals for His people." A half-familiar strain, recalling some old ballad or psalm-tune, now and then suggests a possible solution for some of them; and, as Lowell said of Chaucer, "If one can transmute lead into gold, why ask where he got his lead?" So strikingly original, as well as of such quaint, pathetic, even artistic beauty, are most of them, that they justify Edward Everett Hale's assertion, that they are "the only American music."

A consideration of the slave music of the South, from the musician's standpoint, was made by Mr. Thomas P. Fenner, who trained the original band of Hampton Student Singers, and arranged the songs in the first edition of this book, his preface to which is subjoined. The disposition which he noticed in the freedmen to be ashamed of the songs of slave times still exists. Some of the old ring is lost with the experience that called it forth. Yet the people are still natural musicians, and it is easy to arouse in the more advanced an intelligent interest in the characteristic music which excites so much sympathy and respect for their race, is so identified with their past history and their present fortunes.

NOTE TO THIRD EDITION.

In 1891 a second edition was printed, and to this was added several new songs, including a few from Indian and other nationalities represented at Hampton, arranged by Mr. F. G. Rathbun, at that time musical director at Hampton, and also a few from the Tuskegee collection arranged by Mr. R. H. Hamilton, a graduate of Hampton and one of the original band of Hampton Singers.

To these are now added over forty new ones, collected and arranged by Miss Bessie Cleaveland, musical instructor at Hampton since 1892.

The hymn called by General Armstrong the Negroes' Battle Hymn, sung by his colored soldiers during the war and since then at Hampton, is added to the collection ; also, by special request, the grace sung at meal-time by the students of the school.

Peter, go King dem Bells.

"A secret prayer-meeting song, sung by Thomas Vess, a blacksmith and a slave. He especially sang it when any one confessed religion. Thomas Vess was a man whose heart was given to these songs, for in the neighborhood where he lived, it seemed like a prayer-meeting did not go on well without him. I have long since learned wherever he was known what happiness he got from them." J. M. WADDY.

Swing low, sweet Chariot.

Oh swing low, sweet cha - ri - ot, Swing low, sweet cha - ri - ot,

The first system of music consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff has a melody with eighth and quarter notes, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

Swing low, sweet cha - ri - ot, I don't want to leave me be - hind.

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The treble staff melody includes a dotted quarter note and an eighth note. The bass staff accompaniment features a steady rhythmic pattern.

Oh de good ole chariot swing so low, Good ole chariot swing so low,

The third system features a more melodic treble staff with dotted quarter and eighth note patterns. The bass staff continues with a consistent accompaniment.

D. C.

Oh de good ole chariot swing so low, I don't want to leave me behind.

The fourth system concludes the piece with a double bar line. The treble staff melody ends with a quarter note, and the bass staff accompaniment also concludes with a quarter note.

2 Oh de good ole chariot will take us all home,
I don't want to leave me behind.

Сно.—Oh swing low, sweet chariot, &c.

My Bretheren, don't get Weary.

Nobody knows de trouble I've Seen.

(This song was a favorite in the Sea Islands. Once when there had been a good deal of ill feeling excited, and trouble was apprehended, owing to the uncertain action of the Government in regard to the confiscated lands on the Sea Islands, Gen. Howard was called upon to address the colored people earnestly. To prepare them to listen, he asked them to sing. Immediately an old woman on the outskirts of the meeting began "Nobody knows the trouble I've seen," and the whole audience joined in. The General was so affected by the plaintive melody, that he found it difficult to maintain his official dignity.)

Oh, no - bod - y knows de trou-ble I've seen, No - bod - y knows but Je - sus, Nobod - y knows de trouble I've seen. Glory Hal - le - lu - jah!

Some-times I'm up, sometimes I'm down; Oh, yes, Lord;
Al - though you see me goin' long so, Oh, yes, Lord;

Some - times I'm al - most to de groun', Oh, yes, Lord.
I have my tri - als here be - low, Oh, yes, Lord.

- 2 One day when I was walkin' along, Oh yes, Lord—
De element opened, an' de Love came down, Oh yes, &c.
I never shall forget dat day, Oh yes, &c.
When Jesus washed my sins away, Oh yes, &c.
CHO.—Oh, nobody knows de trouble I've seen, &c.

View de Land.

CHORUS.

Oh way o - ver Jer - dan, View de land, View de land—

Way o - ver Jer - dan, Go view de heavenly land.

I'm born of God, I know I am; View de land, View de land;
I want to go to heaven when I die; View de land, View de land;

And you de - ny it, if - a you can, Go view de heav'nly land.
To shout sal - va - tion as - a I fly, Go view de heav'nly land. D. C.

- 2 What kind o' shoes is dem-a you wear? View de land, &c.
Dat you can walk upon de air? Go view, &c.
Dem shoes I wear am de gospel shoes; View de land, &c.
An' you can wear dem ef-a you choose; Go view, &c.—Cho.
- 3 Der' is a tree in Paradise; View de land, &c.
De Christian he call it de tree ob life; Go view, &c.
I spects to eat de fruit right off o' dat tree; View de land, &c.
Ef busy old Satan will let-a me be; Go view, &c.—Cho.
- 4 You say yer Jesus set-a you free; View de land, &c.
Why don't you let-a your neighbor be? Go view, &c.
You say you're aiming for de skies; View de land, &c.
Why don't you stop-a your telling lies; Go view, &c.—Cho.

- 2 I had a little book, an I read it through,
I got my Jesus as well as you;
I don' want to stay here no longer;
Oh I got a mother in de promised land,
I hope my mother will feed dem lambs;
I don' want to stay here no longer.
- CHO.—Oh swing low, sweet chariot, &c.
- 3 Oh, some go to church for to holler an' shout,
Before six months dey're all turned out;
I don' want to stay here no longer.
Oh, some go to church for to laugh an' talk,
But dey knows nothin' bout dat Christian walk;
I don' want to stay here no longer.
- CHO.—Oh, swing low, sweet chariot, &c.
- 4 Oh shout, shout, de deb'l is about;
Oh shut your do' an' keep him out;
I don' want to stay here no longer.
For he is so much-a like-a snaky in de grass,
Ef you don' mind he will get you at las',
I don' want to stay here no longer.
- CHO.—Oh, swing low, sweet chariot, &c.

If ye want to see Jesus.

"My father sang this hymn, and said he knew a time when a great many slaves were allowed to have a revival for two days, while their masters and their families had one; and a great many professed religion. And one poor, ignorant man, professed religion, and praised God, and sang this hymn."

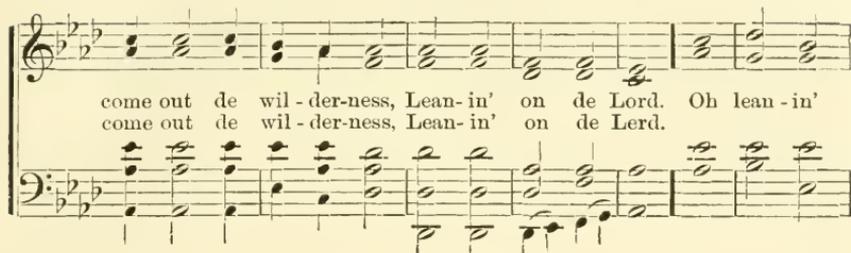

Ef ye want to see Je - sus, Go in de wilderness, Go in de wil - der-ness, Go in the wilderness, Ef ye want to see Je - sus,

Go in de wilderness Lean-in' on de Lord. Oh, brother how d'ye
 I felt so on de Lord, Lean-in' on de Lord, Oh lean-in' up -

- on de Lamb of God, who was slain on Cal - va - ry.

- 2 I shouted Hallelujah, when I come out de wilderness—
Leanin' on de Lord ;
I heard de angels singin', when I come out de wilderness—
Leanin' on de Lord ;
I heard de harps a harpin', when I come out de wilderness—
Leanin' on de Lord.
CHO.—Oh, leanin' on de Lord.
- 3 I heard de angels moanin', when I come out de wilderness—
Leanin' on de Lord ;
I heard de deb'l howlin', when I come out de wilderness—
Leanin' on de Lord ;
I gib de deb'l a battle, when I come out de wilderness—
Leanin' on de Lord.
CHO.—Oh, leanin' on de Lord.

Oh, Yes.

Oh, yes! Oh, yes! I tell ye, breth-er-en, a mor-tal fac',

Oh, yes! Oh, yes! Ef ye want to get to heab'n, don't nebber look back,

Oh, yes! Oh, yes! I want to know-a before I go, Oh, yes! Oh, yes!
Ebb-er since I hab-a been newly born.

Yea, whether you love - a de Lord or no, Oh, yes! Oh, yes!
I love for to see - a God's work go on,

Oh, wait till I put on my robe, wait till I put on my robe,

Oh, Yes.—Concluded.

The musical score consists of two staves, a treble clef on top and a bass clef on the bottom. The melody is written in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the treble staff. The music ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Wait till I put on my robe, Oh, yes! Oh, yes!

Ef eber I land on de oder sho', Oh, yes,
I'll nebber come here for to sing no mo',
Oh, yes;
A golden band all round my waist,
An' de palms ob vic-a-try in-a my hand,
An' de golden slippers on to my feet,
Gwine to walk up an' down o' dem golden street.
CHO.—Oh, wait till I put on my robe.

3.

An' my lovely bretherin, dat aint all, Oh,
yes,
I'm not done a talkin' about my Lord;
An' a golden crown a-placed on a-my head,
An' my long white robe a-come-a-dazzlin'
down,
Now wait till I get on my gospel shoes,
Gwine to walk about de heaben an' a-carry de news.
CHO.—Oh, wait till I put on my robe.

4.

I'm anchored in Christ, Christ anchored
in me, Oh, yes, &c.,
All de deb'ls in hell can't-a-pluck a-me
out;
An' I wonder what Satan 's grumbulin'
about,
He's bound into hell, an' he can't git out.
But he shall be loose an' hab his sway,
Yea at de great resurrection day.
CHO.—Oh, wait till I put on my robe.

Verses, some of which are often added as encores.

5.

I went down de hill side to make a-one prayer, Oh, yes,

An' when I got dere, old Satan was dere,
Oh, yes,
An' what do ye t'ink he said to me?
Oh, yes,
Said, "Off from here you'd better be."
Oh, yes;
An' what for to do, I did not know, Oh,
yes,
But I fell on my knees, an' I cried, Oh,
Lord, Oh, yes,
Now my Jesus bein' so good an' kind,
Yea, to de with-er-ed, halt an' blind;
My Jesus lowered his mercy down,
An' snatch-a-me from a-dem doors ob hell,
He snatch-a-me from dem doors ob hell,
An' took-a me in a-wid him to dwell.
CHO.—Oh, wait till I put on my robe.

6.

I was in de church an' prayin' loud,
An' on my knees to my Jesus bowed,
Ole Satan tole me to my face,
"I'll git you when-a-you leave dis place,"
Oh, brother, dat scare me to my heart,
I was 'fraid to walk a-when it was dark.
CHO.—Oh, wait till I get on my robe.

7.

I started home, but I did pray,
An' I met ole Satan on de way;
Ole Satan made a-one grab at me,
But he missed my soul, an' I went free.
My sins went a-lumberin' down to hell,
An' my soul went a-leapin' up Zion's hill;
I tell ye what, bretherin, you'd better not laugh,
Ole Satan 'll run you down his path;
If he runs you, as he run me,
You'll be glad to fall upon your knee.
CHO.—Oh, wait till I put on my robe.

The musical score is written in 4/4 time and consists of five systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a bass line (bass clef). The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The first system includes the title and the first line of lyrics. The second and third systems continue the lyrics and include the instruction 'For a Say.....' at the end of the vocal line. The fourth system continues the lyrics. The fifth system is marked 'CHO.' and contains the final line of lyrics. The music features a simple harmonic accompaniment in the bass line and a melody in the vocal line.

Sweet Canaan.

My mother used to tell me how the colored People all expected to be free some day, and how one night, a great many of them met together in a Cabin, and tied little budgets on their backs, as though they expected to go off some where, and cried, and shook hands, and sang this hymn.

In dat great gittin-up Mornin'.

THIS song is a remarkable paraphrase of a portion of the Book of Revelations, and one of the finest specimens of negro "Spirituals." The student who brought it to us, and who sings the Solos, has furnished all that he can remember of the almost interminable succession of verses, which he has heard sung for half an hour at a time, by the slaves in their midnight meetings in the woods. He gives the following interesting account of its origin :

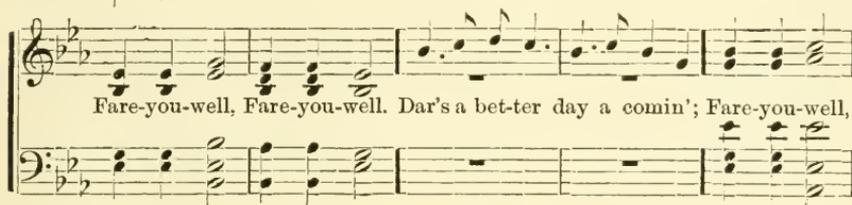

"I have heard my uncle sing this hymn, and he told me how it was made. It was made by an old slave who knew nothing about letters or figures. He could not count the number of rails that he would split when he was tasked by his master to split 150 a day. But he tried to lead a Christian life, and he dreamed of the General Judgment, and told his fellow-servants about it, and then made a tune to it, and sang it in his cabin meetings." J. B. TOWE.

Walk you in de Light.

Walk you in de light, Walk you in de light,

The first system of the song features a treble and bass staff in 4/4 time with a key signature of three flats. The melody in the treble staff consists of eighth and quarter notes, while the bass staff provides a steady accompaniment of chords.

Walk you in de light, Walk-in' in de light o' God,

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The treble staff melody includes some beamed eighth notes, and the bass staff accompaniment remains consistent with the first system.

Oh, chil-dren. God. Oh, chil-dren, do you think it's true,
Yes, He died for me an' He died for you,

The third system introduces a vocal melody in the treble staff with two distinct phrases labeled '1st' and '2d.'. The '1st' phrase is a short melodic line, and the '2d.' phrase is a longer line. The bass staff accompaniment is sparse, with rests in the first two measures.

Walkin' in de light o' God, Dat Je - sus Christ did die for you,
For de Ho - ly Bi - ble does say so,

The fourth system continues the vocal melody in the treble staff and the accompaniment in the bass staff. The melody is a steady sequence of eighth and quarter notes.

Walk you in de Light.—Concluded.

The musical score is written for a single melodic line on a treble clef staff. It begins with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a 2/4 time signature. The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics are written below the staff. The score is divided into two parts: '1st.' and '2d. D. C. dal Cho.' The '2d.' part features a more rhythmic melody with eighth notes and a final cadence.

Walk - in' in de light o' God, Oh, chil - dren.

Gideon's Band; or, De milk-white Horses.

The explanation which has been given us of the origin of this curious hymn is, we think, invaluable as an example of the manner in which external facts grew to have a strange symbolical meaning in the imaginative mind of the negro race.

In a little town in one of the Southern States, a Scriptural panorama was exhibited, in which Gideon's Band held a prominent place, the leader being conspicuously mounted upon a white horse. The black people of the neighborhood crowded to see it, and suddenly, and to themselves inexplicably, this swinging "Milk-White Horses" sprang up among them, establishing itself soon as a standard church and chimney-corner hymn.

Oh, de band ob Gid - e - on, band ob Gid - e - on, band ob Gid - e - on,
Oh, de milk-white hor - ses, milk-white hor - ses, milk-white hor - ses,

The Enlisted Soldiers.

(Sung by the men of the U. S. Colored Volunteers.)

NOTE.—While recruiting and drilling the 9th. Regiment, U. S. Colored troops at Benedict, Maryland, in the winter of 1863-64, the men gathered around the camp-fire would sing by the hour the melodies of the plantation slave life that they had just left—not always very melodious; but late one evening I was startled by a magnificent chorus from nearly a thousand black soldiers, that called me from my tent to listen to its most inspiring strains, and I caught the following words which I called the “Negro Battle Hymn.” S. C. ARMSTRONG.

1. Hark! lis - ten to the trum - pet - ers, They call for vol - un - teers,
 2. Their hors - es, white their ar - mor bright, With cour - age bold they stand,
 3. It sets my heart quite in a flame, A sol - dier thus to be,

REF.—They look like men, they look like men, They look like men of war;

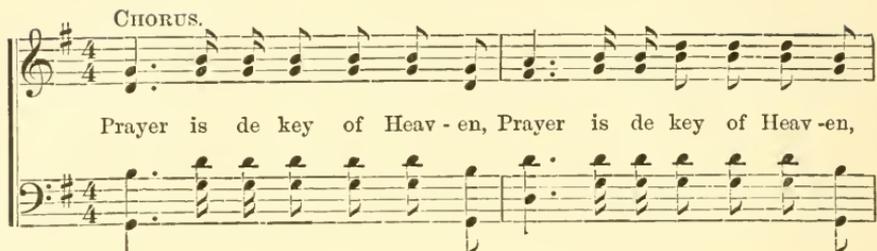

On Zi - on's bright and flow - ry mount, Be - hold the of - fi - cers.
 En - list - ing sol - diers for their King, To march to Canaan's land.
 I will en - list, gird on my arms, And fight for lib - er - ty.

All armed and dressed in un - i - form, They look like men of war.

- 4 We want no cowards in our band,
That will their colors fly;
We call for valiant hearted men,
Who're not afraid to die.—Ref.
- 6 They follow their great General,
The great Eternal Lamb,
His garment stained in His own blood,
King Jesus is His name.—Ref.
- 5 To see our armies on parade,
How martial they appear,
All armed and dressed in uniform,
They look like men of war.—Ref.
- 7 The trumpets sound, the armies shout,
They drive the host of Hell,
How dreadful is our God to adore,
The great Immanuel.—Ref.

Tencho=Setsu no Uta.

(Song for the Emperor's birthday.)

NOTE.—This song, the words of which were composed by Baron Takasaki, the poet-laureate of Japan, shows the divine honors that are paid to the Son of Heaven, as the Japanese love to call their Emperor. The feeling toward the Emperor is not so much patriotic as religious, and the song is a hymn of praise.

The glory of the sun never fails nor grows dim.

Though swift-passing clouds may oftimes hide his light.

Now he shines through their screen, now clouds hide his rim,

Then again the winds arise and the shadows take flight.

So our nation's Sun, though hidden through ages of night,

Now rises in glory; the fresh breezes come at his call;

Clouds are fled that through centuries darkened his light.

The people now rejoice, for their Sun shines upon all.

Chorus.—Glory to our King, long live our King.

Glory to our King, long live our King.

Long may he live.

Words by Baron TAKASAKI.
