PREFACE.

HILE we fing the Praises of our God in his Church, we are em-ploy'd in that Part of Worship which of all others is the nearest a-kin to Heaven; and 'tis pity that this of all others should be perform'd the worst upon Earth. The Gospel brings us nearer to the heavenly State than all the former Dispensations of God amongst Men: And in these last Days of the Gospel we are brought almost within fight of the Kingdom of our Lord; yet we are very much unacquainted with the Songs of the New Jerusalem, and unpractis'd in the Work of Praise. To see the dull Indifference, the negligent and the thoughtless Air, that fits upon the Faces of a whole Afsembly, while the Psalm is on their Lips, might tempt even a charitable Observer to suspect the Pervency of inward Religion; and tis much to be fear'd that the Minds of most of the Worshippers are absent or unconcern'd Perhaps the Modes of Preaching in the best Churches still want some Degrees of Reformation, nor are the Methods of Prayer so perfect as to stand in need of no Correction or Improvement: But of all our Religious Solemnities Psalmody is the most unhappily manag'd. That every Action which should elevate us to the most delightful and divine Sensations, doth not only stat our Devotion, but too often awakens our Regret, and touches all the Springs of Uneasiness within us.

I have been long convinc'd, that one great Occasion of this Evil arises from the Matter and Words to which we confine all out Songs. Some of them are almost opposite to the Spirit of the Gospel: Many of them soreign to the State of the New-Testament, and widely different from the present Circumstances of Christians. Hence it comes to pass, that when spiritual Affections are excited within us, and our Souls are rais'd a little above this Earth in the Beginning of a Pfalm, we are check'd on a fudden in our Ascent toward Heaven, by some Expressions that are more suited to the Days of Carnal Ordinances, and fit only to be sung in the Worldly Sanctuary. When we are just entring into an Evangelick Frame by some of the Glories of the Gospel presented in the brightest Figures of Judaism, yet the very next Line perhaps which the Clerk parcels out unto us, hath something in it so ex-

Sight of God the Saviour: Thus by keeping to close to David in the House of God, the Vail of Moses is thrown over our Hearts. While we are kindling into Divine Love by the Meditations of the loving Kindness of God, and the Multitude of his tender Mercies, within a few Verses some dreadful Curse against Men is proposed to our Lips; That God would add Iniquity unto their Iniquity, nor let 'em come into his Righteousness, but blot 'em out of the Book of the Living, Pfal. lxix. 26, 27, 28. which is so contrary to the New Commandment of loving our Enemies; and even under the Old Teltament is best accounted for, by referring it to the Spirit of Prophetick Vengeance. Some Sentences of the Pfalmist that are expressive of the Temper of our own Hearts, and the Circumstances of our Lives, may compose our Spirits to Seriousness, and allure us to a sweet Retirement within our selves, but we meet with a following Line, which so peculiarly belongs but to one Action or Hour of the Life of David or of Asaph, that breaks off our Song in the Midst; our Consciences are affrighted, lest we should speak a Falshood unto God: Thus the Powers of our Sou's are shock'd on a sudden, and our Spirits ruffled before we have Time to reflect, that this may be fung only as a Hiflory of ancient Saints: And, perhaps, in some Instances, that Salvo is hardly sufficient neither. Besides, it almost always spoils the the Devotion by breakingthe uniform Thread of it. For while our Lips and our Hearts run on sweetly together, applying the Words to our own Case, there is something of Divine Delight in it: But at once we are forced to turn off the Application abruptly, and our Lips speak nothing but the Heart of David: Thus our own Hearts are as it were forbid the Pursuit of the Song, and then the Harmony and the Worship grow dull of meer necessity.

stians, have long groan'd under this Inconvenience, and have wish'd rather than attempted a Reformation: At their importunate and repeated Requests I have for some Years past devoted many Hours of Leisure to this Service. Far be it from my Thoughts to lay afide the Book of Psalms in publick Worship; few can pretend so great a Value for them as my self: It is the most Artful, most Devotional and Divine Collection of Poefy; and nothing can be suppos'd more proper to raise a pious Soul to Heaven than some Parts of that Book; never was a Piece of experimental Divinity so nobly written, and so justly reverenced and admired: But it must be acknowledged still, that there are a thousand Lines in it which were not made for a Church in our Days, to assume as its own: There are also many Deficiencies of Light and Glory, which our Lord Jesus and his Apostles have supply'd in the Writings of

The PREFACE the New Testament; and with this Advantage I have composed these Spiritual Songs which are now presented to the World-Nor is the Attempt vain-glorious or presuming; for in respect of clear Evangelical Knowledge,

The least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than all the Jewish Probets, Matt. xi. 11.

Now let me give a short Account of the following Composures. The greatest Part of 'em are suited to the general State of the Gospel, and the most common Affairs of Christians : I hope there will be very few found but what may properly be used in a religious Affembly, and not one of them but may well be adapted to some Seasons, either of private or of publick Worship. The most frequent Tempers and Changes of our Spirit, and Conditions of our Life are here copied, and the Breathings of our Piety exprest according to the Variety of our Passions, our Love, our Fear, our Hope, our Desire, our Sorrow, our Wonder, and our Joy, as they are refined into Devo-tion, and act under the Influence and Con-duct of the Bleffed Spirit; all converfing with God the Pather by the new and living Way of Access to the Throne; even the Perfon and the Mediation of our Lord Tefus Christ. To him also, even to the Tamb that was Sain and now lives, I have address'd many a Song; for thus doth the Holy Scripture instruct and teach us to worship, in the vations short Patterns of Christian Pfalmody described in the Revelations. I have avoided the more obscure and controverted Points of Christianity, that we might all obey the Direction of the Word of God, and sing his Praises with Understanding, Psal. xlvii. 7. The Contentions and distinguishing Words of Sects and Parties are secluded, that whole Assemblica might affift at the Harmony, and different Churches join in the same Worship without Offence.

If any Expressions occur to the Reader that favour of an Opinion different from his own, yet he may observe these are generally such as are capable of an extensive Sense, and may be used with a charitable Latitude. I think its most agreeable, that what is provided for publick Singing, should give to fincere Consciences as little Disturbance as possible. However, where any unpleasing Word is found, he that leads the Worship may substitute a better; for (blessed be God) we are not confined to the Words of any Man in our publick Solemnities.

The whole Book is written in four sorts of Metre, and fitted to the most common Tunes. I have seldom permitted a Stop in the Middle of a Line, and seldom lest the end of a Line, without one to comport a little with the unhappy Minture of Reading and Singing, which cannot presently be reformed. The Metaphors are generally sunk to the Level of vulgar Capacities. I have aim'd at Ease, of Numbers and Smoothness of Sound.

Sound, and endeavoured to make the Sense plain and obvious. If the Verse appears so gentie and flowing as to incur the Censure of Feeblenes, I may honestly affirm, that sometimes it cost me Labour to make it so : Some of the Beauties of Poely are neglected, and some wilfully defac'd: I have thrown out the Lines that were too fonorous, and have given an Allay to the Verse, lest a more exalted Turn of Thought or Language should darken or disturb the Devotion of the weakest Souls. But hence it comes to pass, that I have been forc'd to lay afide many Hymns after they were finish'd, and utterly exclude them from this Volume, because of the bolder Figures of Speech that crouded themselves into the Verse, and a more unconfin'd Variety of Number, which I could not easily restrain.

These, with many other Divine and Moral Composures, are now Printed in a Second Edition of the Poems, entitled, Hore Lyrice; for as in that Book I have endeavour'd to please and profit the politer Part of Mankind, without offending the plainer fort of Christians, fo in this it has been my Labour to promote the pious Entertainment of Souls truly serious, even of the meanest Capacity, and at the same Time (if possible) not to give Disgust to Persons of richer Sense, and nicer Education; and I hope, in the present Volume this End will appear to be pursu'd with much greater Happiness than in the first

Impression of it, though the World assures me the former has not much Reason to complain. 🌝

The whole is divided into three Books.

In the First, I have borrow'd the Sense and much of the Form of the Song from some particular Portions of Scripture, and have paraphras'd most of the Doxologies in the New Testament, that contain any Thing in em peculiarly Evangelical, and many Parts of the Old Testament also, that have a Reference to the Times of the Messiah. In these I expect to be often censur'd for a too religious Observance of the Words of Scripture, whereby the Verse is weaken'd and debas'd according to the Judgment of the Criticks: But as my whole Defign was to aid the Devotion of Christians, so more especially in this Part: And I am fatisfy'd I Shall hereby attain two Ends, (viz.) assist the Worship of all serious Minds, to whom the Expressions of Scripture are ever dear and delightful, and gratify the Taste and Inclination of those who think nothing must be fung unto God but the Translations of his own Word. Yet you will always find in this Paraphrase dark Expressions enlighten'd, and the Levitical Ceremonies and Hebrew Forms of Speech chang'd into the Worship of the Gospel, and explain'd in the Language of our Time and Nation; and what would not bear fuch an Alteration is omitted and laid alde. After this Manner should I rejoice to see a good Part of the Book of Plaims sitted for the Use of our Churches, and David converted into a Christian: But because [cannot persuade others to attempt this glorious Work, I have suffered my self to be perfuaded to begin it, and have, thro' Divine Goodness, already proceeded half way The Second Part confists of Hymns, whose Form is of meer Human Composure, but I hope the Sense and Materials will always appear Divine. I might have brought some Text or other, and apply'd it to the Margin of every Verse, if this Method had been as useful as it was easy. If there be any Poems in the Book that are capable of giving Delight to Persons of a more refin'd Tatte and polite Education, perhaps they may be found in this Part; but except they lay afide the Humour of Criticism, and enter into a devout Frame, every Ode here already despairs of pleasing. I confess my self to have been too often tempted away from the more - Spiritual Designs I propos'd, by some gay and flowery Expressions that gratify'd the

Fancy; the bright Images too often pre-vail'd above the Fire of Divine Affection; and the Light exceeded the Heat: Yet I hope, in many of them the Reader will find that, Devotion dictated the Song, and the Head, and Hand were nothing but Interpre-ters and Secretaries to the Heart: Nor is the Magnificence or Boldness of the Figures com.

comparable to that Divine License which is found in the Eighteenth and Sixty Eighth Psalms, several Chapters of Job, and other Poetical Parts of Scripture: And in this Respect I may hope to escape the Reproof of those who pay a sacred Reverence to the Holy Bible.

I have prepared the Third Part only for the Celebration of the Lord's Supper, that, in Imitation of our Bleffed Saviour, we might fing an Hymn after we have partaken of the Bread and Wine. Here you will find some Paraphrases of Scripture, and some other Compositions. There are above an Hundred Hymn in the Two former Parts that may very properly be used in this Ordinance, and sometimes perhaps appear more suitable than any of these last: But there are Expressions generally used in these which confine 'em only to the Table of the Lord, and therefore I have distinguish'd and set'em by themselves.

If the Lord, who inhabits the Praises of Israel, shall refuse to smile upon this Attempt for the Reformation of Psalmody amongst the Churches, yet I humbly hope that his Blessed Spirit will make these Composures useful to private Christians; and if they may but attain the Honour of being esteem'd pious Meditations, to assist the devout and the resir'd Soul in the Exercises of Love, Paith and Joy, 'twill be a valuable Compensation of my Labours: My Heart shall rejoice joice at the Notice of it, and my God shall receive the Glory. This was my Hope and Vow in the first Publication, and its now my Duty to acknowledge to him with Thinkfulness, how useful he has made these Compositions already, to the Comfort and Edistication of Societies, and of private Persons; and upon the same Grounds I have a better Prospect, and a bigger Hope of much more Service to the Church, by the large Improvements of this Edition, if the Lord who dwells in Zion, shall favour it with his continu'd Blessing.

HERE are almost 150 new Hymns added, and one or more fuited to every Theme and Subjest in Divinity. Having found by Converse with Christians, what Words or Lines in the former made them less useful, I have not only made various Corrections in them, but have endeavour'd to avoid the same Mistakes in all the new Composures. And whereas many of the former were too particularly adapted to special Frames and Seasons of the Christian Life, almost all that are added have a more general and extensive Sense, and may be afsum'd and sung by most Persons in a worshipping Congregation.

2. About 14 or 15 Psalms that were translated in the first Edition, are lest out in this, because I intend (if God afford Lise and Assistance) to convert the biggest Part of the Book of Psalms, into Spiritual Songs for the Use of Christians; yet the same Numbers are still apply'd to the Hymns that there might might be no Confusion between the first and fecond Edition.

2. In all the longer Hymns, and in some of the shorter, there are several Stanza's included in Crotchets thus, [], which Stanza's may be left out in Singing, without disturbing the Sense. Those Parts are also included in such Crotchets, which contain Words too Poetical for meaner Understandings, or too particular for whole Congregations to sing. But after all, 'tis best in publick Psalmody, for the Minister to chuse the particular Parts and Verses of the Psalm or Hymn that is to be sung, rather than leave it to the Judgment or casual Determination of him that leads the Tune.

4. The Essay concerning the Improvement of Psalmody by the Use of Evangelical Hymns, which took up many Pages of the last Edition, is quite lest out here, partly lest the Bulk should swell too much, but chiefly because I intend a more complete Treatise of Psalmody, in which the Substance of that Essay will be interspers'd, and I hope with suller Evidence of the Duty of singing new Songs to him that sits upon the Throne, since the Lamb is ascended thither too.

April, 1709.

Note, Since the Sixth Edition of this Book the Author has finished what he had so long promis'd, (viz) The Pfalms of David imitated in the Language of the New Testament; which Aavertisements, &c.

the World seems to have received with Approbation, by the Sole of some Thoulands in a Year's Time. There the Reader will find those Pfalms which were lest out of all the latter Editions of these Hymns, inserted in their proper Places. It is presumed, that that Book, in Conjunction with this, may appear to be such a sufficient Provision for Platmody, as to answer most Occasions of the Christian Life: And, if an Author's own Opinion may be taken, he esteems it the greatest Work that ever he has publish'd, or ever hopes to do, for the Use of the Churches.

Collected from the Holy Scriptures.

- I. A New Song to the Lamb that was flain, Rev. v. 6, 8, 9, 10, 12.
- Ehold the Glories of the Lamb Amidst his Father's Throne; Prepare new Honours for his Name, And Songs before unknown.
- 2 Let Elders worship at his Feet, The Church adore around, With Vials full of Odours sweet, And Harps of sweeter Sound.
- Those are the Prayers of the Saints, And these the Hymns they raise:

Jesa:

Jesus is kind to our Complaints,
He loves to hear our Praise.

[4 Eternal Father, who shall look Into thy secret Will? Who but the Son should take that Book, And open ev'ry Seal?

And open ev'ry Seal?

5 He shall fulfil thy great Decrees,
The Son deserves it well;
Lo in his Hand the Sovereign Keys

Lo, in his Hand the Sovereign Keys
Of Heav'n, and Death and Hell.]

6 Now to the Lambthat once was slain,
Be endless Blessings paid,

Salvation, Glory, Joy remain For ever on thy Head.

7 Thou hast redeem'd our Souls with Blood,
Hast set the Pris'ners free,
Hast made us Kings and Priests to God,
And we shall reign with thee.

8 The Worlds of Nature and of Grace

Are put beneath thy Pow'r;
Then shorten these delaying Days,
And bring the promis'd Hour.

II The Deity and Humanity of Christ, John i. 1, 3, 14. and Col. i. 16. and Eph. iii. 9. 10.

(broad,

E'ER the blue Heavins were stretch'd aFrom everlasting was the Word;

With

Spiritual Songs. B. I. With God he was; the Word was God,

And must divinely be ador'd.

2 By his own Pow'r were all things made; By him supported all Things stand; He is the whole Creation's Head,

And Angels fly at his Command. 3 E'er Sin was born, or Satan fell,

He led the Host of Morning Stars; (Thy Generation who can tell, Or count the Number of thy Years?) 4 But lo, he leaves those Heavenly Forms.

The Word descends and dwells in Clay, That he may hold Converse with Worms, Drest in such feeble Flesh as they.

5 Mortals with Joy beheld his Face, Th' Eternal Father's only Son; How full of Truth ! how full of Grace! When thro' his Eyes the Godhead shone!

6 Arch-Angels leave their high Abode, To learn new Myst'ries here, and tell The Loves of our descending God, The Glories of Emanuel.

'III. The Nativity of Christ, Luke i. 30, &c. Luke ii. 10, &c.

1 REhold, the Grace appears, The Promise is fulfill'd; Mary the Wondrous Virgin bears, And Jesus is the Child. Google

[2 The

[2 The Lord, the Highest God, Calls him his only Son; He bids him rule the Lands abroad, And gives him Davia's Throne.

3 O'er Jacob shall he reign With a peculiar Sway;

The Nations shall his Grace obtain, His Kingdom ne'er decay.]

A heavenly Form appears;
He tells the Shepherds of their Joys,
And banishes their Fears.

5 Go, humble Swains, said he, To David's City sty; The promis'd Infant born to Day,

Doth in a Manger lie.

6 With Looks and Hearts serene Go visit Christ your King; And strait a staming Troop was seen;

The Shepherds heard them sing.
7 Glory to God on High,

And heavenly Pace on Earth, Good-will to Men, to Angels Joy, At the Redeemer's Birth.

[8 In Worship to Divine

Let Saints imploy their Tongues;

With the Celestial Host we join, And loud repeat their Songs.

9 Glory to God on High, And heavenly Peace on Earth, Good-will to Men, to Angels Joy,
At our Redeemer's Birth.]
IV. Referr'd to the 2d Pfalm.

V. Submission to Asslictive Providences, Job i. 21.

- And crept to Life at first,
 We to the Earth return again,
 And mingle with our Dust.
- 2 The dear Delights we here enjoy,
 And fondly call our own,
 Are but short Favours borrow'd Now,
 To be repay'd Anon.
- 3 'Tis God that lifts our Comforts high Or finks them in the Grave. He gives, and (blessed be his Name) He takes but what he gave.
- 4 Peace, all our angry Passions then, Let each rebellious Sigh Be filent at his Sovereign Will, And every Murmur die.
- 5 If fmiling Mercy crown our Lives, Its Praifes shall be spread, And we'll adore the Justice too That strikes our Comforts dead.

VI. Triumph over Death, Job xix. 25, 26, 27.

- Reat God, I own thy Sentence just, And Nature must decay, I yield my Body to the Dust, To dwell with Fellow-clay.
- 2 Yet Faith may triumpth o'er the Grave, And trample on the Tombs: My Jesus, my Redeemer lives, My God, my Saviour comes,
 - 3 The mighty Conqu'ror shall appear High on a Royal Seat, And Death, the last of all his Foes Lie vanquish'd at his Feet.
- 4 Tho' greedy Worms devour my Skin, And gnaw my wasting Flesh, When God shall build my Bones again, He clothes 'em all afresh.
- 5 Then shall I see thy lovely Face With strong immortal Eyes, And feast upon thy unknown Grace, With Pleasure and Surprize.
- VII. The Invitation of the Gospel; or, spiritual Food and Cloathing; Isa. Iv. 1, 2, &c.
- I T ET ev'ry mortal Ear attend, And ev'ry Heart rejoice,

The

The Trumpet of the Gospel sounds With an inviting Voice.

- 2 Ho, all ye hungry starving Souls, That feed upon the Wind, And vainly strive with earthly Toys To fill an empty Mind.
- 3 Eternal Wisdom has prepar'd
 A Soul-reviving Feast,

LI. Persevering Grace, Jude 24, 25.

TO God the only Wife, Our Saviour and our King, Let all the Saints below the Skies Their humble Praises bring.

2 'Tis his Almighty Love, His Counsel, and his Care, Preserves us safe from Sin and Death,

And ev'ry hurtful Snare. 3 He will present our Souls Unblemish'd and compleat,

Before the Glory of his Face, With Joys divinely great,

A Then all the chosen Seed Shall meet around the Throne, Shall blefs the Conduct of his Grace,

And make his Wonders known.

5 To our Redeemer God Wisdom and Pow'r belongs, Immortal Crowns of Majesty, And everlasting Songs.

LII. Baptism, Matt. xxviii. 19. Acts ii. 38.

T Was the Commission of our Lord, Go, teach the Nations, and Baptize, The Nationshave received the Word Since he ascended to the Skies.

- 1. He fits upon th' eternal Hills, With Grace and Pardon in his Hands, And fends his Cov'nant with the Seals, To bless the distant British Lands.
- 3 Repent, and be Baptiz'd he saith, For the Remission of your Sins; And thus our Sense affists our Faith, And shows us what his Gospel means.
- Our Souls he washes, in his Blood, As Water makes the Body clean; And the good Spirit from our God, Descends like purifying Rain.
- 5 Thus we engage our selves to Thee, And feal our Cov'nant with the Lord: O may the great Eternal Three In Heav'n our folemn Vows record!

- LIII. The Hoty Scriptures, Heb. i. 1. 2 Tim. iii. 15, 16. Pfilm exlvii. 19, 20.
- GOD who in various Methods told His Mind and Will to Saints of old, Sent, his own Son with Truth and Grace, To teach us in these latter Days.
- 2 Our Nation reads the written Word, That Book of Life, that sure Record: The bright Inheritance of Heav'n, Is by the sweet Conveyance giv'n.
- 3 God's kindest Thoughts are here exprest, Able to make us Wise and Blest, The Doctrines are divinely true, Fit for Reproof, and Comfort too.
- 4 Ye British Itles who read his Love In long Epistles from above; (He hath not sent his sacred Word To ev'ry Land) Praise ye the Lord.
- LIV. Electing Grace: Or, Saints beloved in Christ, Eph. i. 3, &c.
- Thy God and ours are both the same;
 What heav'nly Blessings from his Throne
 Flow down to Sinners thro' his Son?

2 Christ be my first Elect, he faid,
Then chose our Souls in Christ our Head,
Before he gave the Mountains Birth,
Or laid Foundations for the Earth.

3 Thus did eternal Love begin,

To raise us up from Death and Sin; Our Characters were then decreed, Blameless in Love, a boly Seed.

4 Predestinated to be Sons,
Born by Degrees, but chose at once;
A new regenerated Race,
To praise the Glory of his Grace.

5 With Christ our Lord we share our Part In the Assections of his Heart, Nor shall our Souls be thence remov'd Till he forgets his first-Belov'd.

LV. Hezekiah's Song: Or, Sickness and Recovery, Ila. xxxviii. 9, &c.

When we are rais'd from deep Diffress,
Our God deserves a Song;
We take the Pattern of our Praise
From Hezekiah's Tongue.

2 The Gates of the devouring Grave
Are open'd wide in vain,
If he that holds the Keys of Death
Commands them fast again.

Pains of the Flesh are wont t'abuse
Our Minds with slavish Fears;

Our

Our Days are past, and we shall lose The Remnant of our Years,

- We chatter with a Swallow's Voice, Or like a Dove we mourn, With Bitterness instead of Joys, Afflicted and forlorn.
- '5 Jehovah speaks the healing Word, And no Disease withstands: Fevers and Plagues obey the Lord, And sly at his Commands.
- 6 If half the Strings of Life should break, He can our Frame restore: He casts our Sins behind his Back, And they are found no more.
- LVI. The Song of Moses and the Lamb: Or, Babylon falling, Rev. xv. 3. and xvi. 19. and xvii. 6.
- WE fing the Glories of thy Love, We found thy dreadful Name; The Christian Church unites the Songs Of Moses and the Lamb.
- 2 Great God, how wondrous are thy Works Of Vengeance and of Grace! Thou King of Saints, Almighty Lord, How just and true thy Ways!
- g Who dares refuse to fear thy Name, Or worship at thy Throne?

Thy

Thy Judgments speak thine Holiness
Thro' all the Nations known.

- 4 Great Babylon that rules the Earth,
 Drunk with the Martyrs Blood,
 Her Crimes shall speedily awake
 The Fury of our God.
- 5 The Cup of Wrath is ready mixt,
 And she must drink the Dregs;
 Strong is the Lord her Sov'reign Judge
 And shall fulfil the Plagues.
- LVII. Original Sin: Or, The first and second Adam, Rom. v. 12, &c. Psal. li. 5. Job xiv. 4.
- BAckward with humble Shame we look
 On our Original,
 How is our Nature dash'd and broke

In our first Father's Fall!

2 To all that's Good averse and blind,
But prone to all that's Ill;
What dreadfull Darkness vails our Mind!

How obstinate our Will!

- [3 Conceiv'd in Sin (O wretched State!)

 Before we draw our Breath,

 The first young Pulse begins to beat

 Iniquity and Death.
- 4 How strong in our degen'rate Blood
 The old Corruption reigns,
 And mingling with the crooked Flood,
 Wanders through all our Veins!

[; Wild and unwholesome as the Root
Will all the Branches be;
How can we hope for living Fruit
From such a deadly Tree?

6 What mortal Power from Things unclean.
Can pure Productions bring?
Who can command a vital Stream
From an infected Spring?

7 Yet, mighty God, thy wondrous Love
Can make our Nature clean,
While Christ and Grace prevail above
The Tempter, Death and Sin.

8 The Second Adam shall restore
The Ruins of the First,

He fauna to that Sov'reign Pow'r.
That new creates our Dust.

LVIII. The Devil vanquist'd: Or, Michael's War with the Dragon, Rev. xii. 7.

- I ET mortal Tongues attempt to fing
 The Wars of Heav'n, when Michael Hood
 Chief General of th' Eternal King,
 And fought the Battles of our God.
- Against the Dragon and his Host The Armies of the Lord prevail: In vain they rage, in vain they boast, Their Courage links, their Weapons fail.

- Down to the Earth was Satan thrown
 Down to the Earth his Legions fell;
 Then was the Trump of Triumph blown,
 And shook the dreadful Deeps of Hell.
- 4 Now is the Hour of Darkness past, Christ has assum'd his reigning Pow'r; Behold the great Accuser cast Down from the Skies, to rise no more.
- 5 'Twas by thy Blood, immortal Lamb,
 Thine Armies trod the Tempter down;
 'Twas by thy Word and pow'rful Name
 They gain'd the Battle and Renown.
- 6 Rejoice, ye Heav'ns; let ev'ry Star Shine with new Glories round the Sky; Saints, while ye fing the heav'nly Was, Raife your Deliverer's Name on high.

LIX. Babylon fallen, Rev. xviii.

- IN Gabriel's Hand a mighty Stotte Lies, a fair Type of Babylon: Prophets, rejoice, and all ye Saints, God shall avenge your long Complaints.
- 2 He faid, and dreadful as he stood, He sunk the Milstone in the Flood, Thus terribly shall Babel falk, Thus, and no more be found as all.

- LX. The Virgin Mary's Song: Or, The promised Messiah born, Luke i. 46, &c,
- JUR Souls shall magnify the Lord, In God the Saviour we rejoice: While we repeat the Virgin's Song, May the same Spirit tune our Voice.
- [2 The Highest saw her low Estate, And mighty Things his Hand hath done: His over-shadowing Power and Grace Makes her the Mother of his Son.
- 2 Let ev'ry Nation call her bleft, And endless Years prolong her Fame; But God alone must be ador'd: Holy and Rev'rend is his Name.]
- 4 To those that fear and trust the Lord; His Mercy stands for eyer fure: From Age to Age his Promise lives, And the Performance is secure.
- 5 He spake to Abra'm and his Seed, In thee shall all the Earth be blest: The Mem'ry of that ancient Word Lay long in his eternal Breaft.
- 6 But now no more shall Israel wait, No more the Gentiles lie forlorn: Lo, the Defire of Nations comes; Behold the promis'd Seed is born.

LXI. Christ our High Priest and King; and Christ coming to Judgment, Rev. i. 6, 7.

- The Wonders of his dying Love,
 Be humble Honours paid below,
 And Strains of nobler Praise above.
- 2 'Twas he that cleans'd our foulest Sins, And wash'd us in his richest Blood; 'Tis he that makes us Priests and Kings, And brings us Rebels near to God.
- 3 To Jesus our Atoning Priest, To Jesus our Superior King, Be everlasting Power confest, And ev'ry Tongue his Glory sing.
- 4 Behold, on flying Clouds he comes, And ev'ry Eye shall see him move; Tho' with our Sins we pierc'd him once; Then he displays his pardoning Love.
 - 5 The unbelieving World shall wail While we rejoice to see the Day: Come, Lord; nor let thy Promise fail, Nor let thy Chariots long delay.

- LXII. Christ Jesus the Lamb of God, worshipped by all the Creation, Rev. v. 11, 12, 13.
- Mith Angels round the Throne;
 Ton shouland thouland are their Tongues,
 But all their Joys are one.
- 2 Worthy the Lamb that dy'd, they cry, To be exalted thus; Worthy the Lamb, our Lips reply,
- For he was flain for us.

THE Lord on high proclaims
His Godhead from his Throne;
Mercy and Justice are the Names
By which I will be known.

2 Te dying Souls that sit In Darkness and Distress, Look from the Borders of the Pit To my recovering Grace.

3 Sinners shall hear the Sound;
Their thankful Tongues shall own,

Our Righteousness and Strength is found In Thee, the Lord, alone.

4 In Thee shall Israel trust,
And see their Guilt forgiv'n;
God will pronounce the Sinners just,
And take the Saints to Heav'n.

2 Behold, the aged Sinner goes,
Laden with Guilt and heavy Woes,
Down to the Regions of the Dead,
With endless Curses on his Head.

The Dust returns to Dust again,
The Soul in Agonies of Pain

Ascends to God, not there to dwell, But hears her Doom, and finks to Hell,

4 Eternal King, I fear thy Name,
Teach me to know how frail I am;
And when my Soul must hence remove,

Give me a Mansion in thy Love.

5 What if he means to show his Grace, And his election Love imploys, To mark out some of mortal Race, And form them fit for heav'nly Joys?

6 Shall Man reply against the Lord,
And call his Maker's Ways unjust,

The Thunder of whose dreadful Word Can crush a thousand Worlds to Dust?

Baptiz'd into his Death, and then
Put off the Body of our Sin?

Put off the Body of our Sin?

2 Our Souls receive diviner Breath,
Rais'd from Corruption, Guilt and Death;
So from the Grave did Christ arise,
And lives to God above the Skies.

E No more let Sin or Satan reign Over our mortal Flesh again; The various Lusts we serv'd before Shall have Dominion now no more.

II. The Death of a Sinner.

MY Thoughts on awful Subjects roll, Damnation and the Dead; What Horrors scize the guilty Soul Upon a dying Bed.

2 Lingring about these mortal Shores She makes a long Delay,

Till like a Flood with rapid Force Death sweeps the Wretch away.

3 Then swift and dreadful she descends, Down to the fiery Coast, Amongst abominable Fiends, Her felf a frightful Ghost.

▲ There endless Crouds of Sinners lie, And Darkness makes their Chains; Tortur'd with keen Despair they cry, Yet wait for fiercer Pains.

5 Not all their Anguish and their Blood For their old Guilt atones, Nor the Compassions of a God Shall hearken to their Groans.

6 Amazing Grace, that kept my Breath, Nor bid my Soul remove, Till I had learn'd my Saviour's Death,

And well infur'd his Love!

III, The Death and Burial of a Saint.

- [XTHY do we mourn departing Friends? Or shake at Death's Alarms? 'Tis but the Voice that Jesus sends To call them to his Arms.
- 2 Are we not tending upward too As fast as Time can move? Nor would we wish the Hours more flow To keep us from our Love.
- 3 Why should we tremble to convey Their Bodies to the Tomb? There the dear Flesh of Jesus lay, And left a long Perfume.
- 4 The Graves of all his Saints he bleft. And foftned every Bed? Where should the dying Members rest, But with the dying Head?
- 5 Thence he arose, ascending high, And shew'd our Feet the Way? Up to the Lord our Flesh shall fly, At the great Rifing Day.

VI. A Morning Song.

ONCE more, my Soul, the rifing Day, Salutes thy waking Eyes,

Once more, my Voice, thy Tribute pay,

VIII. A Hymn for Morning or Evening.

HOsanna, with a chearful Sound,
To God's upholding Hand,
Ten Thousand Snares attend us round,
And yet secure we stand.

That was a most amazing Power
That rais'd us with a Word,
And every Day and every Hour
We lean upon the Lord.

The Evening rests our weary Head, And Angels guard the Room, We wake, and we admire the Bed That was not made our Tomb.

The rifing Morning can't affure
That we shall end the Day,
For Death stands ready at the Door
To seize our Lives away.

M Y drowzy Powers, why sleep ye so?
Awake, my sluggish Soul!
Nothing has half thy Work to do,
Yet nothing's half so dull.

The little Ants for one poor Grain Labour, and tug, and strive, Yet we, who have a Heav'n t' obtain, How negligent we live?

We for whose Sake all Nature stands.

And Stars their Courses move; We for whose Guard the Angel-Bands Come flying from above;

4 We for whom God the Son came down, And labour'd for our Good,

How careless to secure that Crown He purchas'd with his Blood?

5 Lord, shall we lie so sluggish still, And never act our Parts? Come, holy Dove, from th' heav'nly Hill,

And fit and warm our Hearts.

2 Look, how we grovel here below, Fond of these trifling Toys; Our Souls can neither fly nor go To reach eternal Joys.

160 Hymns and 3 In win we tune our formal Songs, In vain we strive to rife; Hefannas languish on our Tongues, And our Devotion dies. A Dear Lord! and shall we ever lie At this poor dying rate; Our Love so faint, so cold to thee ? And thine to us fo great? 5 Come, Holy Spirit, Heav'nly Dove, With all thy quick'ning Pow'rs, Come, shed abroad a Saviour's Love, And that shall kindle ours. XXXV. Praise to God for Creation and Redemption. ET them neglect thy Glory, Lord, Who never knew thy Grace, But our loud Song shall still record The Wonders of thy Praise. 2 We raise our Shouts, O God, to thee, And fend them to thy Throne, All Glory to th' UNITED Three, The Undivided One. 3 'Twas He (and we'll adore his Name) That form'd us by a Word, "Tis he restores our ruin'd Frame: Salvation to the Lord! 4 Hofanna! let the Earth and 8kles " Repeat the joyful Sound, Rocks

Rocks, Hills and Vales reflect the Voice In one eternal Round.

XXXVI. Christ's Intercession.

TWELL, the Redeemer's gone,
T' appear before our God,
To fprinkle o'er the flaming Throne
With his atoning Blood.

2 No fiery Venceance now,
Nor burning Wrath comes down;
If Justice call for Sinners Blood,
The Saviour shews his own.

3 Before his Father's Eye Our humble Suit he moves, The Father lays his Thunder by,

And looks, and smiles, and loves.

4 Now may our joyful Tongues, Our Maker's Honour fing, Jefus the Priest receives our Songs, And bears 'em to the King.

[5 We bow before his Face,
And found his Glories high,
"Hosanna to the God of Grace
"That lays his Thunder by.]

6 "On Earth thy Mercy reigns, "And trium, he all above;"

But, Lord, how weak are mortal Strains
To speak immortal Love!

[7 How jarring and how low Are all the Notes we fing!

weet

Sweet Saviour, tune our Songs anew, And they shall please the King.]

XXXVII. The same.

- Where your Eyes to th' heav'nly Seats
 Where your Redeemer stays;
 Kind Intercessor, there he sits,
 And loves, and pleads, and prays.
- 2 'Twas well, my Soul, he dy'd for thee, And shed his vital Blood, Appeas'd stern Justice on the Tree, And then arose to God
- Petitions now and Praise may rise, And Saints their Off rings bring, The Priest with his own Sacrifice Presents them to the King.
- [4 Let Papists trust what Names they please, Their Saints and Angels boast; We've no such Advocates as these, Nor pray to th' heav'nly Host.]
- 5 Jefus alone shall bear my Cries
 Up to his Father's Throne:
 He (dearest Lord) persumes my Sighs,
 And sweetens ev'ry Groan.
- [6 Ten thousand Praises to the King, Hosinus in the high it;
 Ten thousand Thanks our Spirits bring
 To God and to his Chriss.]

XXXVIII. Love to God.

- HAppy the Heart where Graces reign,
 Where Love inspires the Breast:
 Love is the brightest of the Train,
 And strengthens all the rest.
- 2 Knowledge, alas! 'tis all in vain, And all in vain our Fear, Our stubborn Sins will fight and reign,

B. 11.

- If Love be absent there.
 "Tis Love that makes our chearful Feet
- In fwift Obedience move,
 The Devils know and tremble too,
 But Satan cannot love.
 - This is the Grace that lives and fings
 When Faith and Hope shall cease;
 'Tis this shall strike our joyful Stringe
 In the sweet Realms of Bliss.
- 5 Before we quite forfake our Clay, Or leave this dark Abode, The Wings of Love bear us away To fee our failing God.

XXXIX. The Shortness and Misery of

Are short and wretched too;

- * Evil and Few, the Patriarch fays, And well the Patriarch knew.
- 2 'Tis but at best a narrow Bound
 That Heav'n allows to Men,
 And Pains and Sins run thro' the Round
 Of Threescore Years and Ten.
- 3 Well, if ye must be sad and sew,
 Run on my Days in Hasse;
 Moments of Sin, and Months of Woe,
 Ye cannot sly too fast.
- 4 Let heav'nly Love prepare my Soul,
 And call her to the Skies,
 Where Years of long Salvation roll,
 And Glory never dies.

XL. Our Comfort in the Covenant made with Christ.

OUR God, how firm his Promise stands, Ev'n when he hides his Face; He trusts in our Redeemer's Hands

His Glory and his Grace.

2 Then why, my Soul, these sad Complaints, Since Christ and we are One? Thy God is faithful to his Saints,

Is faithful to his Son.

3 Beneath his Smiles my Heart has liv'd, And Part of Heav'n possest;

 I praise his Name for Grace received,
 And trust him for the rest.
- XLI. A Sight of God mortifies us to the World.

 [I] I P to the Fields where Angels lye.
- And living Waters gently roil,
 Fain would my Thoughts leap out and fly,
 But Sin hangs heavy on my Soul.
- Thy wond'rous Blood, dear dying Christ,
 Can make this Load of Guilt remove;
 And thou can'ft bear me where thou fly'st,
 - And thou can'it bear me where thou fly's,
 On thy kind Wings, Celestial Dove!

 3 O might I once mount up and sce
 The Glories of th' eternal Skies,
 What little Things these Worlds wou'd be!
 How despicable to my Eyes!
 - 4 Had I a Glance of thee, my God,
 Kingdoms and Men would vanish soon,
 Vanish as tho' I saw 'em not,
 As a dim Candle dies at Noon.

 5 Then they might fight, and rage, and rave,
 I should perceive the Noise no more
- Than we can hear a shaking Leas,
 While rattling Thunders round us roar.
 Great All in All, Eternal King,
 Let me but view thy lovely Face,
 And all my Pow'rs shall bow and sing,
 Thine endless Grandeur, and thy Grace.

XLII. Delight in God.

- MY God, what endless Pleasures dwell
 Above at thy Right Hand!
 The Courts below, how amiable,
 Where all thy Graces stand!
- 2 The Swallow near thy Temple lies,
 And chirps a chearful Note;
 The Lark mounts upwards tow'rd thy Skies,
 And tunes her warbling Throat.
- 3 And we, when in thy Presence, Lord, We shout with joyful Tongues, Or sitting round our Father's Board, We crown the Feast with Songs.
- While Jesus shines with quic'kning Grace,
 We fing and mount on high;
 But if a Frown becloud his Face,
 We faint, and tire, and die.
- [5] Just as we see the lonesome Dove
 Bemoan her Widow'd State,
 Wand'ring she flies thro' all the Grove,
 And mourns her loving Mate.
- In restless Circles rove,
 Just so we droop, and hang the Wing,
 When Jesus hides his Love.]

XLIII. Christ's Sufferings and Glory.

NOW for a Tune of lofty Praise To great Jehovah's Equal Son! Awake, my Voice, in Heav'nly Lays, Tell the loud Wonders he hath done. 2 Sing how he left the Worlds of Light,

And the bright Robes he wore aboves How swift and joyful was his Flight On Wings of everlasting Love. [3 Down to this base, this finful Earth,

He came to raise our Nature high; He came t' atone Almighty Wrath; Jesus the God was born to die. 7

F4 Hell and its Lions roar'd around. His precious Blood the Monsters spilt, While weighty Sorrows prest him down, Large as the Loads of all our Guilt.]

5 Deep in the Shades of gloomy Death, Th' Almighey Captive Pris'ner lay: Th' Almighty Captive left the Earth, And rose to everlasting Day.

6 Lift up your Eyes, ye Sons of Light, Up to his Throne of shining Grace, See what immortal Glories lit Round the sweet Beauties of his Face.

7 Amongst a thousand Harps and Songs Jesus the God exalted reigns, His facred Name fills all their Tongues, And echoes thro' the heav'nly Plains.

XLIV. Hell: Or, The Vengeance of

- The dreadful God our Souls adore; Rev'rence and Awe becomes the Tongue That speaks the Terrors of his Pow'r.
- 2 Far in the Deep where Darkness dwells, The Land of Horror and Despair, Justice has built a dismal Hell, And laid her Stores of Vengeance there.
- [3 Eternal Plagues and heavy Chains, Tormenting Racks and fiery Coals, And Darts t' inflict immortal Pains; Dy'd in the Blood of damned Souls.]
- 4 There Satan the first Sinner lies, And roars, and bites his Iron Bands; In vain the Rebel strives to rise, Crush'd with the Weight of both thy Hands
- 5 There guilty Ghosts of Adam's Race Shriek out and howl beneath thy Rod; Once they could scorn a Saviour's Grace, But they incens'd a dreadful God.
- 6 Tremble, my Soul, and kifs the Son; Sinners, obey the Saviour's Call; Elfe your Damnation haftens on, And Hell gapes wide to wait your Fall

XLV. God's Condescension to our Worship.

Opin minus wings.

- THY Favours, Lord, furprize our Souls; Will the Eternal dwell with us? What canst thou find beneath the Poles, To tempt thy Chariot downward thus?
- 2 Still might he fill his starry Throne, And please his Ears with Gabriel's Songs; But th' heav'nly Majesty comes down, And bows to hearken to our Tongues.
- Great God, what poor Returns we pay
 For Love so infinite as thine?
 Words are but Air, and Tongues but Clay,
 But thy Compassion's all Divine.

XLVI. God's Condescension to Human Affairs.

- P to the Lord that reigns on high, And views the Nations from afar, Let everlafting Praises fly, And tell how large his Bounties are.
- [2 He that can shake the Worlds he made, Or with his Word, or with his Rod, His Goodness how amazing great! And what a condescending God!]
- [3 God that must stoop to view the Skies,
 And bow to see what Angels do,

Down to our Earth he casts his Eyes,

Down to our Earth he casts his Eyes, And bends his Footsteps downwards too.]

- 4 He over rules all mortal Things, And manages our mean Affairs; On humble Souls the King of Kings Bestows his Counsels and his Cares.
- Our Sorrows and our Tears we pour Into the Bosom of our God, He hears us in the mournful Hour, And helps us bear the heavy Load.
- 6 In vain might lofty Princes try Such Condescension to perform; For Worms were never rais d so high Above their meanest Fellow-Worm.
- 7 O could our thankful Hearts devise A Tribute equal to thy Grace, To the third Heav'n our Songs should rise, And teach the golden Harps thy Praise.

XLVII. Glory and Grace in the Perfon of Christ.

- I NOW to the Lord a noble Song!
 Awake my Soul, Awake my Tongue;
 Hosanna to th' eternal Name,
 And all his boundless Love proclaim.
- 2 See where it shines in Jestus' Face, The brightest Image of his Grace; God in the Person of his Son Has all his mightiest Works out-done.

B. II.

- 4 But in his Looks a Glory stands, The noblest Labour of thine Hands: The pleasing Lustre of his Eyes Out-shines the Wonders of the Skies.
- 5 Grace! 'tis a fweet, a charming Theme; My Thoughts rejoice at Jesus' Name: Ye Angels, dwell upon the Sound, Ye Heav'ns reflect it to the Ground.
- 6 O may I live to reach the Place Where he unveils his lovely Face, Where all his Beauties you behold, And fing his Name to Harps of Gold!

XLVIII. Love to the Creatures is dangerous.

- HOW vain are all Things here below!
 How false, and yet how fair!
 Each Pleasure hath its Poison too,
 And ev'ry Sweet a Snare.
- The brightest Things below the Sky Give but a flatt'ring Light; We should suspect some Danger nigh, Where we possess Delight.

L. Comfort under Sorrows and Pains.

- I NOW let the Lord my Saviour smile, And show my Name upon his Heart, I would forget my Pains a while, And in the Pleasure lose the Smart.
- 2 But oh! it swells my Sorrows high To see my blessed Jesus frown, My Spirits sink, my Comforts die, And all the Springs of Life are down,
- 3 Yet why, my Soul, why these Complaints? Still while he frowns his Bowels move; Still on his Heart he bears his Saints, And feels their Sorrows and his Love.
- 4 My Name is printed on his Breast; His Book of Life contains my Name; I'd rather have it there imprest, Then in the bright Records of Fame.
- 5 When the last Fire burns all Things here, Those Letters shall securely stand, And in the Lamb's fair Book appear Writ by th' Eternal Father's Hand.
- 6 Now shall my Minutes smoothly run, Whilst here I wait my Father's Will: My Rising and my Setting Sun Roll gently up and down the Hill.

LI. God the Son equal with the Father.

 The Light of thy returning Face,
 And hear the Language of those Lips
 Where God has shed his richest Grace.]
- [5 Haste then upon the Wings of Love, Rouse all the pious sleeping Clay, That we may join in heavinly Joys. And sing the Triumph of the Day.]

CIII. Christ's Commission, John iii.

- COME, happy Souls, approach your God,
 With new melodious Songs,
 Come, render to Almighty Grace
 The Tribute of your Tongues.
- 2 So strange, so boundless was the Love That pity'd dying Men, The Father sent his equal Son To give them Life again.
- 3 Thy Hands, dear Jefus, were not arm'd With a revenging Rod, No hard Commission to perform The Vengeance of a God.

4 But

B. II. But all was Mercy, all was mild,

And Wrath forfook the Throne, When Christ on the kind Errand came, And brought Salvation down.

5 Here, Sinners, you may heal your Wounds, And wipe your Sorrows dry; Trust in the mighty Saviour's Name, And you shall never die.

6 See, dearest Lord, our willing Souls Accept thine offer'd Grace; We bless the great Redcemer's Love, And give the Father Praise.

CIV. The same.

R Aife your triumphant Songs
To an immortal Tune, Let the wide Earth resound the Deeds Celestial Grace has done.

2 Sing how Eternal Love : Its chief Beloved chose,

And bid him raise our wretched Race From their Abys of Woes.

3 His Hand no Thunder bears, Nor Terror clothes his Brow.

No Bolts to drive our guilty Souls To fiercer Flames below.

4 'Twas Mercy fill'd the Throne, And Wrath Rood filent by, When Christ was sent with Pardons down

To Rebels doom'd to die.

- 5 Now Sinners, dry your Tears, Let hopeless Sorrow cease; Bow to the Sceptre of his Love, And take the offer'd Peace.
- 6 Lord, we obey thy Call,
 We lay an humble Claim
 To the Salvation thou hast brought,
 And love and praise thy Name.

CV. Repentance flowing from the Patience of God.

- AND are we Wreiches yet alive?
 And do we yet rebel?
 'Tis boundless, 'tis amazing Love,
 That bears us up from Hell.
- The Burthen of our weighty Guilt Would fink us down to Flames, And threat hing Vengeance rolls above To crush our seeble Frames.
- Almighty Goodness cries, Forbear,
 And strait the Thunder stays:
 And date we now provoke his Wrath,
 And weary out his Grace?
- 4 Lord, we have long abus'd thy Love, Too long indulg'd our Sin; Our aking Hearts e'en bleed to fee What Rebels we have been.
- 5 No more, ye Lusts, shall ye command, No more will we obey; Stretch out. O God, thy conqu'ring Hand, And drive thy Foes away.

CVI. Repentance at the Cross.

- I O If my Soul was form'd for Woe,
 How would I vent my Sighs!
 Repentance should like Rivers flow
 From both my streaming Eyes.
 - Twas for my Sins my dearest Lord
 Hung on the curfed Tree,
 And groun'd away a dving Life

And groan'd away a dying Life For Thee, my Soul, for Thee.

- 3 O how I hate those Lusts of mine That crucified my God, Those Sins that pierc'd and nail'd his Flesh Fast to the fatal Wood.
- 4 Yes, my Redeemer, they shall die, My Heart has so decreed, Nor will I spare the guilty Things That made my Saviour bleed.
- 5 Whilst with a melting broken Heart My murther'd Lord I view, I'll raise revenge against my Sins, And slay the Murth'rers too.

CVII. The everlasting Absence of God intolerable.

- THAT awful Day will furely come, Th' appointed Hour makes hafte, When I must stand before my Judge, And pass the solemn Test.

How could I bear to hear thy Voice Pronounce the Sound, Depart?

[3 The Thunder of that difmal Word Would fo torment my Ear, 'Twould tear my Soul afunder, Lord, With most tormenting Fear.]

[4 What, to be banish'd from my Life, And yet forbid to die? To linger in eternal Pain, Yet Death for ever fly?] 5 O wretched State of deep Despair,

- To fee my God remove, And fix my doleful Station where I must not taste his Love.
- 6 Jesus, I throw my Arms around, And hang upon thy Breaft; Without a gracious Smile from thee My Spirit cannot rest,
- 7 O tell me that my worthless Name Is graven on thy Hands, Show me fome Promise in thy Book Where my Salvation stands.

[8 Give me one kind affuring Word To fink my Fears again; And chearfully my Soul shall wait Her threescore Years and ten.7

CVIII. Access to the Ibrone of Grace by a Mediator.

COME, let us lift our joyful Eyes Up to the Courts above,

- And smile to see our Father there Upon a Throne of Love.
- 2 Once 'twas a Seat of dreadful Wrath, And shot devouring Flame; Our God appear'd Consuming Fire, And Vengeance was his Name.
- 3 Rich were the Drops of Jesus' Blood
 That calm'd his frowning Face,
 That sprinkled o'er the burning Throne,
 And turn'd the Wrath to Grace,
- 4 Now we may bow before his Feet, And venture near the Lord; No fiery Cherub guards his Seat, Nor double flaming Sword.
- 5 The peaceful Gates of heavenly Blifs-Are open'd by the Son; High let us raife our Notes of Praise, And reach th' Almighty Throne.
- 6 To thee Ten Thousand Thanks we bring, Great Advocate on high; And Glory to th' eternal King That lays his Fury by.

CIX. The Darkness of Providence.

- TOR D, we adore thy vast Designs, Th' obscure Abyss of Providence, Too deep to found with mortal Lines, Too dark to view with seeble Sense.
- 2 Now thou array'st thine awful Face In angry Frowns, without a Smile:

We thro' the Cloud believe thy Grace, Secure of thy Compassions still.

- 3 Thro' Seas and Storms of deep Diffress We fail by Faith and not by Sight; Faith guides us in the Wilderness, Through all the Briars and the Night.
- 4 Dear Father, if thy lifted Rod Resolve to scourge us here below; Still we must lean upon our God, Thine Arm shall bear us safely through.

CX. Triumph over Death in hope of the Resurrection.

AND must this Body die?
This mortal Frame decay)
And must these active Limbs of mine
Lie mould'ring in the Clay?

CXII. Angels ministring to Christ and Saints.

- Hast thou advanc'd the Lord thy Son?
 Angels in all their Robes of Light
 Are made the Servants of his Throne.
- 2 Before his Feet their Armies wait, And swift as Flames of Fire they move, To manage his Affairs of State In Works of Vengeance or of Love.
- 3 His Orders run thro' all their Hofts, Legions descend at his Command, To shield and guard the British Coasts When foreign Rage invades our Land.
- 4 Now they are sent to guide our Feet Up to the Gates of thine Abode, Thro' all the Dangers that we meet In travelling the heavenly Road.
- J. Lord, when I leave this mortal Ground, And thou shalt bid me rise and come, Send a beloved Angel down Safe to conduct my Spirit home.

CX III. The same.

THE Majesty of Solomon!
How glorious to behold!
The Servants waiting round his Throne,
The Ivory and the Gold!

2 But, mighty God, thy Palace shines With far superior Beams; Thine Angel Guards are swift as Winds, Thy Ministers are Flames.

[3 Soon as thine only Son had made His Entrance on this Earth, A shining Army downward sled To celebrate his Birth.

I Sing my Saviour's wondrous Death;
He conquer'd when he fell;
'Tis finish's, said his dying Breath,
And shook the Gates of Hell.
2 'Tis finish's, our Emanuel cries,

The dreadful Work is done;
Hence shall his Sovereign Throne arise,
His Kingdom is begun.
His Cross a state Poundation laid

For Glory and Renown,
When thro' the Regions of the Dead
He pass'd to reach the Crown.

4 Exalted at his Father's Side
Sits our victorious Lord;
To Heaven and Hell his Mands divide
The Vengeance or Reward.

The Saints from his propitious Eye, Await their feveral Crowns, And all the Sons of Darkmess fly The Terror of his Frowns.

- 2 Let Princes of exalted State
 To him afcribe their Grown,
 Render their Homage at his Feet,
 And cast their Glories down,
- 3 Know that his Kingdom is supreme, Your lofty Thoughts are vain; He calls you Gods, that awful Name, But ye must die like Men.
 - Not dare to vex the Just;
 He puts on Vengeance like a Robe,
 And treads the Worms to Dust.
- 5 Ye Judges of the Earth, be wife, And think on Heav'n with Pear; The meanest Saint that you despise Has an Avenger there.

THUS did the Sons of Abraham pass Under the bloody Seal of Grace; 244 Hymns and B. II.

The young Disciples bore the Yoke, Till Christ the painful Bondage broke.

- 2 By milder Ways doth Jefus prove, His Father's Cov'nant and his Love; He feals to Saints his glorious Grace, And not forbids their Infant Race.
- Their Seed is sprinkled with his Blood, Their Children set apart for God; His Spirit on their Off-spring shed Like Water pour'd upon the Head.
- 4 Let every. Saint with chearful Voice In this large Covenant rejoice; Young Children in their early Days Shall give the God of Abrah'm Praise.

CXXVIII. Corrupt Nature from Adam.

- BLess'd with the Joys of Innocence

 Adam, our Father, stood.

 Till he debas'd his Soul to Sense,

 And eat th' unlawful Food.
- Now we are born a fenfual Race, To finful Joys inclin'd; Reason has lost its Native Place, And Flesh enslaves the Mind.
- 3 While-Flesh and Sense and Passion reigns, Sin is the sweetest Good: We fancy Musick in our Chains, And so forget the Load.

4 Great

- 4 Great God, renew our ruin'd Frame, Our broken Pow'rs restore, Inspire us with a heav'nly Flame, And Flesh shall reign no more.
- 5 Eternal Spirit, write thy Law Upon our inward Parts, And let the fecond Asam draw His Image on our Hearts.

EXXIX. We walk by Faith, not by Sight.

- TIS by the Faith of Joys to come
 We walk thro' Delarts dark as Night;
 Till we arrive at Heav'n our Home
 Faith is our Guide, and Faith our Light.
- The Want of Sight she well supplies, She makes the pearly Gates appear, Far into distant Worlds she pries, And brings eternal Glories near.
- 3 Chearful we tread the Defart thro', While Faith infpires a heav'nly Ray, Tho' Lions roar, and Tempests blow, And Rocks and Dangers fill the Way.
- 4 So Abrah'm by divine Command

 His Faith beheld the promis'd Land,
 And fir'd his Zeal along the Road.

CXXX. The New Creation.

- A Ttend, while God's exalted Son Doth his own Glories shew; Behold, I sit upon my Throne, Creating all Things new.
- 2 Nature and Sin are pass'd away, And the old Adam dies; My Hands a new Foundation lay, See the new World arise.
- 3 I'll be a Sun of Righteousness To the new Heav'ns I make; None but the New born Heirs of Grace My Glories shall partake.
- 4 Mighty Redeemer, fet me free From my old State of Sin; O make my Soul alive to thee, Create new Pow'rs within.
- And mould my Heart afresh;
 Give me new Passions, Joys and Fears,
 And turn the Stone to Flesh.
- 6 Far from the Regions of the Dead, From Sin, and Earth, and Hell, In the new World that Grace has made I would for ever dwell.

CXXXI. The Excellency of the Chriflian Religion.

- LET everlassing Glories crown
 Thy Head, my Saviour, and my Lord;
 Thy Hands have brought Salvation down,
 And writ the Blessings in thy Word.
- (2 What if we trace the Globe around, And fearch from Britain to Japan, There shall be no Religion found So just to God, so safe for Man.]
- 3 In vain the trembling Conscience seeks Some solid Ground to rest upon; With long Despair the Spirit breaks, Till we apply to Christ alone.

 How wife and holy thy Commands!
 Thy Promifes how firm they be!
 How firm our Hove and Comfort frand
- How firm our Hope and Comfort stands!

 [5 Not the feign'd Fields of Heathenish Bliss Could raise such Pleasures in the Mind Nor does the Turkish Paradise Pretend to Joys so well refin'd.]
- 6 Should all the Forms that Men devise Affault my Faith with treach'rous Art, I'd call them Vanity and Lies, And bind the Gospel to my Heart.

CXXXII. The Offices of Christ.

- That comes with Truth and Grace;

 Jesus, thy Spirit and thy Word

 Shall lead us in thy Ways.
- We rev'rence our High Priest above, Who offer'd up his Blood; And lives to carry on his Love, By pleading with our God.

- 3 Thy Power and Glory works within, And breaks the Chains of reigning Sin; Doth our imperious Lusts subdue, And forms our wretched Hearts anew.
- 4 The troubled Conscience knows thy Voice, Thy chearing Words awake our Joys; Thy Words allay the stormy Wind, And calm the Surges of the Mind.

CXXXIV. Circumcision abolished.

- THE Promise was divinely free, Extensive was the Grace; I will the God of Abrah'm be, And of his num'rous Race.
- 2 He faid, and with a bloody Seal Confirm'd the Words he spoke; Long did the Sons of Abrab'm feel The sharp and painful Yoke.
- 3 Till God's own Son descending low Gave his own Flesh to bleed; And Gentiles taste the Blessing now From the hard Bondage freed.
- 4 The God of Abrah'm claims our Praise, His Promises endure, And Christ the Lord in gentler Ways Makes the Salvation sure.

CXXXV. Types and Prophecies of Christ.

- Behold the Woman's promis'd Seed,
 Behold the great Messiah come;
 Behold the Prophets all agreed
 To give him the superior Room.
- 2 Abra'm the Saint rejoyc'd of old, When Visions of the Lord he saw; Moses the Man of God foretold This great Fulfiller of his Law.
- 3 The Types bore Witness to his Name; Obtain'd their chief Design, and ceas'd; The Incense, and the bleeding Lamb, The Ark, the Altar, and the Priest.

CXXXVIII. The Power of the Gospel.

- THIS is the Word of Truth and Love, Sent to the Nations from above; Jehovah here resolves to shew What his Almighty Grace can do.
- This Remedy did Wisdom find, To heal Diseases of the Mind; This Sovereign Balm, whose Virtues can Restore the ruin'd Creature, Man.
- The Gospel bids the Dead revive, Sinners obey the Voice, and live; Dry Bones are rais'd and cloath'd asresh, And Hearts of Stone are turn'd to Flesh.
- [4 Where Satan reign'd in Shades of Night The Gospel strikes a heavenly Light; Our Lusts its wond'rous Power controuls, And calms the Rage of angry Souls.]
- [5 Lions and Beasts of savage Name

 While the wild World esteems it strange,
 Gaze, and admire, and hate the Change.]
- 6 May but this Grace my Soul renew, Let Sinners gaze and hate me too; The Word that faves me does engage A fure Defence from all their Rage.

CXXXIX. The Example of Christ.

- MY dear Redeemer, and my Lord, I read my Duty in thy Word; But in thy Life the Law appears, Drawn out in living Characters.
- 2 Such was thy Truth, and fuch thy Zeal, Such Def'rence to thy Father's Will, Such Love, and Meekness so Divine, I would transcribe and make them mine.
- 3 Cold Mountains and the Midnight Air Witness'd the Fervour of thy Pray'r; The Desart thy Temptations knew, Thy Conslict and thy Vict'ry too.
- 4 Be thou my Pattern, make me bear More of thy gracious Image here; Then God the Judge shall own my Name Amongst the Foll'wers of the Lamb.

CXL. The Examples of Christ and the Saints.

- Within the Veil, and see
 The Saints above, how great their Joys,
 How bright their Glories be.
- 2 Once they were mourning here below, And wet their Couch with Tears; They wrestled hard, as we do now, With Sins, and Doubts, and Fears.

- I ask them whence their Vict'ry came;
 They with united Breath
 Ascribe their Conquest to the Lamb,
 Their Triumph to his Death.
- A They mark'd the Footsteps that he trod, (His Zeal inspir'd their Breast:)
 And, following their incarnate God,
 Postess the promis'd Rest.
- Our glorious Leader claims our Praise For his own Pattern giv'n, While the long Cloud of Witnesses Show the same Path to Heav'n.
- CXLI. Faith affisted by Sense: Or, Preaching, Baptism, and the Lord's Supper.
- MY Saviour God, my Sovereign Prince
 Reigns far above the Skies!
 But brings his Graces down to Sense,
 And helps my Faith to rife.
- 2 My Eyes and Ears shall bless his Name, They read and hear his Word; My Touch and Taste shall do the same When they receive the Lord.
- 3 Baptismal Water is design'd
 To seal his cleansing Grace;
 While at his Feast of Bread and Wine
 He gives his Saints a Place.

B. II. Spiritual Songs.

- 4 But not the Waters of a Flood
 Can make my Flesh so clean,
 As by his Spirit and his Blood
 He'll wash my Soul from Sin.
- 5 Not choicest Meats, or noblest Wines
 So much my Heat refresh,
 As when my Faith goes thro' the Signs,
 And feeds upon his Flesh;
- 6 I love the Lord that stoops so low
 To give his Word a Seal;
 But the rich Grace his Hands bestow
 Exceeds the Figures still.

CXLII. Faith in Christ our Sacrifice.

- On Jewish Altars flain,
 Could give the guilty Conscience Peace,
 Or wash away the Stain.
 - 2 But Christ the heav nly Lamb Takes all our Sins away;
- A Sacrifice of nobler Name, And richer Blood than they.
 - 3 My Faith would lay her Hand On that dear Head of thine,
- While like a Penitent I stand, And there confess my Sin.
 - 4 My Soul looks back to fee The Burdens thou didft bear

When

When hanging on the cursed Tree, And hopes her Guilt was there.

5 Believing we rejoice
To fee the Curfe remove;
We blefs the Lamb with chearful Voice,

CXLIII. Flesh and Spirit.

- W Hat diff'rent Pow'rs of Grace and Sin Attend our mortal State? I hate the Thoughts that work within, And do the Works I hate.
- 2 Now I complain, and groan, and die, While Sin and Satan reign: Now raife my Songs of Triumph high, For Grace prevails again.
- 3 So Darkness struggles with the Light Till perfect Day arise; Water and Fire maintain the Fight, Until the weaker dies.
- 4 Thus will the Flesh and Spirit strive,
 And vex and break my Peace;
 But I shall quit this mortal Life,
 And Sin for ever cease.

CXLIV. The Effusion of the Spirit; or, The Success of the Gospel.

- [1 G Reat was the Day, the Joy was great, When the divine Disciples met; Whilst on their Heads the Spirit came, And sat like Tongues of cloven Flame.
- 2 What Gifts, what Miracles he gave!
 And Power to kill, and Power to fave!
 Furnish'd their Tongues with wond'rous (Words,
 Instead of Shields, and Spears, and Swords.
- Thus arm'd, he fent the Champions forth, From East to West, from South to North: Go, and assert your Saviour's Cause, Go, spread the Myst'ry of his Cross.]
- 4 These Weapons of the holy War, Of what Almighty Force they are, To make our stubborn Passions bow, And lay the proudest Rebel low!
- 5 Nations, the learned and the rude, Are by these heav'nly Arms subdu'd; While Satan rages at his Loss, And hates the Doctrine of the Cross.
- 6 Great King of Grace, my Heart fubdue, I would be led in Triumph too, A willing Captive to my Lord, And fing the Victries of his Word.

CXLV. Sight through a Glass, and Face to Face.

- I Love the Windows of thy Grace
 Thro' which my Lord is feen,
 And long to meet my Saviour's Face
 Without a Glass between.
- O that the happy Hour were come,
 To change my Faith to Sight!
 I shall behold my Lord at Home
 In a diviner Light.
- 3 Haste, my Beloved, and remove These interposing Days; Then shall my Passions all be Love, And all my Pow'rs be Praise.

CXLVI. The Vanity of Creatures; Or, No Rest on Earth.

- A N has a Soul of vast Defires,
 He burns within with restless Fires,
 Tost to and fro his Passions sly
 From Vanity to Vanity.
- 2 In vain on Earth we hope to find Some folid Good to fill the Mind, We try new Pleasures, but we feel The inward Thirst and Torments still.
- 3 So when a raging Fever burns We shift from side to side by turns,

And

And 'tis a poor Relief we gain To change the Place, but keep the Pain.

D. 11.

4. Great God, fubdue this vicious Thirst, This Love to Vanity and Dust; Cure the vile Fever of the Mind, And feed our Souls with Joys refin'd.

CXLVII. The Creation of the World, Gen. i.

Now let a spacious World arise,
Said the Creator Lord:
At once th' obedient Earth and Skies
Rose at his Sov'reign Word.

[2 Dark was the Deep; the Waters lay Confus'd, and drown'd the Land: He call'd the Light; the new-born Day Attends on his Command.

3 He bids the Clouds ascend on high;
The Clouds ascend, and bear
A wat'ry Treasure to the Sky,
And float on softer Air.

4 The liquid Element below
Was gather'd by his Hand;
The rolling Seas together flow,
And leave the folid Land.

With Herbs and Plants (a flow'ry Birth)
The naked Globe he crown'd,
Ere there was Rain to blefs the Earth,
Or Sun to warm the Ground.

6 Then

- 6 Then he adorn'd the upper Skies; Behold the Sun appears, The Moon and Stars in Order rife To mark out Months and Years.
- 7 Out of the Deep th' Almighty King Did vital Beings frame, The painted Fowls of ev'ry Wing, And Fish of ev'ry Name.]
- 8 He gave the Lion and the Worm
 At once their wond'rous Birth,
 And grazing Beafts of various Form
 Rose from the teeming Earth.
- 9 Adam was fram'd of equal Clay, Tho' Sovereign of the rest, Design'd for nobler Ends than they, With God's own Image bless'd.
- Thus glorious in the Maker's Eye
 The young Creation flood:
 He faw the Building from on high,
 His Word pronounc'd it good.
- Thy Praise shall fill my Tongue:
 But the new World of Grace demands
 A more exalted Song.

CXLVIII. God reconciled in Christ.

Earest of all the Names above, My Jesus, and my God, Who can resist thy heavinly Love, Or trisse with thy Blood?

- Tis by the Merits of thy Death
 The Father smiles again;
 Tis by thine interceding Breath
 The Spirit dwells with Men.
- 3 Till God in human Flesh I see, My Thoughts no Comfort find; The Holy, Just, and Sacred Three Are Terrors to my Mind.
- 4 But if Immanuel's Face appear,
 My Hope, my Joy, begins;
 His Name forbids my flavish Fear,
 His Grace removes my Sins.
- S While Jerus on their own Law rely,
 And Greeks of Wisdom boast,
 I love th' Incarnate Mystery,
 And there I fix my Trust.

CXLIX. Honour to Magistrates; or, Government from God.

- E Ternal Sov'reign of the Sky, And Lord of all below, We Mortals to thy Majesty Our first Obedience owe.
- 2 Our Souls adore thy Throne supreme And bless thy Providence For Magistrates of meaner Name, Our Glory and Defence.
- [3 The Crowns of British Princes shine With Rays above the rest,

Where

Where Laws and Liberties combine To make the Nation bleft.]

4 Kingdoms on firm Foundations stand While Vertue finds Reward; And Sinners perish from the Land By Justice and the Sword.

5 Let Cæsar's Due be ever paid To Cæsar and his Throne, But Consciences and Souls were made To be the Lord's alone.

CL. The Deceitfulness of Sin.

- SIN has a thousand treach rous Arts
 To practife on the Mind;
 With flatt ring Looks she tempts our Hearts,
 But leaves a Sting behind.
- 2 With Names of Virtue she deceives
 The Aged and the Young:
 And while the heedless Wretch believes,
 She makes his Fetters strong.
- 3 She pleads for all the Joys she brings, And gives a fair Pretence; But cheats the Soul of heav'nly Things, And chains it down to Sense.
- 4 So on a Tree divinely fair
 Grew the forbidden Food;
 Our Mother took the Poifon there,
 And tained all her Blood.

CLI. Prophecy and Inspiration.

TWAS by an Order from the Lord The Ancient Prophets spoke his Word; His Spirit did their Tongues inspire, And warm'd their Hearts with heav'nly Fire.

And warm'd their Hearts with heav'nly Fire.

The Works and Wonders which they wrought
Confirm'd the Messages they brought;
The Prophet's Pen succeeds his Breath,
To save the holy Words from Death.

Great God, mine Eyes with Pleasure look.

There my Redeemer's Face I see,
And read his Name, who dy'd for me.

- 6 In fuch Society as this
 My weary Soul would rest;
 The Man that dwells where Jesus is
 Must be for ever bless'd.

CLIII. The Distemper, Folly and Mudness of Sin.

- SIN, like a venomous Disease, Infects our vital Blood; The only Balm is Sov'reign Grace, And the Physician, God.
- 2 Our Beauty and our Strength are fled, And we draw near to Death; But Christ the Lord recalls the Dead With his Almighty Breath.

CLVI. Presumption and Despair: Or, Satan's various Temptations.

I Hate the Tempter and his Charms,
I hate his flatt'ring Breath;
The Serpent takes a thousand Forms
To cheat our Souls to Death.

2 He feeds our Hopes with airy Dreams, Or kills with flavish Fear; And holds us still in wide Extreams, Presumption, or Despair.

To walk the Roat to Heav'n;
Anon he swells our Sins, and cries,
They cannot be forgiv'n.

That were a Present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my Soul, my Life, my All.

VIII. The Tree of Life.

To our exalted Lord,

Ye Saints on high around his Throne, And we around his Board

- What dear Refreshments here ye found From this immortal Food?]

 The Tree of Life that near the Throne
 - In Heav'n's high Garden grows, Laden with Grace, bends gently down Its ever-fmiling Boughs.
- [4 Hov'ring amongst the Leaves there stands
 The sweet Celestial Dove;
 And Jesus on the Branches hangs
 The Banner of his Love.]
- [5 'Tis a young Heaven of strange Delight
 While in his Shade we sit;
 His Fruit is pleasing to the Sight,
 And to the Taste as sweet.
- 6 New Life it fpreads thro' dying Hearts, And chears the drooping Mind; Vigor and Joy the Juice imparts Without a Sting behind]
 - 7 Now let the flaming Weapon stand, And guard all Eien's Trees: There's ne'er a Plant in all that Land That bears such Fruit as these.
- 8 Infinite Grace our Souls adore,
 Whose wond rous Hand has made
 This living Branch of Sovereign Pow'r
 To raise and heal the Dead.

XXV. Divine Glories and Graces.

- HOW are thy Glories here display'd, Great God, how bright they shine, While at thy Word we break the Bread, And pour the flowing Wine!
 - And pleads its dreadful Cause;
 Here saving Mercy spreads her Hands
 Like Jesus on the Cross.
 - 3 Thy Saints attend with ev'ry Grace, On this great Sacrifice; And Love appears with chearful Face, And Faith with fixed Eyes.
 - 4 Our Hope in waiting Posture sits, To Heav'n directs her Sight; Here ev'ry warmer Passion meets, And warmer Powers unite.
 - 5 Zeal and Revenge perform their Part; And rifing Sin destroy; Repentance comes with aking Heart, Yet not forbids the Joy.

Hymns and

B. HE

*" 3*08 6 Dear Saviour, change our Faith to Sight, Let Sin for ever die; Then shall our Souls be all Delight, And ev'ry Tear be dry.

I Cannot persuade myself to put a full Period to these Divine Hymns, till I have address'd a special Song of Glory to God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The' the Latin Name of it, Gloria Patri, be retained in our Nation from the Roman Church; and the there may be some Excesses of superstitious Howour paid to the Words of it, which may have wrought some unhappy Prejudices in weaker Christians, yet I be-lieve it still to be one of the noblest Parts of Christian Worship. The Subject of it is the Doctrine of the Trinity, which is that peculiar Glory of the Divine Nature, that our Lord Jelus Christ bas so clearly revealed unto Men, and is so necessary to true Christianity. The Action is Praise, which is one of the most complete and exalted Parts of beavenly Worsbip. I have saft the Song into a Variety of Forms, and have fitted it by a plain Version, or a larger Paraphrase, to be jung either alone, or at the Conclusion of another Hymn. I have added also a few Hofannas, or Ascriptions of Salvation to Christ, in the same Manner, and for the same End.

A Song of Praise to the ever-blessed Trinity, God the Father, Son, and Spirit.
