THE

PREFACE.

HILE we fing the Praises of our God in his Church, we are employ'd in that Part of Worship which of all others is the nearest a-kin to Heaven; and 'tis pity that this, of all others, should be perform'd the worst upon Earth. The Gospel brings us nearer to the heavenly State than all the former Dispensations of Godamongst Men: And in these last Days of the Gospel we are brought almost within fight of the Kingdom of our Lord; yet we are very much unacquainted with the Songs of the New Jerusalem, and unpractis'd in the Work of Praise. To see the dull Indifference, the negligent and the thoughtless Air, that fits upon the Faces of a whole Assembly, while the Psalm is on their Lips, might tempt even a charitable Observer to suspect the Fervency of inward Religion; and 'tis much to be fear'd that the Minds of most of the Worshippers are absent or unconcern'd. Perhaps the Modes of Preaching in the best Churches, still want some Degrees of Reformation; nor are the Methods of Prayer so perfect, as to stand in need of no Correction or Improvement: But of all our Religious Solemnities, Psalmody is the most unhappily managed: That every Action which should elevate us to the most delightful and divine Sensations, doth not only state our Devotion, but too often awaken our Regret, and touches all the Springs of Uneasiness within us.

I have been long convinc'd, that one great Occasion of this Evil arises from the Matter and Words to which we confine all our Songs. Some of them are almost opposite to the Spirit of the Gospel: Many of them foreign to the State of the New Testament, and widely different from the present Circumstances of Christians. Hence it comes to pass, that when spiritual Affections are excited within us, and our Souls are rais'd a little above this Earth in the Beginning of a Pfalm, we are check'd on a sudden in our Ascent toward Heaven, by some Expressions that are more suited to the Days of Carnal Ordinances, and fit only to be fung in the Worldly Sanctuary. When we are just entring into an Evangelick Frame, by some of the Glories of the Gospel presented in the brightest Figures of Judaism, yet the very next Line perhaps which the Clerk parcels out unto us, hath fomething in it so extremely Jewish and cloudy, that darkens our Sight of God

God the Saviour. Thus by keeping too close to David in the House of God, the Vail of Moses is thrown over our Hearts. While we are kindling into Divine Love by the Meditations of the loving Kindness of God, and the Multitude of his tender Mercies, within a few Verses some dreadful Curse against Men is propos'd to our Lips; That God would add Iniquity unto their Iniquity, nor let them come into his Righteousness, but blot them out of the Book of the Living, Pfal. lxix. 25, 27, 28. which is so contrary to the New Commandment of loving our Enemies; and even under the Old Testament is best accounted for, by referring it to the Spirit of Prophetick Vengeance, Some Sentences of the Pfalmist that are expressive of the Temper of our own Hearts, and the Circumstances of our Lives, may compose our Spirits to Seriousness, and allure us to a sweet Retirement within our felves; but we meet with a following Line, which so peculiarly belongs but to one Action or Hour of the Life of David or of Afaph, that breaks off our Song in the Midst; our Consciences are affrighted, lest we should speak a Falshood unto God: Thus the Powers of our Souls are shock'd on a sudden, and our Spirits ruffled, before we have Time to reflect that this may be fung only as a History of ancient Saints: And, perhaps, in some Instances, that Salvo is hardly fufficient neither. Besides, it almost always spoils the Devotion, by breaking the uniform Thread of it. For while our Lips and our Hearts run on fweetly together, applying the Words to our own Case, there is something of Divine Delight in it: But at once we are forced to turn off the Application abruptly, and our Lips speak nothing but the Heart of David. Thus our own Hearts are as it were forbid the Pursuit of the Song, and then the Harmony and the Worship grow dull of meer necessity.

Many Ministers, and many private Christians, have long groan'd under this Inconvenience, and have wish'd rather than attempted a Reformation: At their importunate and repeated Requests I have for some Years past devoted many Hours of Leifure to this Service. Far be it from my Thoughts to lay afide the Book of Pialms in publick Worship; few can pretend so great a Value for them as my self: It is the most Artful; most Devotional and Divine Collection of Poely; and nothing can be suppos'd more proper to raise a pious Soul to Heaven than some Parts of that Book; never was a Piece of experimental Divinity fo nobly written, and so justly reverenced and admired: But it must be acknowledged still, that there are a thousand Lines in it which were not made for a Church in our Days, to assume as its own: There are also many De-ficiencies of Light and Glory, which our Lord Jesus and his Apostles have supply'd in the Writings of the New Testament; and with this Advantage I have composed these Spiritual Songs, which are now presented to the World. Nor is the Attempt vain-glorious or presuming; for in respect of clear Evangelical Knowledge, The least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than all the Jewsh Prophets, Matt. xi. 11.

Now let me give a short Account of the following Composures.

The greatest Part of them are suited to the general State of the Gospel, and the most common Affairs of Christians: I hope there will be very few found but what may properly be used in a religious Assembly, and not one of them but may well be adapted to some Seasons, either of private or of publick Worship. The most frequent Tempers and Changes of our Spirit, and Conditions of our Life, are here copied, and the Breathings of our Piety express d according to the Variety of our Passions, our Love, our Fear, our Hope, our Defire, our Sorrow, our Wonder, and our Joy, as they are refined into Devotion, and act under the Influence and Conduct of the Bleffed Spirit; all conversing with God the Father by the new and living Way of Access to the Throne, even the Person and the Mediation of our Lord Jesus Christ. To him also, even to the Lamb that was stain and now lives, I have address'd many a Song; for thus doth the Holy Scripture instruct and teach us to worship, in the various frort Patterns of Christian Psalmody described in the Revelations. I have avoided the more obscure and controverted Points of Christianity that we might all obey the Direction of the Wor

Word of God, and fing his Praises with Understanding, Pfal, xlvii. 7. The Contentions and diftinguishing Words of Sects and Parties are feeluded, that whole Affemblies might affilt at the Harmony, and different Churches join in the same Worship without Offence.

If any Expressions occur to the Reader that favour of an Opinion different from his own, yet he may observe 'these are generally such as are capable of an extensive Sense, and may be used with a charitable Latitude. I think 'tis most agreeable, that what is provided for publick Singing, should give to sincere Consciences as little Disturbance as possible. However, where any unpleasing Word is found, he that leads the Worship may substitute a better; for (blessed be God) we are not confined to the Words of any Man in our publick Solemnities.

The whole Book is written in four Sorts of Metre, and fitted to the most common Tunes. I have seldom permitted a Stop in the middle of a Line, and seldom lest the end of a Line without one, to comport a little with the unhappy Mixture of Reading and Singing, which cannot presently be reformed. The Metaphors are generally sunk to the Level of vulgar Capacities. I have aim'd at Ease, of Numbers and Smoothness of Sound, and endeavoured to make the Sense plain and obvious. If the Verse appears so gentle and slowing as to incur the Censure of Feebleness, I may honestly affirm, that sometimes it cost me Labour to make it some

Some of the Beauties of Poefy are neglected, and some wilfully desav'd: I have thrown out the Lines that were too sonorous, and have given an Allay to the Verse, lest a more exalted Turn of Thought or Language should darken or disturb the Devotion of the weakest Souls. But hence it comes to pass, that I have been forc'd to lay aside many Hymns after they were sinish'd, and utterly exclude them from this Volume, because of the bolder Figures of Speech that crouded themselves into the Verse, and a more unconsin'd Variety of Number, which I could not easily restrain.

These, with many other Divine and Moral Composures are now Printed in a Second Edition of the Poems, entitled, Hora Lyrica; for as in that Book I have endeavour'd to please and profit the politer Part of Mankind, without offending the plainer fort of Christians, so in this it has been my Labour to promote the pious Entertainments of Souls truly serious, even of the meanest Capacity, and at the same Time (if possible) not to give disgust to Persons of richer Sense, and nicer Education; and I hope, in the present Volume this End will appear to be pursu'd with much greater Happiness than in the first Impression of it, though the World assures me the former has not much reason to complain.

The whole is divided into three Books.

In the First, I have borrow'd the Sense and much of the Form of the Song from some particular Portions of Scripture, and have paraphrased most of the Doxologies in the New Testament, that contain any thing in thempeculiarly Evangelical; and many Parts of the Old Testament also, that have a Reserence to the Times of the Messiah. In these I expect to be often censur'd for a too religious Observance of the Words of Scripture, whereby the Verse is weaken'd and debas'd, according to the Judgment of the Criticks: But as my whole Defign was to aid the Devotion of Christians, to more especially in this Part: And I am satisfy'd I shall hereby attain two Ends, (viz.) affift the Worship of all serious Minds, to whom the Expressions of Scripture are ever dear and delightful, and gratify the Taste and Inclination of those who think nothing must be tung unto God but the Translations of his own Word. Yet you will always find in this Paraphrase dark Expressions enlighten'd, and the Levitical Ceremonies and Hebrew Forms of Speech chang'd into the Worship of the Gospel, and explain'd in the Language of our Time and Nation; and what would not bear such an Alteration, is omitted and laid afide. After this Manner should I rejoice to see a good Part of the Book of Pfalms fitted for the Use of our Churches, and David converted into a Chriitian: But because I cannot persuade others to attempt this glorious Work, I have suffered: my felf to be perfuaded to begin it, and have, through Divine Goodness, already proceeded half way through.

The

The Second Part consists of Hymns, whose Form is of mere Human Composure; but I hope the Sense and Materials will always appear Divine. I might have brought fome Text or other, and apply'd it to the Margin of every Verse, if this Method had been as useful as it was easy. If there be any Poema in the Book that are capable of giving Delight to Persons of a more refin'd Taste and polite Education, perhaps they may be found in this Part; but except they lay afide the Humour of Criticism, and enter into a devout Frame, every Ode here already despairs of pleasing. I confess my self to have been too often tempted away from the more Spiritual Defigns I propos'd, by some gay and flowery Expressions that gratify'd the Fancy; the bright Images too often prevail'd above the Fire of Divine Affection; and the Light exceeded the Heat: Yet I hope, in many of them the Reader will find, that Devotion dictated the Song, and the Head and Hand were nothing but Interpreters and Secretaries to the Heart: Nor is the Magnificence or Boldness of the Figures comparable to that Divine License which is found in the Eighteenth and Sixty-Eighth Pfalms, several Chapters of Joh, and other Poetical Parts of Scripture: And in this Respect I may hope to escape the Reproof of these who pay a facred Reverence to the Holy Bible.

xii The PREFACE.

I have prepared the Third Part only for the Celebration of the Lord's Supper, that, in Imitation of our Blefled Saviour, we might fing an Hymn after we have partaken of the Bread and Wine. Here you will find some Paraphrases of Scripture, and some other Compositions. There are above an Hundred Hymns in the Two sormer Parts that may very properly be used in this Ordinance, and sometimes perhaps appear more suitable than any of these last: But there are Expressions generally used in these, which consine 'emonly to the Table of the Lord; and therefore I have distinguish'd and set 'em by themselves.

If the Lord, who inhabits the Praises of If the Lord, who inhabits the Praises of Iffael, shall refuse to smile upon this Attempt for the Reformation of Psalmody amongst the Churches, yet I humbly hope that his Blessed Spirit will make these Composures useful to private Christians; and if they may but attain the Honour of being esteem'd pious Meditations, to affist the devout and the retir'd Souli in the Exercises of Love, Faith, and Joy, 'twill be a valuable Compensation of my Labours: My Heart shall rejoice at the Notice of it, and my God shall receive the Glory. This was my Hope and Vow in the first Publication; and 'tis now my Duty to asknowledge to him, with Thankfulness, how useful he has made these Compositions already, to the Comfort and Edification of Societies, and of private Persons: And upon the same Grounds I have a better Prospect; and a bigger Hope of much more Service to the Church, by the large Improvements of this Edition, if the Lord who dwells in Zion shall savour it with his continued Blessing.

Adver-

Advertisements concerning the Second Edition.

HERE are almost 150 new.
Hymns added, and one or more fuited to every Theme and Subject in Divinity. Having found what Words or Lines in the former made them less useful, I have not only made various Corrections in them, but have endeavour'd to avoid the same Mistakes in all the new Composures. And whereas many of the former were too particularly adapted to special Frames and Seasons of the Christian Life, almost all that are added have a more general and extensive Sense, and may be assumed and sung by most Persons in, a worshipping Congregation.

2. About 14 or 15 Pfalms that were tranflated in the first Edition, are lest out in this, because I intend (if God afford Life and Asfistance) to convert the biggest Part of the Book of Psalms into Spiritual Songs, for the Use of Christians; yet the same Numbers are still. still apply'd to the Hymns, that there might be no Confusion between the first and second Edition.

3. In all the longer Hymns, and in some of the shorter, there are several Stanza's included in Crotchets, thus, []; which Stanza's may be lest out in Singing, without disturbing the Sense. Those Parts are also included in such Crotchets, which contain Words too Poetical for meaner Understandings, or too particular for whole Congregations to sing. But after all, 'tis best in publick Psalmody for the Minister to chuse the particular Parts and Verses of the Psalm or Hymn that is to be sung, rather than leave it to the Judgment or casual Determition of him that leads the Tune.

4. The Effay concerning the Improvement of Psalmody by the Use of Evangelical Hymns, which took up many Pages of the last Edition, is quite lest out here, partly lest the Bulk should swell too much, but chiefly because I intend a more compleat Treatise of Psalmody, in which the Substance of that Essay will be interspers'd, and I hope with suffer Evidence of the Duty of finging new Songs to Him that sits upon the Throne, since the Lamb is ascended thinher too.

April, 1709.

Note, Since the Eixth Edition of this Book the Author has finished what he had so long promised, (viz.) The Pfalms of David imitated in the Language of the New Testament; which the

the World seems to have received with Approbation, by the Sale of some Thousands in a Year's Time. There the Reader will find those Psalms, which were lest out of all the latter Editions of these Hymns, inserted in their proper Places. It is presumed that that Book, in Conjunction with this, may appear to be such a sufficient Provision for Psalmody, as to answer most Occasions of the Christian Life: And, if an Author's own Opinion may be taken, he esteems it the greatest Work that ever he has published, or ever hopes to do, for the Use of the Churches.

HYMNS

HYMNS

Spiritual Songs.

BOOK I.

Collected from the Holy Scriptures.

- I. A New Song to the Lamb that was flain, Rev. v. 6, 8, 9, 10, 12.
- Ehold the Glories of the Lamb, Amidst his Father's Throne; Prepare new Honours for his Name, And Songs before unknown.
- 2 Let Elders worship at his Feet, The Church adore around, With Vials full of Odours sweet, And Harps of sweeter Sound.
- Those are the Prayers of the Saints, And these the Hymns they raise:

70/25

Jesus is kind to our Complaints, He loves to hear our Praise.

[4 Eternal Father, who shall look Into thy secret Will?
Who but the Son should take that Book,
And open ev'ry Seal?

5 He shall fulfil thy great Decrees,
The Son deserves it well;
Lo, in his Hand the Sovereign Keys
Of Heav'n, and Death, and Hell.

- 6 Now to the Lamb that once was flain, Be endless Blessings paid; Salvation, Glory, Joy remain For ever on thy Head.
- 7. Thou hast redeem'd our Souls with Blood, Hast set the Pris'ners free, Hast made us Kings and Priests to God, And we shall reign with thee.
- 8 The Worlds of Nature and of Grace Are put beneath thy Pow'r; Then shorten these delaying Days, And bring the promis'd Hour.
 - II. The Deity and Humanity of Christ, John i. 1, 3, 14. and Col. i. 16. and Eph. iii. 9, 10.
 - From Everlasting was the Word;

With God he was; the Word was God, And must divinely be ador'd.

- 2 By his own Pow'r were all Things made; By him supported all Things stand; He is the whole Creation's Head, And Angels sly at his Command.
- 3 E'er Sin was born, or Satan fell, He led the Host of Morning-Stars; (Thy Generation who can tell, Or count the Number of thy Years?)
- 4 But lo, he leaves those Heavenly Forms, The Word descends and dwells in Clay, That he may hold Converse with Worms, Drest in such feeble Flesh as they:
- 5 Mortals with Joy beheld his Face, Th' Eternal Father's only Son; How full of Truth! how full of Grace! When thro' his Eyes the Godhead shone!
- 6 Arch-Angels leave their high Abode, To learn new Myst'ries here, and tell The Loves of our descending God, The Glories of Emanuel.
- III. The Nativity of Christ, Luke i. 30, &c. Luke ii. 10, &c.
- BEhold, the Grace appears,
 The Promise is sulfill'd;
 Mary the Wondrous Virgin bears,
 And Jesus is the Child.

[2 The

[2 The Lord, the Highest God, Calls him his only Son; He bids him rule the Lands abroad. And gives him David's Throne.

3 O'er Jacob shall he reign With a peculiar. Sway;

The Nations shall his Grace obtain, His Kingdom ne'er decay.]

4 To bring the glotious News, A heavenly Form appears; He tells the Shepherds of their Joys, And banishes their Fears.

5 Co, humble Swains, faid he, To David's City fly; The promis'd Infant born to Day,

Doth in a Manger lie.

6 With Locks and Hearts ferene Go visit Christ your King; And strait a staming Troop was seen;

The Shepherds heard them fing.

7 Glory to God on High! And heavenly Peace on Earth, Good-will to Men, to Angels Joy, At the Redeemer's Birth!

78 In Worship so Divine Let Saints imploy their Tongues,

With the Celestial Host we join, And loud repeat their Songs.

9 Glory to God on bigh! And heavenly Peace on Earth,

Gird.

B. I. Spiritual Songs.

Good-will to Men, to Angels foy, At our Redeemer's Birth!

IV. Referr'd to the 2d Pfalm.

V. Submission to Afflictive Providences, Job i. 21.

- And crept to Life at first,
 We to the Earth return again,
 And mingle with our Dust.
- 2 The dear Delights we here enjoy, And fondly call our own, Are but short Favours borrow'd Now, To be repaid Anon.
- 3 'Tis God that lifts our Comforts high, Or finks them in the Grave, He gives, and (bleffed be his Name!) He takes but what he gave.
- 4 Peace, all our angry Passions then, Let each rebellious Sigh Be filent at his Sovereign Will, And ev'ry Murmur die.
- 5 If fmiling Mercy crown our Lives, Its Praifes shall be spread, And we'll adore the Justice too That strikes our Comforts dead.

VI. Triumph over Death, Job xix.

Reat God, I own the Sentence just,
And Nature must decay;
I yield my Body to the Dust,
To dwell with Fellow-clay.

2 Yet Faith may triumph o'er the Grave, And trample on the Tombs: My Jesus, my Redeemer, lives, My God, my Saviour, comes.

3 The mighty Conqu'ror shall appear High on a Royal Seat, And Death, the last of all his Foes, Lie vanquish'd at his Feet.

4 Tho' greedy Worms devour my Skin, And gnaw my wasting Flesh, When God shall build my Bones again, He clothes 'em all afresh.

5 Then shall I see thy lovely Face With strong immortal Eyes, And seast upon thy unknown Grace With Pleasure and Surprize.

VII. The Invitation of the Gospel; or, spiritual Food and Cloathing; Isa. lv. 1, 2, &c.

I ET ev'ry mortal Ear attend, And ev'ry Heart rejoice,

The

The Trumpet of the Gospel sounds With an inviting Voice.

- Ho, all ye hungry starving Souls,
 That feed upon the Wind,
 And vainly strive with earthly Toys
 To fill an empty Mind;
- 3 Eternal Wisdom has prepar'd A Soul-reviving Feast, And bids your longing Appetites The rich Provision taste.
- 4 Ho, ye that pant for living Streams,
 And pine away and die;
 Here you may quench your raging Thirst
 With Springs that never dry.
- 5 Rivers of Love and Mercy here
 In a rich Ocean join;
 Salvation in abundance flows,
 Like Floods of Milk and Wine.
- [6 Ye perishing and naked Poor, Who work with mighty Pain, To weave a Garment of your own, That will not hide your Sin;
- 7 Come naked, and adorn your Souls, In Robes prepar'd by God, Wrought by the Labours of his Son, And dy'd in his own Blood.
- 8 Dear God! the Treasures of thy Love Are everlasting Mines, Deep as our helpless Miseries are, And boundless as our Sins!

9 The

9 The happy Gates of Gospel-Grace Stand open Night and Day; Lord, we are come to seek Supplies, And drive our Wants away.

VIII. The Safety and Protection of the Church, Isa. xxvi. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

- Where we adoring stand, Zion, the Glory of the Earth, And Beauty of the Land!
- 2 Bulwarks of mighty Grace defend The City where we dwell; The Walls of strong Salvation made, Defy th' Assaults of Hell.
- The Doors wide open fling; Enter ye Nations that obey The Statutes of our King.
- 4 Here shall you taste unmingled Joys,
 And live in persect Peace;
 You that have known Jehovah's Name,
 And ventur'd on his Grace.
- 5 Trust in the Lord, for ever trust, And banish all your Fears; Strength in the Lord Jebovah dwells, Eternal as his Years.
- 6 What the the Rebels dwell on high, His Arm shall bring them low; Low as the Caverns of the Grave Their lofty Heads shall bow.

7 On

7 On Babylon our Feet shall tread, In that rejoicing Hour; The Ruins of her Walls shall spread A Pavement for the Poor.

IX. The Promises of the Covenant of Grace, Isa. lv. 1, 2. Zech. xiii. 1. Mic. vii. 19. Ezek. xxxvi. 25, &c.

I N vain we lavish out our Lives,
To gather empty Wind;
The choicest Blessings Earth can yield
Will starve a hungry Mind.

- 2 Come, and the Lord shall seed our Souls.
 With more substantial Meat,
 With such as Saints in Glory love,
 With such as Angels eat.
- 3 Our God will ev'ry Want supply, And fill our Hearts with Peace; He gives by Cov'nant and by Oath. The Riches of his Grace.
- 4 Come, and he'll cleanse our spotted Souls,
 And wash away our Stains
 In the dear Fountain that his Son
 Pour'd from his dying Veins.
- (5 Our Guilt shall vanish all away, Tho' black as Hell before; Our Sins shall sink beneath the Sea, And shall be found no more.
- 6 And left Pollution should o'er-spread.
 Our inward Pow'rs again,
 B 5

His

His Spirit shall bedew our Souls Like purifying Rain.]

- 7 Our Heart, that flinty stubborn Thing, That Terrors cannot move, That fears no Threatnings of his Wrath, Shall be dissolved by Love.
- That would not be refin'd,
 And from the Treasures of his Grace
 Bestow a softer Mind.
- There shall his facred Spirit dwell, And deep engrave his Law, And ev'ry Motion of our Souls To swift Obedience draw.
- And we shall render Praise;
 We the dear People of his Love,
 And he our God of Grace.
- X. The Blessedness of Gospel-Times; or, The Revelation of Christ to. fews and Gentiles, Isa. v. 2, 7, 8, 9, 10. Mat. xiii. 16, 17.
- HOW beauteous are their Feet Who stand on Zion's Hill, Who bring Salvation on their Tongues, And Words of Peace reveal!

How charming is their Voice! How fweet the Tidings are!

" Zion,

"Zion, behold thy Saviour King,
"He reigns and triumphs here.

3 How happy are our Ears,
That hear this joyful Sound,
Which Kings and Prophets waited

Which Kings and Prophets waited for, And fought, but never found!

4 How bleffed are our Eyes, That fee this Heav'nly Light; Prophets and Kings defir'd it long, But dy'd without the Sight!

- 5 The Watchmen join their Voice, And tuneful Notes employ; Jerusalem breaks forth in Songs, And Desarts learn the Joy.
- 6 The Lord makes bare his Arm Thro' all the Earth abroad; Let ev'ry Nation now behold Their Saviour and their God.
- XI. The Humble enlightened, and Carnal Reason humbled: Or, The Sovereignty of Grace, Luke x. 21, 22.
 - Here was an Hour when Christ rejoiced,
 And spoke his Joy in Words of Praise;
 Father, I thank thee, mighty God,

Lord of the Earth, and Heavens and Seas.

2 "I thank thy Sov'reign Pow'r and Love, "That crowns my Doctrine with Success; "And

B. F.

"And makes the Babes in Knowledge learn "The Heights, and Breadths, and Lengths (of Grace.

" But all this Glory lies conceal'd

" From Men of Prudence and of Wit;

"The Prince of Darkness blinds their Eyes,

" And their own Pride resists the Light.

4 "Father, 'tis thus, because thy Will

" Chose and ordain'd it should be so;

"Tis thy Delight t'abase the Proud.

"And lay the haughty Scorner low.

5 "There's none can know the Father right. "But those who learn it from the Son;

"Nor can the Son be well receiv'd,

66 But where the Father makes him known.

6 Then let our Souls adore our God. That deals his Graces as he please; Nor gives to Mortals an Account Or of his Actions, or Decrees.

XII. Free Grace in revealing Christ, Luke x. 21.

- Esus the Man of constant Grief, A Mourner all his Days; His Spirit once rejoic'd aloud, And turn'd his Joy to Praise.
- 2 Father, I thank thy wondrous Love. That hath reveal'd thy Son To Men unlearned; and to Babes Has made thy Gospel known.

3 The

- 3 The Myst'ries of Redeeming Grace
 Are hidden from the Wife,
 While Pride and carnal Reas'nings join
 To swell and blind their Eyes.
- 4 Thus doth the Lord of Heav'n and Earth
 His great Decrees fulfil,
 And orders all his Works of Grace
 By his own Sov'reign Will.
- XIII. The Son of God incarnate: Or, The Titles and the Kingdom of Christ, Isa. ix. 2, 6, 7.
- Now have beheld a heav'nly Light;
 Nations that fat in Death's cold Shade
 Are bleft with Beams divinely bright.
- The Virgin's promis'd Son is born;
 Behold th' expected Child appear:
 What shall his Names or Titles be?
 The Wonderful, The Counsellor.
- [3 This Infant is the mighty God, Come to be fuckled and ador'd; Th' Eternal Father, Prince of Peace, The Son of David, and his Lord.]
- 4. The Government of Earth and Seas Upon his Shoulders shall be laid; His wide Dominions shall increase, And Honours to his Name be paid.
- 5 Jesus the holy Child shall sit High on his Father David's Throne,

Shall

I

Shall crush his Foes beneath his Feet, And reign to Ages yet unknown.

- XIV. The Triumph of Faith: Or, Christ's unchangeable Love, Rom, viii. 33, &c.
- Tis God that justifies their Souls, And Mercy, like a mighty Stream, O'er all their Sins divinely rolls.
- 2 Who shall adjudge the Saints to Hell? 'Tis Christ that suffer'd in their stead; And the Salvation to sulfil,
- Behold him rising from the Dead.
- 3 He lives! he lives! and fits above, For ever interceding there: Who shall divide us from his Love, Or what should tempt us to despair?
- 4 Shall Perfecution, or Distress,
 Famine, or Sword, or Nakedness?
 He that hath lov'd us bears us thro',
 And make us more than Conqu'rors too.
- 5 Faith hath an over-coming Power, It triumphs in the dying Hour: Christ is our Life, our Joy, our Hope, Nor can we fink with such a Prop.
- Not all that Men on Earth can do, Nor Pow'rs on high, nor Pow'rs below, Shall cause his Mercy to remove, Or wean our Hearts from Christ our Love.

- XV. Our own Weakness, and Christ our Strength, 2 Cor. xii. 7, 9, 10.
 - ET me but hear my Saviour say,

 Strength shall be equal to the Day;

 Then I rejoice in deep Distress,

 Leaning on all-sufficient Grace.
- I glory in Infirmity,
 That Christ's own Pow'r may rest on me;
 When I am weak, then am I strong,
 Grace is my Shield, and Christ my Song.
- 3 I can do all Things, or can bear All Suff'rings, if my Lord be there; Sweet Pleasures mingle with the Pains, While his Lest-hand my Head sustains.
- 4 But if the Lord be once withdrawn, And we attempt the Work alone, When new Temptations spring and rise, We find how great our Weakness is.
- 5 So Sampson, when his Hair was loft, Met the Philistines to his Cost; Shook his vain Limbs with sad Surprize, Made feeble Fight, and lost his Eyes.
- XVI. Hosanna to Christ, Matt. xxi. 9. Luke xix. 38, 40.
- 1 HOsanna to the Royal Son
 Of David's antient Line,

His Nature's Two, his Person One, Mysterious and Divine.

- 2 The Root of David here we find, And Off-spring is the same; Eternity and Time are join'd In our Emanuel's Name.
- 3 Blest He that comes to wretched Men
 With peaceful News from Heav'n!
 Hosannahs of the highest Strain
 To Christ the Lord be giv'n!
- 4 Let Mortals ne'er refuse to take
 Th' Hosannah on their Tongues,
 Lest Rocks and Stones should rise, and break
 Their Silence into Songs.

XVII. Victory over Death, 1 Cor. xv. 55, &c.

- For an over-coming Faith
 To chear my dying Hours,
 To triumph o'er the Monster Death,
 And all his frightful Pow'rs.
- 2 Joyful, with all the Strength I have, My quiv'ring Lips should sing, Where is thy boasted Vict'ry, Grave? And where the Monster's Sting?
- 3 If Sin be pardon'd, I'm fecure, Death hath no Sting befide; The Law gives Sin its damning Pow'r; But Christ, my Ransom, dy'd.

4 Now

4 Now to the God of Victory Immortal Thanks be paid, Who makes us Conqu'rors while we die, Through Christ our living Head.

XVIII. Blessed are the Dead that die in the Lord, Rev. xiv. 13.

claims

EAR what the Voice from Heav'n pro-For all the pious Dead, Sweet is the Savour of their Names. And foft their fleeping Bed.

2 They die in Jesus, and are blest; How kind their Slumbers are! From Suff'rings and from Sins releas'd. And freed from ev'ry Snare.

3 Far from this World of Toil and Strife, They're present with the Lord; The Labours of their Mortal Life End in a large Reward.

XIX. The Song of Simeon: Or, Death made desirable, Luke i. 27, &c.

ORD, at thy Temple we appear, As happy Simeon came, And hope to meet our Saviour here; O make our Joys the same!

2 With what Divine and vast Delight The good old Man was fiil'd,

When

When fondly in his wither'd Arms
He clasp'd the holy Child!

- 3 Now I can leave this World, he cry'd,
 Behold thy Servant dies;
 I've seen thy great Salvation, Lord,
 And close my peaceful Eyes.
- 4 This is the Light prepar'd to shine
 Upon the Gentile Lands,
 Thine Israel's Glory, and their Hope,
 To break their slavish Bands.
- [5 Jesus, the Vision of thy Face
 Hath over-pow'ring Charms;
 Scarce shall I feel Death's cold Embrace,
 If Christ be in my Arms.
- 6 Then will ye hear my Heart-strings break,
 How sweet my Minutes roll!
 A mortal Paleness on my Cheek,
 And Glory in my Soul.]
- XX. Spiritual Apparel (viz.) The Robe of Righteousness, and Garments of Salvation, Isa. lxi. 10.
- A Wake my Heart, arise my Tongue,
 Prepare a tuneful Voice;
 In God, the Life of all my Joys,
 Aloud will I rejoice.
- 2 'Tis he adorn'd my naked Soul, And made Salvation mine; Upon a poor polluted Worm He makes his Graces shine.

3 And

3 And lest the Shadow of a Spot Should on my Soul be found, He took the Robe the Saviour wrought, And cast it all around.

4 How far the heav'nly Robe exceeds What earthly Princes wear! These Ornaments, how bright they shine! How white the Garments are!

5 The Spirit wrought my Faith and Love, And Hope, and ev'ry Grace; But Jesus spent his Life, to work The Robe of Righteousness.

6 Strangely, my Soul, art thou array'd By the great facred Three: In sweetest Harmony of Praise Let all thy Pow'rs agree.

XXI. A Vision of the Kingdom of Christ among Men, Rev. xxi. 1, 2, 3, 4.

O, what a glorious Sight appears To our believing Eyes! The Earth and Seas are past away, And the old rolling Skies.

2 From the third Heav'n, where God refides That holy, happy Place, The New Jerusalem comes down Adorn'd with shining Grace.

3 Attending Angels shout for Joy, And the bright Armies sing,

Mortals, behold the facred Seat Of your descending King.

- 4 The God of Glory down to Men Removes his blest Abode; Men the dear Objects of his Grace, And he the loving God.
 - 5 His own foft Hand shall wipe the Tears
 From ev'ry weeping Eye,
 And Pains, and Groans, and Griefs, and Fears,
 And Death itself shall die.
- 5 How long, dear Saviour, oh how long, Shall this bright Hour delay? Fly swifter round, ye Wheels of Time, And bring the welcome Day.

XXII, and XXIII. Referr'd to the 125th Pfalmi

XXIV. The rich Sinner dying, Pfal. xlix. 6, 9. Eccl. viii. 8. Job iii. 14, 15,

- I N sain the wealthy Mortals toil,
 And heap their shining Dust in vain,
 Look down and scorn the humble Poor,
 And boast their losty Hills of Gain.
- Their Golden Cordials cannot ease
 Their pained Hearts or aching Heads,
 Nor fright, nor bribe approaching Death
 From glittering Roofs and downy Beds.

3 The lingring, the unwilling Soul The dismal Summons must obey,

And

And bid a long, a fad Farewel, To the pale Lumps of lifeless Clay.

4 Thence they are huddled to the Grave, Where Kings and Slaves have equal Throness Their Bones without Diffinction lie Amongst the Heap of meaner Bones.

The rest referr'd to the 49th Psalm.

XXV. A Vision of the Lamb, Rev. v. 6, 7, 8, 9.

- A LL Mortal Vanities be gone,
 Nor tempt my Eyes, nor tire my Ears.
 Behold amidst th' eternal Throne
 A Vision of the Lamb appears.
- [2 Glory his fleecy Robe adorns, Mark'd with the bloody Death he bore; Sev'n are his Eyes, and Sev'n his Horns, To speak his Wisdom and his Pow'r.
 - 3 Lo, he receives a fealed Book From him that fits upon the Throne; Jefus, my Lord, prevails to look On dark Decrees, and Things unknown.]
 - 4 All the affembling Saints around Fall worshipping before the Lamb, And in new Songs of Gospel-Sound Address their Honours to his Name.
 - [5 The Joy, the Shout, the Harmony Flies o'er the Everlasting Hills;

Worthy

Worthy art thou alone (they cry) To read the Book, to loose the Seals.]

- 6 Our Voices join the Heav'nly Strain,
- And with transporting Pleasure sing, Worthy the Lamb that once was slain, To be our Teacher and our King!
- 7 His Words of Prophecy reveal
 Eternal Counfels, deep Defigns;
 His Grace and Vengeance shall fulfil
 The peaceful and the dreadful Lines.
- 8 Thou hast redeem'd our Souls from Hell With thine invaluable Blood;
 And Wretches that did once rebel,
- : Are now made Fav'rites of their God.
- 9 Worthy for ever is the Lord, That dy'd for Treasons not his own, By ev'ry Tongue to be ador'd, And dwell upon his Father's Throne.
- XXVI. Hope of Heaven by the Resurrection of Christ, 1 Pet. i. 3, 4, 5.
- BLest be the Everlasting God, The Father of our Lord; Be his abounding Mercy prais'd, His Majesty ador'd.
- When from the Dead he rais'd his Son,
 And call'd him to the Sky,
 He gave our Souls a lively Hope
 That they should never die.

3 What

- What the our inbred Sins require Our Flesh to see the Dust, Yet as the Lord our Saviour rose, So all his Followers must.
- 4 There's an Inheritance Divine Reserv'd against that Day, 'Tis uncorrupted, undefil'd, And cannot waste away.
- 5 Saints by the Pow'r of God are kept, Till the Salvation come; We walk by Faith, as Strangers here, Till Chrift shall call us home.
- XXVII. Assurance of Heaven; or a Saint prepar'd to die, 2 Tim. iv. 6, 7, 8, 18.
 - Eath may diffolve my Body now,
 And bear my Spirit home;
 Why do my Minutes move fo flow,
 Nor my Salvation come?
- 2 With heav'nly Weapons I have fought The Battles of the Lord, Finish'd my Course, and kept the Faith, And wait the sure Reward.]
- 3 God has laid up in Heav'n for me A Crown which cannot fade; The Righteous Judge at that great Day Shall place it on my Head.
- 4 Nor hath the King of Grace decreed This Prize for me alone;

But

His Name is all my Truft;
Nor will he put my Soul to Shame,
Nor let my Hope be loft.

Firm as his Throne his Promise stands,
And he can well secure
What I've committed to his Hands,
Till the decisive Hour.

Then will he own my worthless Name Before his Father's Face,
And in the New Jerusalem
Appoint my Soul a Place.

CXVIII. Moses and Christ: Or, Sins against the Law and Gospel, Johni. 17. Heb. iii. 3, 5, 6. and x. 28, 29.

THE Law by Moses came,
But Peace, and Truth, and Love,
Were brought by Christ (a nobler Name)
Descending from above.

2 Amidst the House of God
Their diff'rent Works were done;
Moses a faithful Servant stood,

But Christ a faithful Son.

Then to his new Commands

BOOK II.

Composed on Divine Subjects.

- I. A Song of Praise to God from Great Britain.
- Ature with all her Pow'rs shall ling God the Creator and the King:

 Nor Air, nor Earth; nor Skies, nor Deny the Tribute of their Praise. (Seas,
- 2 Begin to make his Glories known,
 Ye Seraphs that his flories known,
 Tune your Harps high, and spread the Sound
 To the Creation's utmost Bound.

I3 All

- [3 Alf mortal Things of meaner Frame,
 Exert your Force, and own his Name;
 Whilf with our Souls and with our Voice
 We fing his Honours and our Joys.
- To him be facred all we have, from the young Cradle to the Grave:
 Our Lips shall his foud Wonders tell;
 And ev'ry Word a Miracle.]
- Lies fafe in God th' Almighty's Hand:
 Our Foes of Vict'ry dream in vain,
 And wear the captivating Chain.
 - 6 He builds and guards the British Throne, And makes it gracious like his own; Makes our fuccessive Princes kind, And gives our Dangers to the Wind.]
 - 7 Raise monumental Praises high
 To him that thunders thro' the Sky,
 And with an awful Nod or Frown
 Shakes an aspiring Tyrant down.
 - [8 Pillars of lasting Brass proclaim
 The Triumphs of th' Eternal Name;
 While trembling Nations read from far
 The Honours of the God of War.]
 - Our loftiest Thoughts and loudest Songsa.

10 Yet, mighty God, our feeble Frame Attempts in vain to reach thy Name; The strongest Notes that Angels raise Faint in the Worship and the Praise.

11. The Death of a Sinner.

Y Thoughts on awful Subjects roll,
Damnation and the Dead;
What Horrors feize the guilty Soul
Upon a dying Bed.

2 Lingring about these mortal Shores She makes a long Delay, Till like a Flood with rapid Force Death sweeps the Wretch away.

Then swift and dreadful she descended Down to the fiery Coast,
Amongst abominable Fiends,
Her self a frightful Ghost.

4 There endless Crowds of Sinners lie,
And Darkness makes their Chains;
Tortur'd with keen Despair they cry,
Yet wait for fiercer Pains.

For their old Guilt atones,
Nor the Compassions of a God
Shall hearken to their Groans,

6 Amazing Grace, that kept my Breath,
Nor bid my Soul remove,
Till I had learn'd my Saviour's Death,
And well infur'd his Love!

III. The Death and Burial of a Saint.

- I W HY do we mourn departing Friends?
 Or shake at Death's Alarms?
 'Tis but the Voice that Josus sends
 To call them to his Arms.
- 2 Are we not tending upward too
 As fast as Time can move?
 Nor would we wish the Hours more slow.
 To keep us from our Love.
- 3 Why should we tremble to convey Their Bodies to the Tomb? There the dear Flesh of Jesus lay, And left a long Persume.
- 4. The Graves of all his Saints he bleft,
 And foftned every Bed:
 Where should the dying Members reft,
 But with the dying Head?
- 5. Thence he arose, ascending high,
 And shew'd our Feet the Way:
 Up to the Lord our Flesh shall sty,
 At the great Rising Day.
- And bid our Kindred rife;

 Awake, ye Nations, under Ground,

 Ye Saints, ascend the Skies.

IV. Salvation in the Cross.

- ERE at thy Cross, my dying God, I lay my Soul beneath the Love,
 Beneath the Droppings of thy Blood:

 Jejus, nor shall it e'er remove.
- 2 Not all that Tyrants think or fay, With Rage and Lightning in their Eyes. Nor Hell shall fright my Heart away, Should Hell with all its Legions rife.
- 3 Should Worlds confirm to drive me thence, Movelets and firm this Heart should lie; Resolv'd (for that's my last Desence) If I must perish, there is die.
- Am I not fafe beneath thy Shade?

 Thy Vengeance will not ftrike me here,
 Nor. Satan dares my. Spil myade.
- 5 Yes, I'm fecure beneath thy Blood, And all my Foes shall lose their Aim: Hosana to my dying God, And my best Honours to his Name.

V. Longing to praise Christ batter.

LORD, when my Thoughts with Wonder O'er the tharp Sorrows of thy Soul, And fead my Maker's Broken Laws, Repair'd and honour'd by the Cross

2 When

- 2 When I behold Death, Hell, and Sin, Vanquish'd by that dear Blood of thine. And see the Man that groan'd and dy'd, Sil glorious by his Father's Side:
- 3 My Passions rise and soar above. I'm wing'd with Faith, and fir'd with Love: Fain would I reach eternal Things, And learn the Notes that Gabriel fings.
- 4 But my Heart fails, my Tongue complains, For want of their immortal Strains: And in fuch humble Notes as these Must fall below thy Victories.
 - 5 Well, the kind Minute must appear When we shall leave these Bodies here; These Clogs of Clay, and mount on high, To join the Songs above the Sky.

VI. A Morning Song.

- NCE more, my Soul, the rifing Day Salutes thy waking Eyes; Once more, my Voice, thy Tribute pay To him that rolls the Skies.
- 3 Night unto Night his Name repeats, The Day renews the Sound, Wide as the Heav'n on which he fits To turn the Seasons round.
- 3 'Tis he supports my mortal Frame, is he supports my more.

 My Tongue shall speak his Praise;

 My

My Sins would rouze his Wrath to flame, And yet his Wrath delays.

- [4 On a poor Worm thy Pow'r might tread,
 And I could ne'er withftand:
 Thy Justice might have crush'd me dead,
 But Mercy held thine Hand.
- 5 A thousand wretched Souls are fled Since the last setting Sun, And yet thou lengthness out my Thread, And yet my Moments run.]
- 6 Dear God, let all my Hours be thine, Whilst I enjoy the Light; Then shall my Sun in Smiles decline, And bring a pleasant Night.

VII. An Evening Song.

- Read Sov'reign, let my Evening Song Like holy Incense rise;

 Affist the Offerings of my Tongue

 To reach the lofty Skies.
- Through all the Dangers of the Day
 Thy Hand was still my Guard,
 And still to drive my Wants away.
 Thy Mercy stood prepar'd.]
- 3 Perpetual Biessings from above Incompass me around, But O how few Returns of Love Hath my Creator found!
- 4 What have I done for him that dy'd
 To fave my wretched Soul?

VIII. A Hymn for Morning or Evening.

 To Thousand Snares attend us round,
 And yet secure we stand.
- That was a most amazing Power That rais'd us with a Word, And every Day and every Hour We lean upon the Lord.
- The Evening rests our weary Head,
 And Angels guard the Room;

- 6 Had I the Pinions of a Dove, I'd climb the heav nly Road;

There

There sits my Saviour drest in Love, And there my smiling God.

XI. The Same.

- I Send the Joys of Earth away,
 Away ye Tempters of the Mind,
 False as the smooth deceitful Sea,
 And empty as the whistling Wind,
- 2 Your Streams were floating me along.
 Down to the Gulf of black Despair;
 And whilft I listen'd to your Song,
 Your Streams had e'en convey'd me there.
- 3 Lord, I adore thy matchless Grace, That warn'd me of that dark Abys; That drew me from those treach'rous Seas, And bid me seek superior Bliss.
- 4. Now to the shining Realms above
 I stretch my Hands, and glance mine Eyes:
 O for the Pinions of a Dove,
 To bear me to the upper Skies!
- 5 Their from the Bosom of my God Oceans of endles Pleasure roll; There would I fix my last Abode, And drown the Sorrows of my Soul.

XII. Christ is the Substance of the Levitical Priesthood.

The Types are all withdrawn:
So fly the Shadows and the Stars
Before the rifing Dawn.

- 4 He took our mortal Flesh, to show The Wonders of his Love; For us he paid his Life below, And prays for us above.
- 5 Father, he cries, forgive their Sins,
 For 1 my felf have dy'd;
 And then he thows his open'd Veins,
 And pleads his wounded Side.
- XIII. The Creation, Preservation, Dissolution, and Restoration of this World.
- SING to the Lord, that built the Skies, The Lord that rear'd this stately Frame; Let half the Nations sound his Praise, And Lands unknown repeat his Name.
- Made ev'ry Drop, and form'd the Hills, Made ev'ry Drop, and ev'ry Dust, Nature and Time, with all their Wheels, And push'd them into Motion first.

3 Now

- Now, from his high imperial Throne, He looks far down upon the Spheres; He bids the shitting Orbs roll on, And round he turns our halty Years.
- 4 Thus shall this moving Engine last
 Till all his Saints are gather'd in,
 Then for the Trumpet's dreadful Blast
 To shake it all to Duk again!
- 5 Yet when the Sound shall tear the Skies, And Lightning burn the Globe below, Saints, you may lift your joyful Eyes, There's a new Heav'n and Earth for you.

XIV. The Lard's Day: Or, Delight in Ordinances.

 Stand waiting round his awful Feet.
- 2 Go, faith the Lord, my Gabriel, go, Salute the Virgin's fruitful Womb; Make haste, ye Cherubs, down below, Sing and proclaim the Saviour come.
- 3 Here a bright Squadron leaves the Skies, And thick around Elisha stands; Anon a heav'nly Soldier flies,

And breaks the Chains from Peter's Hands.

- 4 Thy winged Troops, O God of Hosts, Wait on thy wand ring Church below: Here we are sailing to thy Coasts, Let Angels be our Convoy too.
- s e Are they not all thy Servants, Lord?
 At thy Command they go and come;
 With chearful Haste obey thy Word,
 And guard thy Children to their Home.

XIX. Our frail Bodies, and God our Preserver.

- LET others boast how strong they be, nor Death nor Danger sear;
 But we'll confess, O Lord, to thee,
 What seeble Things we are.
- 2 Fresh as the Grass our Bodies stand,
 And flourish bright and gay;
 A blasting Wind sweeps o'er the Land,
 And sades the Grass away.
 - Our Life contains a thousand Springs,
 And dies if one be gone:
 Strange! that a Harp of thousand Strings
 Should keep in Tune so long.
 - 4 But 'tis our God supports our Frame,
 The God that built us first;
 Salvation to th' Almighty Name
 That rear'd us from the Dust.
- In all their Motions rose;

 Let Blood, said he, flow round the Veins,
 And round the Veins it flows.
 - While we have Breath, or use our Tongues,
 Our Maker we'll adore;
 His Spirit moves our hearing Transaction

H

His Spirit moves our heaving Lungs, Or they would breathe no more.]

XX.

XX. Backflidings and Returns: Or, The Inconstancy of our Love.

WHY is my Heart fo far from thee,
My God, my chief Delight?
Why are my Thoughts no more by Day
With thee, no more by Night?

[2 Why should my foolish Passions rove? Where can such Sweetness be, As I have tasted in thy Love, As I have found in thee?]

3 When my forgetful Soul renews the Savour of thy Grace, My Heart prefumes I cannot lofe The Relish all my Days.

4 But ere one fleeting Hour is past,
The flatt'tring World employs
Some sensual Bait to seize my Taste,
And to pollute my Joys.

[5 Trifles of Nature or of Art
With fair deceitful Charms
Intrude upon my thoughtless Heart,
And thrust thee from my Arms.]

6 Then I repent and vex my Soul
That I (hould leave thee fo;
Where will those wild Affections roll
That let a Saviour go?

[7 Sin's promis'd Joys are turn'd to Pain, And I am drown'd in Grief;

But

But my dear Lord returns again, He flies to my Relief;

8 Seizing my Soul with sweet Surprize,
He draws with loving Bands;
Divine Compassion in his Eyes,

And Pardon in his Hands.]

[9 Wretch that I am, to wander thus
In chase of false Delight!

Let me be fasten'd to thy Cross, Rather then lose thy Sight.]

[10 Make haste, my Days, to reach the Goal, γ And bring my Heart to rest On the dear Centre of my Soul, My God, my Saviour's Breast.]

XXI. A Song of Praise to God the

LET the old Heathens tune their Song
Of great Diana and of Jove;
But the sweet Theme that moves my Tongue,
Is my Redeemer and his Love.

- 2 Behold a God descends and dies, To save my Soul from gaping Hell; How the black Gulph where Satan lies, Yawn'd to recieve me when I fell!
- 3 How Justice frown'd, and Vengeance stood
 To drive me down to endless Pain!
 But the Great Son propos'd his Blood,
 And heav'nly Wrath grew mild again.

4 In-

4 Infinite Lover, gracious Lord,
To the be endless Honours given;
Thy wondrous Name shall be ador'd,
Round the wide Earth, and wider Heaven.

XXII. With God is terrible Majesty.

- TErrible God, that reign'st on high,
 How awful is thy thund'ring Hand!
 Thy fiery Bolts, how fierce they fly!
 Nor can all Earth or Hell withstand.
 - This the old Rebel Angels knew, And Satan fell beneath thy Frown: Thine Arrows struck the Traitor through, And weighty Vengeance sunk him down.
- 3 This Scdom felt, and feels it fill, And roars beneath th' eternal Load: , 2.10 With endless Burnings who can dwell, Or bear the Fury of a God?
- 4 Tremble, ye Sinners, and submit, Throw down your Arms before his throne, Bend your Heads low beneath his Feet, Or his strong Hand shall crush you down,
- And ye, blefs'd Saints, that love him too, With Rev'rence bow before his Name; Thus all his heav'nly Servants do: God is a bright and burning Flame.

XXIII.

XXIII. The Sight of God and Christ in Heaven.

- Descend from Heav'n, immortal Dove, Stoop down and take us on thy Wings, And mount and bear us far above The Reach of these inserior Things,
- Beyond, beyond this lower Sky, Up where eternal Ages roll Where folid Pleafures never die, And Fruits immortal Feaft the Soul.
- 3: O for a Sight, a pleafing Sight Of our Almighty Father's Throne! There fits our Saviour crown'd with Light, Cloath'd in a Body like our own
- 4 Adoring Saints around him stand, And Thrones and Pow'rs before him fall; The God shines gracious thro'the Man, And sheds sweet Glories on them all.
- O what amazing Joys they feel, While to their golden Harps they fing, And fit on ev'ry heav'nly Hill, And spread the Triumphs of their King.
- When shall the Day, dear Lord, appear That I shall mount to dwell above, And stand and bow amongst 'em there, And view thy Face, and sing, and love.

XXIV.

XXIV. The Evil of Sin visible in the Fall of Angels and Men.

- WHEN the Great Builder arch'd the Skies,
 And form'd all Nature with a Word,
 The joyful Cherubs tun'd his Praife,
 And ev'ry bending Throne ador'd.
- 2 High in the midst of all the Throng Satan a tall Arch-Angel sate,
 * Amongst the Morning Stars he sung,
 'Till Sin destroy'd his heav'nly State.
- [3 'Twas Sin that hurl'd him from his Throne; Grov'ling in Fire the Rebel lies:

 † How art thou funk in Darkness down, Son of the Morning, from the Skies.]
- 4 And thus our two first Parents stood,
 "Till Sin defil'd the happy Place;
 They lost their Garden and their God,
 And ruin'd all their unborn Race.
- [5 So fprung the Plague from Adam's Bower, And fpread Destruction all abroad, Sin, the curs'd Name, that in one Hour Spoil'd fix Days Labour of a God.]
- of Tremble, my Soul, and mourn for Grief, That fuch a Foe should seize thy Breast; Fly to thy Lord for quick Relief: Oh! may he slay this treach'rous Guest.

7 Then

^{*} Job xxxviii. 7. + Ifa. xiv. 12.

7 Then to thy Throne, Victorious King, Then to thy Throne our Shouts shall rife, Thine everlasting Arm we sing; For Sin the Monster bleeds and dies.

XXV. Complaining of Spiritual Sloth.

- MY drouzy Pow'rs, why sleep ye fo?

 Awake, my sluggish Soul!

 Nothing has half thy Work to do,

 Yet nothing's half so dull.
- 2 The little Ants for one poor Grain
 Labour, and tug, and strive;
 Yet we who have a Heav'n t'obtain,
 How negligent we live?
- We, for whose sake all Nature stands,
 And Stars their Courses move;
 We, for whose Guard the Angel-Bands
 Come slying from above;
- 4 We, for whom God the Son came down,
 And labour'd for our Good,
 How carless to secure that Crown
- He purchas'd with his Blood!

 5 Lord, shall we lie so sluggish still,
 And never act our Parts;

Come, holy Dove, from th' heav'nly Hill, And fit and warm our Hearts,

6. Then shall our active Spirits move,
Upward our Souls shall rife:
With Hands of Faith and Wings of Love

We'll fly and take the Prize.

H 4 XXVI

XXVI. Gad Invifible.

- ORD, we are blind, we Mortals blind, We can't behold thy bright Abode;
 O'tis beyond a Creature Mind,
 To glance a Thought half-way to God.
- 2. Infinite Leagues beyond the Sky
 The Great Éternal reigns alone,
 Where neither Wings nor Souls can fly,
 Nor Angels climb the toples Throne.
- 3 The Lord of Glory builds his Seat Of Gems infufferably bright, And lays beneath his facred Feer Substantial Beams of gloomy Night,
- 4 Yet glorious Lord, thy gracious Eyes
 Look through and chear us from above 3:
 Beyond our Praise thy Grandeur slies,
 Yet we adore and yet we love.

XXVII. Praise ye bim, all bis Angels. Psal cxlviii. 2.

- G O D! the eternal awful Name That the whole heav'nly Army fears, That shakes the wide Creation's Frame, And Santan trembles when he hears.
- 2 Like Flames of Fire his Servants are, And Light surronds his Dwelling Place; But, O ye fiery Flames, declare The brighter Glories of his Face.

2 Tis

- 3 'Tis not for fuch poor Worms as we To fpeak fo infinite a thing; But your immortal Eyes furvey The Beauties of your Sov'reing King.
- 4 Tell how he shews his smiling Face, And cloaths all Heav'n in bright Array; Triumph and Joy run thro' the Place, And Songs eternal as the Day.
 - 5 Speak (for you feal his burning Love)
 What Zeal it spreads thro' all your Frame;
 That facred Fire dwells all above,
 For we on Earth have lost the Name.
- [6 Sing of his Pow'r and Justice too,
 That infinite Right Hand of his,
 That vanquish'd Satan and his Crew,
 And Thunder drove them down from Bliss.]
- [7 What mighty Storms of poison'd Darts
 Were hurl'd upon the Rebels there!
 What deadly Jav'lins nail'd their Hearts
 Fast to the Racks of long Despair!]
- [8 Shout to your King, you heav'nly Holt;
 You that behold the finking Foe,
 Firmly ye flood when they were lost;
 Praise the rich Grace that kept ye so.]
- 9 Proclaim his Wonders from the Skies, Let ev'ry distant Nation hear. And while you found his lofty Praise, . Let humble Mortals bow and fear.

XXVIII.

XXVIII. Death and Eternity.

- Toop down, my Thoughts, that use to rise, Converse awhile with Death: Think how a gasping Mortal lies, And pants away his Breath.
- 2 His quiv'ring Lip hangs feeble down,
 His Pulses faint and few,
 Then, speechless, with a doleful Groan,
 He bids the World adieu.
- 3 But, Oh, the Soul that never dies!
 At once it leaves the Clay!
 Ye Thoughts, purfue it were it flies,
 And track its wond'rous Way.
- 4 Up to the Courts where Angles dwell,
 It mounts triumphing there;
 Or Devils plunge it down to Hell,
 In infinite Despair.
 - 5 And must my Body saint and die?
 And must this Soul remove?
 Oh, for some Gardian-Angel nigh,
 To bear it sate above!
- 6 Jefus, to thy dear faithful Hand My naked Soul I trust; And my Flesh waits for thy Command, To drop into my dust.

XXIX

XXIX. Redemption by Price and Power.

TESUS, with all thy Saints above,
My Tongue would bear her Part,
Would found aloud thy faving Love,
And fing thy bleeding Heart.

2 Bless'd be the Lamb, my dearest Lord,
Who bought me with his Blood,
And quench'd his Father's flaming Sword
In his own vital Flood.

3 The Lamb that freed my Captive Soul From Satan's heavy Chains, And fent the Lion down to houl Where Hell and Horror reigns.

4 All Glory to the dying Lamb,
And never ceasing Praise,
While Angels live to know his Name,
Or Saints to feel his Grace.

XXX. Heavenly Joy on Earth.

Join in a Song with fweet Accord,
And thus furround the Throne.

2 The Serrows of the Mind
Be banish'd from the Place!
Religion never was design'd
To make our Pleasures less.

H 6

3 Le

3 Let those refuse to sing That never knew our God, But Fav'rites of the heav'nly Kin

But Fav'rites of the heav'nly Kingt May speak their Joys abroad [4 The God that rules on high,

[4 The God that rules on high, And thunders when he please, That rides upon the stormy Sky, And manages the Seas.]

And manages the Seas.]

5 This awful God is ours,
Our Father and our Love.

He shall send down his heav'nly Powers
To carry us above.
6 There we shall see his Face,

And never, never fin;
There from the Rivers of his Grace

Drink endless Pleasures in.
7 Yes, and before we rise

To that immortal State,
The Thoughts of such amazing Bliss
Should constant Joys create.

[8 The Men of Grace have found Glory begun below,

Celestial Fruits on earthly Ground
From Faith and Hope may grow.

9 The Hill of Zion yeilds

A thousand facred Sweets, Before we reach the heav'nly Fields, Or walk the golden Streets.

no Then Fit our Songs abound, And ev'ry Tear be dry;

We're

We're marching thro' Immanuel's Ground
To fairer Worlds on high.]

XXXI. Christ's Presence makes Death easy.

- WHY should we start and fear to die?
 What tim'rous Worms we Mortals are!
 Death is the Gate of endless Joy,
 And yet we dread to enter there.
- The Pains, the Groans, and dying Strife Fright our approaching Souls away; Still we shrink back again to Life, Fond of our Prisson and our Clay.
- 3 Oh! if my Lord would come and meet, My Soul should stretch her Wings in haste, Fly fearless thro' Death's Iron Gate, Nor feel the Terrors as she pass'd.
- 4 Jesus can make a dying Bed
 Feel soft as downy Pillows are,
 While on his Breast I lean my Head,
 And breathe my Life out sweetly there.

XXXII. Frailty and Folly.

Digitized by Google

- HOW short and hasty is our Life!
 How vast our Souls Affairs!
 Yet senseles Mortals vainly strive
 To lavish out their Years.
- Our Days run thoughtlessy along, Without a Moment's Stay;

Just

Just like a Story or a Song, We pass our Lives away.

3 God from on High invites us Home, But we march heedless on, And ever hast ning to the Tomb

Stoop downwards as we run.

How we deferve the deepest Hell/
That slight the Joys above! /
What Chains of Vengeance should we feel
That break such Cords of I ove!

5 Draw us, O God, with Sov'ring Grace, And lift our Thoughts on high, That we may end this mortal Race, And fee Salvation nigh.

XXXIII. The bleffed Society in Heaven.

- R Aife thee, my Soul, fly up and run
 Thro' ev'ry heav'nly Street,
 And fay, There's nought below the Sun
 That's worthy of thy Feet.
- [2 Thus will we mount on facred Wings,
 And tread the Courts above:;
 Nor Earth, nor all her mightied Things,
 Shall tempt our meaned Love.]
 - There on a high majestick Throne
 Th' Almighty Father reigns,
 And sheds his glorious Goodness down
 On all the bissful Plains.
- 4 Bright, like a Sun the Saviour fits, And spreads eternal Noon;

No

- No Ev'nings there, nor gloomy Nights, To want the feeble Moon.
- 5 Amidst those ever-shining Skies
 Behold the facred Dove,
 While banish'd Sin and Sorrow slies
 From all the Realms of Love.
- 6 The glorious Tenants of the Place
 Stand bending round the Throne;
 And Saints and Seraphs fing and praife
 The Infinite Three-One.
- [7] But, O, what Beams of heav'nly Grace
 Transport them all the while!
 Ten Thousand Smiles from Jesus' Face,
 And love in ev'ry Smile!]
- 8 Jesus, and when shall that dear Day,
 That joyful Hour, appear,
 When I shall leave this House of Clay,
 To dwell amongst 'em there?
- XXXIV. Breathing after the Holy Spirit: Or, Fervency of Devotion desir'd.
- COme, Holy Spirit, Heav'nly Dove,
 With all thy quick'ning Pow'rs
 Kindle a Flame of facred Love
 In these cold Hearts of ours.
- 2 Look how we grovel here below, Fond of these trifling Toys; Our Souls can neither sly nor grow To reach eternal Joys.

3 In

- 3 In vain we tune our formal Songs, In vain we strive to rife, Hosanna's languish on our Tongues, And our Devotion dies.
- At this poor dying rate?

 Our Love to faint, to cold to thee?

 And thine to us fo great?
- 5 Come, Holy Spirit, Heav'nly Dove, With all thy quick'ning Pow'rs Come, shed abroad a Saviour's Love, And that shall kindle ours.

XXXV. Praise to God for Creation and Redemption.

LET them neglect thy Glory, Lord, Who never knew thy Grace;
But our loud Song shall still record
The Wonders of thy Praise

2 We raise our Shouts, O God, to thee,
And send them to thy Throne; , 2
All Giory to th' UNITED Three,
The Undivided One,

3 'Twas He (and we'll adore his Name)
That form'd us by a Word;
'Tis He restores our ruin'd Frame:
Salvation to the Lord!

4 Hosanna! let the Earth and Skies Repeat the joyful Sound;

Rocks.

Rocks, Hills, and Vales reflect the Voice In one eternal Round.

XXXVI. Christ's Intercession.

IX/ELL, the Redeemer's gone, T'appear before our God, To fprinkle o'er the flaming Throne

With his atoning Blood.

2 No fiery Vengeance now, No burning Wrath comes down; If Justice calls for Sinners Blood, The Saviour shews his own.

3 Before his Father's Eye. Our humble Suit he moves ;

The Father lays his Thunder by, And looks, and smiles, and loves.

4 Now may our joyful Tongues Our Maker's Honour fing: Jesus the Priest receives our Songs,

And bears 'em to the King.

Is We bow before his Face, And found his Glories high, " Hosanna to the God of Grace

"That lays his Thunder by.] 6 "On Earth thy Mercy reigns,

" And triumphs all above; But, Lord, how weak are mortal Strains. To speak immortal Love!

17 How jarring and how low.

Sweet

10

Sweet Saviour, tune our Songs anew, And they shall please the King.]

XXXVII. The same.

LIFT up your Eyes to th' heav'nly Seats
Where your Redeemer stays:
Kind Intercessor, there he fits,
And loves, and pleads, and prays.

And shed his vital Blood, Appeas'd stern Justice on the Tree,

And then arose to God.

3 Petitions now and Praise may rise, And Saints their Off'rings bring, The Priest with his own Sacrifice Presents them to the King.

Let Papists trust what Names they please, Their Saints and Angels boast;

We've no fuch Advocates as these, Nor pray to th' heav'nly Host.]

5 Jesus alone shall bear my Cries Up to his Father's Throne:

He (dearest Lord) perfumes my Sighs, And sweetens ev'ry Groan.

[6 Ten thousand Praises to the King, Hosanna in the high'st;

Ten thousand Thanks our Spirits bring To God and to his Christ.]

XXXVIII

XXXVIII. Love to God.

- I HAppy the Heart where Graces reign,
 Where Love inspires the Breast:
 Love is the brightest of the Train.
 And strengthens all the rest.
- 2 Knowledge, alas!'tis all in vain,
 And all in vain our Fear;
 Our stubborn Sins will fight and reign,
 If Love be absent there.
 - 3 'Tis Love that makes our chearful Feet In fwift Obedience move; The Devils know, and tremble too, But Satan cannot love.
 - 4 This is the Grace that lives and fings, When Faith and Hope shall cease; Tis this shall strike our joyful Strings In the sweet Realms of Bliss
 - 5 Before we quite forfake our Clay, Or leave this dark Abode, The Wings of Love bear us away To fee our fmiling God.
 - XXXIX. The Shortness and Misery of Life.
 - OUR Days, alas! our mortal Days, Are short and wretched too;

Evil

Evil and few *, the Patriarch fays, And well the Patriarch knew.

- 2 'Tis but at best a narrow Bound
 That Heav'n allows to Men,
 And Pains and Sins run thro' the Round
 Of Threescore Years and Ten.
- 3 Well, if ye must be sad and sew, Run on, my Days, in Haste, Moments of Sin, aud Months of Woe, Ye cannot sly too fast.
- And call her to the Skies,
 Where Years of long Salvation roll,
 And Glory never dies.

XL. Our Comfort in the Covenant' made with Christ.

- UR'God, how firm his Promise stands, Ev'n when he hides his Face: !

 He trusts in our Redeemer's Hands

 His Glory and his Grace.
- 2 Then why, my Soul, thefe fad Complaints, Since Christ and we are One? Thy God is faithful to his Saints, Is faithful to his Son.
- 3 Beneath his Smiles my Heart has liv'd, And Part of Heav'n possel;

^{*} Gen. xlvii. 9.

I praise his Name for Grace receiv'd,
And trust him for the reit.

XLI. A Sight of God, mortifies us to the World.

I UP to the Fields where Angels lie, And living Waters gently roll, Fain would my Thoughts leap out and fly, But Sin hangs heavy on my Soul.

'Thy wondr'ous Blood, dear dying Christ, Can make this World of Guilt remove; And thou can'st bear me where thou fliy'st, On thy kind Wings, Celestial Dove!

- O might I once mount up and fee
 The Glories of th'eternal Skies,
 What little Things these Worlds would be!
 How despicable to my Eyes!
- 4 Had I a Glance of thee, my God, Kingdoms and Men would vanish soon,
 - Vanish as tho' I saw 'em not,
 As a dim Candle dies at Noon.
- Then they might fight, and rage, and rave, I should perceive the Noise no more Than we can hear a shaking Leaf, While rattling Thunders round us rour.
 - Great All in All, Eternal King,
 Let me but view thy lovely Face,
 And all my Pow'rs shall bow and sing
 Thine endless Grandeur, and thy Grace.

XLII.

XLII. Delight in God.

- MY God, what endless Pleasures dwell Above at thy Right Hand! The Courts below, how amiable, Where all thy Graces stand!
- 2 The Swallow near thy Temple lies, And chirps a chearful Note; The Lark mounts upwards tow'rd thy Skies, And tunes her warbling Throat.
- And we, when in thy Presence, Lord,
 We shout with joyful Tongues;
 Or sitting round our Father's Board,
 We crown the Feast with Songs.
- 4 While Jesus shines with quick'ning Grace, We sing and mount on high; But if a Frown becloud his Face, We faint, and tire, and die.
- [5] Just as we see the lonesome Dove
 Bemoan her Widow'd State,
 Wandring, she flies thro' all the Grove,
 And mourns her loving Mate.
- 6 Just so cur Thoughts from thing to thing In restless Circles rove; Just so we droop, and hang the Wing, When Jesus hides his Love.

XLIII.

XLIII. Christ's Sufferings and Glory.

NOW for a Tune of lofty Praise To Great Jekovah's Equal Son! Awake, my Voice in heaviny Lays, Tell the loud Wonders he hath done.

2 Sing how he left the Worlds of Light, And the bright Robes he wore above; How fwift and joyful was his Flight

How fwift and joyful was his Flight On Wings of everlating Love. 2 3 Down to this base, this sinful Earth.

He came to raise our Nature high;
He came t'atone Almighty Wrath;

Fesus the God, was born to die.]

[4 Hell and its Lions roar'd around,
His precious Blood the Monsters spilt;
White weighty Sorrows pres'd him down,

Large as the Loads of all our Guilt.]
5 Deep in the Shades of gloomy Death
Th' Almighry Captive Pris'ner lay;
Th' Almighry Captive left the Earth,

And rose to everlatting Day.

Lift up your Eyes, ye Sons of Light,
Up to his Throne of shining Grace;

See what immortal Glories sit Round the sweet Beauties of his Face.

7 Amongst a thousand Harps and Songs Fessis the God exalted reigns, His facred Name fills all their Tongues, And echoes thro' the heav'nly Plains.

11

XLIV.

XLIV. Hell: Or, The Vengeance of

- WITH holy Fear, and humble Song, The dreadful God our Souls adore; Rev'rence and Awe becomes the Tongue That speaks the Terrors of his Pow'r.
- 2 Far in the Deep were Darkness dwells, The Land of Horror and Despair, Justice has built a dismal Hell, And laid her Stores of Vengeance there.
- [3 Eternal Plagues and heavy Chains, Tormenting Racks and fiery Coals, And Darts t' inflict immortal Pains & Dy'd in the Blood of damned Souls.]
- There Satan the first Sinner lies,
 And roars and bites his Iron Bands;
 In vain the Rebel strives to rise,
 Crush'd with the Weight of both thy Hands.]
 - 5 There guilty Ghosts of Adam's Race Shriek out and howl beneath thy Rod; Once they could scorn a Saviour's Grace, But they incens'd a dreadful God.
 - 6 Tremble, my Soul, and kiss the Son; Sinners, obey thy Saviour's Call; Else your Damnation hastens on, And Hell gapes wide to wait your Fall.

XLV.

XLV. God's Condescension to our Worship.

- Will the Eternal dwell with us;
 What can'ft thou find beneath the Poles,
 To tempt thy Chariot downward thus?
- 2 Still might he fill his starry Throne, And please his Ears with Gabriel's Songs; But th' heav'nly Majesty comes down, And bows to hearken to our Tongues.
- Great God! what poor Returns we pay
 For Love so infinite as thine?
 Words are but Air, and Tongues but Clay;
 But thy Compassion's all Divine.

XLVI. God's Condescension to Human Affairs.

- I UP to the Lord that reigns on high, And views the Nations from afar, Let everlasting Praises fly, And tell how large his bounties are.
- [2 He that can shake the Worlds he made, Or with his Word, or with his Rod, His Goodness/ how amazing great! And what a condescending God!]
- [3 God, that must stoop to view the Skies,
 And bow to see what Angels do,
 I Down

Down to our Earth he casts his Eyes, And bends his Footsteps downwards too.]

- And manages our mean Affairs; On humble Souls the King of Kings Bestows his Counsels and his Cares.
- Our Sorrows and our Tears we pour Into the Bosom of our God; , 10 He hears us in the mournful Hour, And helps us bear the heavy Load.
- 6 In vain might lofty Princes try Such Condescension to perform; For Worms were never rais'd so high Above their meanest Fellow-Worm,
- 7 Oh! could our thankful Hearts devise A Tribute equal to thy Grace, To the third Heav'n our Songs should rise, And teach the golden Harps thy Praise.

XLVII. Glory and Grace in the Person of Christ.

- Awake, my Soul; Awake, my Tongue; Hosanna to th' eternal Name, And all his boundless Love proclaim.
- 2 See where it shines in Fesus' Face, The brightest Image of his Grace; God, in the Person of his Son, Has all his mightiest Works outdone.

3 The

- The spacious Earth, and spreading Flood,
 Proclaim the wise, the pow'rful God,
 And thy rich Glories from afar
 Sparkle in ev'ry rolling Star.
- 4 But in his Looks a Glory stands, The noblest Labour of thine Hands: The pleasing Lustre of his Eyes Outshines the Wonders of the Skies.
- 5 Grace! 'tis a fweet, a charming Theme; My Thoughts rejoice at Jesus' Name: Ye Angels dwell upon the Sound; Ye Heav'ns, reflect it to the Ground.
- 6 Oh/may I live to reach the Place Where he unveils his lovely Face, Where all his Beauties you behold, And fing his Name to Harps of Gold!

XLVIII. Love to the Creatures is dangerous.

- HOW vain are all Things here below!
 How false, and yet how fair!
 Each Pleasure hath its Poison too;
 And ev'ry Sweet, a Snare.
- The brightest Things below the Sky Give but a flatt'ring Light; We should suspect some Danger nigh, Where we Possess Delight.
- Our dearest Joys, and nearest Friends, The Partners of our Blood,

How

How they divide our wav'ring Minds, And leave but half for God!

- 4 The Fondness of a Creature's Love, How strong it strikes the Sense! Thither the warm Affections move, Nor can we call 'em thence.
- 5 Dear Saviour, let thy Beauties be My Soul's eternal Food; And Grace command my Heart away From all created Good.

XLIX. Moses dying in the Embraces of God.

- DEATH cannot make our Souls afraid,
 If God be with us there;
 We may walk through our darkest Shade,
 And never yield to Fear.
- I could renounce my All below, If my Creator bid; And run, if I were call'd to go, And die as Moses did.
- Might I but climb to Pigab's Top, And view the promis'd Land, My Flesh itself should long to drop, And pray for the Command.
- 4 Clasp'd in my heav'nly Father's Arms, I would forget my Breath, And lose my Life among the Charms Of so divine a Death.

L. Com-

L. Comfort under Sorrows and Pains.

- r NOW let the Lord my Saviour finile,'
 And shew my Name upon his Heart;
 I would forget my Pains awhite,
 And in the Pleasure lose the Smart,
- But, oh! it fwells my Sorrows high,
 To fee my bleffed Jefus frown;
 My Spirits fink, my Comforts die,
 And all the Springs of Life are down.
- 3 Ye why, my Soul, why these Complaints? Still while he frowns, his Bowels move; Still on his Heart he bears his Saints, And scels their Sorrows, and his Love.
- 4 My Name is printed on his Breast; His Book of Life contains my Name: I'd rather have it there impress'd Than in the bright Records of Fame.
- 5 When the last Fire burns all Things here, Those Letters shall securely stand, And in the Lamb's fair Book appear/ Writ by th' Eternal Father's Hand.
- 6 Now shall my Minutes smoothly run, Whilst here I wait my Father's Will; My Rising and my Setting Sun Roll gently up and down the Hill.

I.I. God the Son equal with the Father.

- BRight King of Glory, dreadful God! Our Spirits bow before thy Seat, To the we lift an humble Thought, And worship at thine awful Feet.
- [2 Thy Pow'r hath form'd, thy Wildom sways All Nature with a Sov'reign Word; And the bright World of Stars obeys The Will of their fuperior Lord.]
- [3 Mercy and Truth unite in one, And smiling sit at thy Right Hand; Eternal Justice guards thy Throne. And Vengeance waits thy dread Command.]
- 4 A Thousand Seraphs strong and bright Stand round the glorious Deity; But who amongst the Sons of Light Pretends Comparison with thee?

His Praise let ev'ry Angel sing, And all the Nations own the Lord.

LII. Death dreadful, or delightful.

- To those that have no God,
 When the poor Soul is forc'd away
 To seek her last Abode,
- In vain to Heav'n she lifts her Eyes,
 But Guilt, a heavy Chain,
 Still drags her downward from the Skies-To Darkness, Fire, and Pain.
- Awake and mourn, ye Heirs of Hell,

 Let stubborn Sinners fear;

 You must be driv'n from Earth, and dwell

 A long For ever there.
- 4. See how the Pit gapes wide for you,
 And flashes in your Face;
 And thou, my Soul, look downwards too,
 And fing recov'ring Grace.
- 5 He is a God of Sov'reign Love, That promis'd Heav'n to me; And taught my Thoughts to foar above Where happy Spirits be.
- 6 Prepare me, Lord, for thy Right Hand, Then come the joyful Day; Come, Death, and fome celettial Band, To bear my Soul away.

LIII. The Pilgrimage of the Saints; or, Earth and Heaven.

- I CRD! what a wretched Land is this,
 That yields us no Supply!
 No chearing Fruits, no wholfome Trees,
 Nor Streams of living Joy?!
- 2 But pricking Thorns thro' all the Ground,
 And mortal Poisons grow,
 And all the Rivers that are found,
 With dang'rous Waters flow.
- 3 Yet the dear Path to thine Abode
 Lies thro' this horrid Land:
 Lord! we would keep the heav'nly Road,
 And run at thy Command.
- [4 Our Souls shall tread the Defart thro'
 With undiverted Feet;
 And Faith and flaming Zeal subdue
 The Terrors that we meet.]
- [5 A thousand savage Beasts of Prey Around the Forest roam: But Judah's Lion guards the Way, And guides the Strangers home.]
- [6 Long Nights and Darkness dwell below, With scarce a twinkling Ray; But the bright World to which we go/ Is everlasting Day.]
- [7 By glimm'ring Hopes, and gloomy Fears
 We trace the facred Road,

Thro?

Thro' difmal Deeps, and dang'rous Snares, We make our Way to God.]

8 Our Journey is a thorny Maze, But we march upward flill;

Forget these Troubles of the Ways, And reach at Zion's Hill.

[9 See the kind Angels at the Gates, Inviting us to come;

There Jesus the Forerunner waits To welcome Trav'llers home.]

10 There, on a green and flow'ry Mount, Our weary Souls shall fit, And with transporting Joys recount The Labours of our Feet.

[11 No vain Discourse shall fill our Tongue, > Nor Trifles vex our Ear; Infinite Grace shall be our Song,

And God rejoice to hear.] 12 Eternal Glories to the King

That brought us safely thro'; Our Tongues shall never cease to fing, And endless Praise renew.

LIV. God's Presence is Light in Darkness.

TY God, the Spring of all my Joys, The Life of my Delights, The Glory of my brightest Days, And Comforts of my Nights;

2 In darkest Shades if he appear, My dawning is begun! He is my Soul's sweet Morning-Star, And he my rising Sun.

The op'ning Heav'ns around me shine
With Beams of sacred Bliss,
While Jesus shews his Heart is mine,
And whispers, I am bis.

4 My Soul would leave this heavy Clay
At that transporting Word,
Run up with Joy the shining Way
T' embrace my dearest Lord.

5 Fearless of Hell and ghastly Death, I'd break thro' ev'ry Foe; The Wings of Love, and Arms of Faith, Should bear me Conqu'ror thro'.

LV. Frail Life, and succeeding Eternity.

THEE we adore, Eternal Name,
And humbly own to thee,
How feeble is our mortal Frame,
What dying Worms are we?

[2 Our wasting Lives grow shorter still,
As Months and Days increase;
And ev'ry beating Pulse we tell,
Leaves but the Number less.

The Year rolls round, and steals away
The Breath that first it gave;

What-

Whate'er we do, where-e'er we be, We're trav'ling to the Grave.]

4 Dangers stand thick thro' all the Ground,
To push us to the Tomb;

And fierce Difeases wait around,
To hurry Mortals home.

5 Good God! on what a flender Thread Hang everlasting Things! Th' eternal States of all the Dead

Th' eternal States of all the Dead Upon Life's feeble Strings.

6 Infinite Joy or endless Woe
Attends on ev'ry Breath;
And yet how unconcern'd we go
Upon the Brink of Death!

7 Waken, O Lord, our drowfy Sense To walk this dang'rous Road; And if our Souls are hurry'd hence, May they be found with God.

LVI. The Misery of being without God in this World; Or, Vain Prosperity.

Tho' they increase their golden Store
And rise to wond'rous Height.

They taste of all the Joys that grow Upon this earthly Clod!
Well/they may search the Creature thro', For they have ne'er a God.

3 Shake

- 3 Shake off the Thoughts of dying too, And think your Life your own; But Death comes hast'ning on to you, To mow your Glory down.
- Yes, you must bow your stately Head,
 Away your Spirit slies,
 And no kind Angel near your Bed,
 To bear it to the Skies.
- 5 Go now, and boast of all your Stores, And tell how bright you shine; Your Heaps of glitt'ring Dust are yours, And my Redeemer's mine.

LVII. The Pleasures of a good Conscience.

- L ORD, how secure and blest are they Who feel the Joys of pardon'd Sin? Should Storms of Wrath shake Earth and Sea, Their Minds have Heav'n and Peace within.
- 2 The Day glides sweetly o'er their Heads, Made up of Innocence and Love; And soft and silent as the Shades Their nightly Minutes gently move.
- [3 Quick as their Thoughts their Joys come on, But fly not half so fast away; Their Souls are ever bright as Noon, And calm as Summer Evenings be.
- 4 How oft they look to th' heav'nly Hills, Where Groves of living Pleasure grow,

And:

And longing Hopes and chearful Smiles Sit undiffurb'd upon their Brow.]

- 5 They scorn to seek our golden Toys, But spend the Day and share the Night In numb'ring o'er the richer Joys That Heav'n prepares for their Delight.
- While wretched we, like Worms and Moles, Lie grov'ling in the Dust below, Almighty Grace, renew our Souls, And we'll aspire to Glory too.

LVIII. The Shortness of Lise, and the Goodness of God.

- TIME! what an empty Vapour'tis!
 And Days how fwift they are!
 Swift as an Indian Arrow flies,
 Or like a shooting Star.
- [2 The present Moments just appear, Then slide away in haste, That we can never say, They're here; But only say, They're past.]
- [3 Our Life is ever on the Wing,
 And Death is ever nigh;
 The Moment when our Lives begin,
 We all begin to die.]
- 4 Yet, Mighty God! our fleeting Days
 Thy lasting Favours share,
 Yet with the Bounties of thy Grace
 Thou load'st the rolling Year.

5, 'Tis.

5 'Tis Sov'reign Mercy finds us Food, And we are cloath'd with Love: While Grace stands pointing out the Road, That leads our Souls above.

6 His Goodness runs an endless Round; All Glory to the Lord:

His Mercy never knows a Bound; And be his Name ador'd.

7 Thus we begin the lasting Song;
And when we close our Eyes,
Let the next Age thy Praise prolong
'Till Time and Nature dies.

LIX. Paradise on Earth.

CLory to God that walks the Sky, And fends his Bleffings thro'; That tells his Saints of Joys on high, And gives a Taste below.

[2 Glory to God that stoops his Throne, That Dust and Worms may see't, And brings a Glimps of Glory down Around his sacred Feet.

3 When Christ, with all his Graces crown'd, Sheds his kind Beams abroad, 'Tis a young Heav'n on earthly Ground, And Glory in the Bud.

A blooming Paradife of Joy In this wild Defart springs; And ev'ry Sense I strait employ On sweet celestial Things.

5 White

5 White Lilies all around appear, And each his Glory shows! The Rose of Sharon blossoms here.

The fairest Flow'r that blows.

6 Chearful I feast on heav'nly Fruit, And drink the Pleasures down. Pleasures that flow hard by the Foot Of the eternal Throne.

7 But, ah! how foon my Joys decay, How foon my Sins arise, And fnatch th' heav'nly Scene away From these lamenting Eyes!

8 When shall the Time, dear Tesus, when The shining Day appear, That I shall leave those Clouds of Sin.

And Guilt and Darkness here?

9 Up to the Fields above the Skies My hasty Feet would go, There everlasting Flow'rs arise, And Joys unwith'ring grow.

The Truth of God the Promiser; or, The Promises are our Security.

PRaise, everlasting Praise, be paid To Him that Earth's Foundation laid: Praise to the God whose strong Decrees Sway the Creation as he pleafe.

2 Praise to the Goodness of the Lord, Who rules his People by his Word,

And

B. II.

And there, as strong as his Decrees, He sets his kindest Promises

- [3 Firm are the Words his Prophets give, Sweet Words, on which his Children live; Each of them is the Voice of God, Who spoke, and spread the Skies abroad.
- 4 Each of them powr'ful as that Sound
 That bid the new-made Heav'ns go round;
 And stronger than the solid Poles
 On which the Wheel of Nature rolls.
- 5 Whence then should Doubts and Fears arise? Why trickling Sorrows drown our Eyes? Slowly, alas, our Mind receives The Comforts that our Maker gives.
- 6 Oh, for a strong, a lasting Faith, To credit what th' Almighty Lith! T'embrace the Message of his Son, And call the Joys of Heav'n our own.
- 7 Then, should the Earth's old Pillars shake, And all the Wheels of Nature break; Our steady Souls should fear no more Than solid Rocks when Billows roar.
- 8 Our everlassing Hopes arise
 Above the ruinable Skies;
 Where the Eternal Builder reigns,
 And his own Courts his Pow'r sustains...

LXI. A Thought of Death and Glory.

Y Soul, come, meditate the Day, And think how near it stands, When thou must quit this House of Clay, And sly to unknown Lands.

[2 And you, mine Eyes, look down and view The hollow gaping Tomb; This gloomy Prison waits for you,

Whene'er the Summons come.]

3 Oh! could we die with those that die,
And place us in their Stead;
Then would our Spirits learn to fly,

And converse with the Dead.

4 Then should we see the Saints above
In their own glorious Forms,
And wonder why our Souls should love
To dwell with mortal Worms:

[5 How we should scorn these Cloaths of Flesh, These Fetters, and this Load; And long for Evining, to undress, That we may rest with God.]

We should almost forsake our Clay Before the Summons come, And pray and wish our Souls away To their eternal Home.

LXII.

- LXII. God the Thunderer; or, The Last Judgment, and Hell *.
- Sing to the Lord, ye heav'nly Hosts,
 And thou, O Earth, adore:
 Let Death and Hell thro' all their Coasts
 Stand trembling at his Pow'r.
- 2 His founding Chariot shakes the Sky,

 He makes the Clouds his Throne,

 There all his Stores of Lightning lie,

 'Till Vengeance darts them down.
- 3 His Nostrils breathe out fiery Streams, And from his awful Tongue A Sov'reign Voice divides the Flames, And Thunder roars along.
- 4 Think, O my Soul, the dreadful Day When this incenfed God Shall rend the Sky, and burn the Sea, And fling his Wrath abroad.
- 5 What shall the Wretch the Sinner do?

 He once defy'd the Lord:

 But he shall dread the Thund'rer now,

 And fink beneath his Word.
- 6 Tempests of angry Fire shall roll To blast the Rebel Worm, And beat upon his naked Soul In one eternal Storm.

LXIII. A Funeral Thought.

HArk! from the Tombs a doleful Sound! My Ears attend the Cry,

" Ye living Men, come view the Ground

"Where you must shortly lie.

" Princes, this Clay must be your Bed, "In fpite of all your Tow'rs;

" The Tall, the Wife, The Rev'rend Head

" Must lie as low as ours."

73 Great God, is this our certain Doom? Still walking downwards to our Tomb, And yet prepare no more!

4 Grant us the Pow'rs of quick'ning Grace, To fit our Souls to fly; Then, when we drop this dying Flesh,

We'll rise above the Sky.

LXIV. God the Glory and the Defence of Sion.

HAppy the Church, thou facred Place, The Seat of thy Creator's Grace; I, I Thine holy Courts are his Abode; Thou earthly Palace of our God.

2 Thy Walls are Strength, and at thy Gates A Guard of heav'nly Warriors waits; Nor shall thy deep Foundations move, Fix'd on his Counfels and his Love,

- 4 Then let our Souls in Zion dwell, Nor fear the Wrath of Rome and Hell: His Arms embrace this happy Ground, Like brazen Bulwarks built around.
- 5 God is our Shield, and God our Sun; Swift as the fleeting Moments run, On us he sheds new Beams of Grace, And we restect his brightest Praise.

LXV. The Hope of Heaven our Support under Trials on Earth.

- To Mansions in the Skies,
 I bid farewel to ev'ry Fear,
 And wipe my weeping Eyes.
- 2 Should Earth against my Soul engage, And hellish Darts be hurl'd, Then I can smile at Satan's Rage, And face a frowning World.
- And Storms of Sorrow fall;
 May I but fafely reach my Home,
 My God, my Heav'n, my all.
- 4 There shall I bathe my weary Soul-In Seas of heav'nly Rest,

And

And not a Wave of Trouble roll Across my peaceful Breast,

LXVI. A Prospect of Heaven, makes Death easy.

THere is a Land of pure Delight Where Saints immortal reign; Infinite Day excludes the Night, And Pleafures banish Pain.

There everlasting Springs abides,
And never-with ring Flow'rs:
Death, like a narrow Sea, divides
This heav'nly Land from ours.

[3 Sweet Fields beyond the swelling Flood Stand dress in living Green:
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan roll'd between.

4 But tim'rous Mortals start and shrink, To cross this narrow Sea, And linger, shiv'ring on the Brink.

And fear to launch away.]

oh! could we make our Doubts remove, Those gloomy Doubts that rise, And see the Canaan that we love, With unbeclouded Eyes.

6 Could we but climb where Mcses flood,
And view the Landskip o'er,
Not fordan's Stream, nor Death's cold Flood,
Should fright us from the Shore.

LXVII. God's Eternal Dominion.

- Reat God! How infinite art Thou!
 What worthless Worms are we!
 Let the whole Race of Creatures bow,
 And pay their Praise to Thee.
- 2 Thy Throne eternal Ages stood, Ere Seas or Stars were made; Thou art the Ever-living God, Were all the Nations dead.
- 3 Nature and Time quite naked lie
 To thine immense Survey,
 From the Formation of the Sky.
 To the great Burning-Day.
- 4 Eternity, with all its Years,
 Stands present in thy View;
 To thee there's nothing Old appears;
 Great God! there's nothing New.
- Our Lives thro' various Scenes are drawn, And vex'd with trifling Cares; While thine eternal Thought moves on Thine undiffurb'd Affairs.
- 6 Great God! how infinite art Thou!
 What worthless Worms are we!
 Let the whole Race of Creatures bow,
 And pay their praise to Thee.

LXVIII. The humble Worship of Heaven.

FATHER, I long, I faint to fee
The Place of thine Abode;
I'd leave thy earthly Courts, and flee
Up to thy Seat, my God!

2 Here I behold thy distant Face, And 'tis a pleasing Sight; But to abide in thine Embrace, Is infinite Delight.

3 I'd part with all the Joys of Sense, To gaze upon thy Throne; Pleasure springs fresh for ever thence, Unspeakable, Unknown.

[4 There all the heav'nly Hosts are seen, In shining Ranks they move, And drink immortal Vigour in With Wonder and with Love.

In Duty and in Bliss;
While Less THAN NOTHING I could boast,

The Voice that rolls the Stars along Speaks all the Promises.

7 He said, Let the wide Heav'n be spread, And Heav'n was stretch'd abroad; Abrah'm, I'll be thy God, he said, And He was Abrah'm's God.

8 Oh, might I hear thine heav'nly Tongue But whifper, Thou art mine! Those gentle Words should raise my Song

To Notes almost divine.

- 6 How is thy glorious Pow'r ador'd Amidit these watry Nations, Lord! Yet the bold Men that trace the Seas, Bold Men, refuse their Maker's Praise.
- [7 What Scenes of Miracles they see, And never tune a Song to thee! While on the Flood they safely ride, They curse the Hand that smooths the Tide.
- 8 Anon they plunge in watry Graves, And some drink Death among the Waves: Yet the furviving Crew blaspheme, Nor own the God that rescu'd them.]
- 9 Oh, for some Signal of thine Hand! Shake all the Soas, Lord, shake the Land; Great Judge, descend, lest Men deny That there's a God that rules the Sky.

Our nobler Spirits came.

We bring our mortal Powers to God, And wor!hip with our Tongues; We claim some Kindred with the Skies, And join th' Angelic Songs.

And Fowls of ev'ry Shape,
And Rocks, and Trees, and Fires, and Seas

Their various Tribute bring.
5 Ye Planets, to his Honour shine,

And Wheels of Nature roll,

 To shield the sacred Place.
- 5 Satan may vent his sharpest Spite, And all his Legions roar; Almighty Mercy guards my Life, And bounds his raging Pow'r
- 6 Arife, my Soul, awake, My Voice, And Tunes of Pleafure fing; Loud Hallelujah's shall address My Saviour and my King.

LXXXIII. The Passion and Exaltation of Christ.

- Thus faith the Ruler of the Skies,

 Awake, my dreadful Sword;

 Awake my Wrath, and smite the Man

 My Fellow, faith the Lord.
 - 2 Vengeance receiv'd the dread Command, And, armed, down she flies; Jesus

Jesus submits t' his Father's Hand, And bows his Head, and dies.

3 But, oh! the Wisdom and the Grace That join with Vengeance now!

He dies, to fave our guilty Race, And yet he rifes too.

4 A Person so divine was he
Who yielded to be slain,
That he could give his Soul away,
And take his Life again.

5 Live, glorious Lord and reign on high, Let ev'ry Nation fing And Angels found, with endless Joy, The Saviour and the King.

LXXXIV. The same.

Toome, all harmonious Tongues,
Your noblest Musick bring;
Tis Christ the Everlasting God,
And Christ the Man, we fing.

Tell how he took our Flesh, To take away our Guilt;

Sing the dear Drops of facred Blood That hellish Monsters spilt.

[3 Alas, the cruel Spear
Went deep into his Side,
And the rich Flood of purple Gore
Their murth'rous Weapons dy'd.]

[4 The Waves of swelling Grief Did o'er his Besom roll

And

And Mountains of Almighty Wrath Lay heavy on his Soul.]

5 Down to the Shades of Death He bow'd his awful Head;

Yet he arose to live and reign
When Death itself is dead.

6 No more the bloody Spear, The Cross and Nails no more;

For Hell itself shakes at his Name, And all the Heav'ns adore.

7 There the Redeemer fits
High on the Father's Throne;
The Father lays his Vengance by,

And fimiles upon his Son.

8 There his full Glories shine With uncreated Rays,

And bless his Saints and Angels Eyes
To everlasting Days.

LXXXV. Sufficiency of Pardon.

- WHY does your Face, ye humble Souls,
 Those mournful Colours wear?
 What Doubts are these that waste your Faith,
 And nourish your Despair?
- 2 What tho' your num'rous Sins exceed The Stars that fill the Skies, And aiming at th' eternal Throne Like pointed Mountains rife?
- 3 What tho' your mighty Guilt beyond The wide Creation swell,

 \mathbf{A} nd

And as its curs'd Foundations laid Low as the Deeps of Hell.

4 See here an endless Ocean flows Of never-failing Grace;

Behold a dying Saviour's Veins

The facred Flood increase:

5 It rifes high, and drowns the Hills, 'T has neither Shore nor Bound:

Now, if we search to find our Sins, Our Sins can ne'er be found.

6 Awake, our Hearts, adore the Grace That buries all our Fau'ts,

And pard'ning Blood, that swells above Our Follies and our Thoughts.

LXXXVI. Freedom from Sin and Milery in Heaven.

OUR Sins, alas! how strong they be?
And, like a vi'lent Sea,
They break our Duty (Lord) to thee,
And hurry us away.

The Waves of Trouble, how they rise!

How loud the Tempest roar!

But Death shall land our weary Souls

Safe on the heav'nly Shore.

There, to fulfil his fweet Commands,
Our speedy Feet shall move;
No Sin shall clog our winged Zeal,
Or cool our burning Love.

à There

4 There shall we sit and sing, and tell
The Wonders of his Grace,
'Till heav'nly Raptures sire our Hearts,
And smile in ev'ry Face.

5 For ever his dear facred Name Shall dwell upon our Tongue, And fefus and Salvation be The Close of ev'ry Song.

LXXXVIII. The Divine Glories above our Reason.

HOW wond'rous great, how glorious bright, Must our Creator be, Who dwells amidst the dazzling Light Of vast Infinity?

2 Our foaring Spirits upwards rife Tow'rd the celestial Throne: Fain would we see the Blessed Three, And the Almighty One.

3 Our Reason stretches all its Wings, And climbs above the Skies; But still how far beneath thy Feet Our grov'ling Reason lies!

[4 Lord, here we bend our humble Souls, And awfully adore: For the weak Pinions of our Mind Can stretch a Thought no more.]

5 Thy Glories infinitely rife Above our lab'ring Tongue;

ľα

In vain the highest Scraphs tries
To form an equal Song

[6 In humble Notes our Faith adores
The great mysterious King,
While Angels strain their nobler Pow'rs,
And sweep th' immortal String.]

LXXXVIII. Salvation.

S Alvation! Oh, the joyful Sound;
'Tis Pleasure to our Ears;
A sov'reign Balm for ev'ry Wound,
A Cordial for our Fears.

2 Bury'd in Sorrow and in Sin,
At Heli's dark Door we lay;
But we arife, by Grace divine,
To fee a heav'nly Day.

3 Salvation! Let the Echo fly
The spacious Earth around,
While all the Armies of the Sky
Conspire to raise the Sound.

LXXXIX. Christ's Victory over Satan.

Hosanna to our Conqu'ring King!
The Prince of Darkness flies,
His Troops rush headlong down to Hell,
Like Lightning from the Skies.

2 There, bound in Chains, the Lyons roar, And fright the rescaled Sheep;

But

B. II. But heavy Bars confine their Powa. And Malice to the Deep.

3 Hosanna to our Conqu'ring King, All hail, incarnate Love! Ten thousand Songs and Glories wait

To crown thy Head above.

4 Thy Vict'ries and thy deathless Fame Thro' the wide World shall run, And everlasting Ages fing The Triumphs thou hast won,

XC. Faith in Christ, for Pardon and Sanctification.

- H Ow fad our State by Nature is! Our Sin, how deep it stains! And Satan binds our captive Minds Fast in his slavish Chains.
- 2 But there's a Voice of fov'ring Grace Sounds from the facred Word : Ho! ye, despairing Sinners, come, And trust upon the Lord.
- 3 My Soul obeys th' Almighty Call, And runs to this Relief : I would believe thy Promise, Lord; Oh! help my Unbelief.
- [4 To the dear Fountaion of thy Blood, Incarnate God, I fly;

Here let me wash my spotted Soul From Crimes of deepest Dye.

5 Stretch

- 5 Stretch out thine Arm, victorious King, My reigning Sins subdue; Drive the old Dragon from his Seat, With all his helish Crew.
- 6 A guilty, weak, and helples Worm
 On thy kind Arms I fall:
 Be thou my Strength and Righteousness,
 My Jesus, and my All.

XCI. The Glory of Christ in Heaven.

- The Glories of the Place
 Where Jesus sheds the brightest Beams
 Of his o'erstowing Grace!
- 2 Sweet Majesty and awful Love Sit smiling on his Brow, And all the Glorious Ranks above At humble Distance bow.
- [3 Princes to his Imperial Name
 Bend their bright Sceptres down;
 Dominions, Thrones, and Pow'rs rejoice
 To fee him wear the Crown.]
 - 4 Archangels found his lofty Praise
 Thro' ev'ry heav'nly Street,
 And lay their highest Honours down
 Submissive at his Feet.
- 5 Those fost, those blessed Feet of his, That once rude Iron tore,

High

High on a Throne of Light they stand, And all the Saints adore.

- 6 His Head, the dear Majestick Head, That cruel Thorns did wound, See what immortal Glory shine, And circle it around.
- 7 This is the Man, th' exalted Man, Whom we, unseen, adore: But when our Eyes behold his Face, Our Hearts shall love him more.
- [8 Lord how our Souls are all on fire
 To fee thy bleft Abode;
 Our Tongues rejoyce in Tunes of Praife
 To our incarnate God!
- 9 And while our Faith enjoys this Sight, We long to leave our Clay; And wish thy fi'ry Chariots, Lord, To fetch our Souls away.]

XCII. The Church saved, and her Enemies disappointed.

Composed the 5th of November, 1694.

- Je Hout to the Lord, and let our Joys
 Thro' the whole Nation run:
 Ye British Skies, Resound the Noise
 Beyond the rising Sun.
- 2 Thee, Mighty God, our Souls admire, Thee our glad Voices fing,

And

And join with the celestial Choir, To praise th' Eternal King.

- 3 Thy Pow'r the whole Creation rules, And on the starry Skies Sits smiling at the weak Designs Thine envious Foes devise.
- 4 Thy Scorn derides their feeble Rage, And, with an awful Frown, Flings valt Confusion on their Plots, And shakes their Babel down.
- 5 Their fecret Fires in Caverns lay, And we the Sacrifice:
 But gloomy Caverns strove in vain
 To 'scape all-searching Eyes.
 - 6 Their dark Defigns were all reveal'd, Their Treasons all betray'd: Praise to the Lord, that broke the Snare Their cursed Hands had laid.]
 - 7 In vain the bufy Sons of Hell
 Still new Rebellions try,
 Their Souls shall pine with envious Rage,
 And vex away, and die.
- 8 Almighty Grace defends our Land From their malicious Pow'r: Let Britain with united Songs Almighty Grace adore.

XCIII.

XCIII. God all, and in all. Pfal. lxxiii. 25.

MY God, my Life, my Love, To thee, to thee I call;

I cannot live, if thou remove, For thou art All in all.

[2 Thy shining Grace can cheer This Dungeon where I dwell:

Tis Paradise when thou art here;
If thou depart, 'tis Hell.]

[3 The Smilings of thy Face, How amiable they are!

'Tis Heav'n to rest in thine Embrace, And no-were else but there.]

[4 To thee, and thee alone, The Angels owe their Blifs; They fit around thy gracious Throne,

And dwell where Jesus is.]

[5 Not all the Harps above Can make a heav'nly Place, If God his Residence remove,

Or but conceal his Face.]

6 Nor Earth, nor all the Sky, Can one Delight afford;

No, not a Drop of real Joy, Without thy Presence, Lord.

7 Thou art the Sea of Love, Where all my Pleasures roll;

The Circle where my Passions move, And Centre of my Soul.

[8 To

[8 To thee my Spirits fly
With infinite Defire;
And yet, how far from thee I lie!
Dear Jesus, raise me higher.]

XCIV. God my only Happiness. Psal. lxxiii. 25.

MY God, my Portion, and my Love, My everlasting All, I've none but thee in Heav'n above, Or on this earthly Ball.

[2 What empty Things are all the Skies, And this inferior Clod? There's nothing here deferves my Joys, There's nothing like my God.]

[3 In vain the bright, the burning Sun Scatters his feeble Light: 'Tis thy fweet Beams create my Noon; If thou withdraw, 'tis Night.

4 And whilst upon my restless Bed Amongst the Shades I roll If my Redeemer shew his Head, "Tis Morning with my Soul.]

5 To thee we owe our Wealth and Friends, And Health and fafe Abode; Thanks to thy Name for meaner Things, But they are not my God.

6 How vain a Toy is glitt'ring Wealth, If once compar'd to Thee?

Or

Or what's my Safety, or my Health, Or all my Friends, to me?

7 Were I Proflessor of the Earth, And call'd the Stars my own; Without thy Graces, and thy Self, I were a Wretch undone.

8 Let others stretch their Arms like Seas, And grafp in all the Shore, Grant me the Visits of thy Face, And I desire no more.

XCV. Look on him whom they pierced, and mourn.

I Nfinite Grief! amazing Woe!
Behold my bleeding Lord:
Hell and the Jews confpir'd his Death,
And us'd the Roman Sword.

2 Oh, the sharp Pangs of smarting Pain My dear Redeemer bore, When knotty Whips, and ragged Thorns, His sacred Body tore!

3 But knotty Whips, and ragged Thorns, In vain do I accuse; In vain I blame the Roman Bands,

And the more spiteful Jews.

4 'Twere you, my Sins, my cruel Sins,

His chief Tormentors were;
Each of my Crimes became a Nail;
And Unbelief, the Spear.

Twere

5 'Twere you that pull'd the Vengeance down Upon his guiltless Head:

Break, break, my Heart, oh, burst mine Eyes, And let my Sorrows bleed.

6 Strike, mighty Grace, my flinty Soul, 'Till melting Waters flow, And deep Repentance drown mine Eyes In undissembled Woe.

XCVI. Distinguishing Love; or, Angels punish'd, and Man saved.

- DOwn headlong from the native Skies The Rebel-angels fell, And Thunder-bolts of flaming Wrath Pursu'd them deep to Hell.
- 2 Down from the Top of earthly Blifs Rebellious Man was hurl'd; And Jefus stoop'd beneath the Grave, To reach a finking World.
- Oh, Love of infinite Degrees!
 Unmeasurable Grace!
 Must Heav'n's eternal Darling die,
 To save a trait'rous Race?
- 4 Must Angels sink for ever down,
 And burn in quenchless Fire,
 While God forsakes his shining Throne,
 To raise us Wretches higher?
- Oh, for this Love, let Earth and Skies' With Hallelujah's ring,

And

And the full Choir of human Tongues All Hallelujah's fing.

XCVII. The same.

Rom Heav'n the finning Angels fell, AndWrath andDarkness chain'd them down: But Man, vile Man, forsook his Bliss, And Mercy lifts him to a Crown.

2 Amazing Work of Sov'reing Grace, That could distinguish Rebels so! Our guilty Treasons call'd aloud For everlasting Fetters too.

Our Souls, our Selves, our All we pay:
Millions of Tongues shall found thy Praise
On the bright Hills of heav'nly Day.

XCVIII. Hardness of Heart complain'd of:

1 MY Heart, how dreadful hard it is!
How heavy here it lies;
Heavy and cold within my Breaft,
Just like a Rock of Ice!

Sin, like a raging. Tyrant, fits
 Upon this flinty Throne,
 And every Grace lies bury'd deep.
 Beneath this Heart of Stone.

3 How feldom do I rise to God, Or taste the Joys above?

This

This Mountain presses down my Faith, And chills my flaming Love.

When fimiling Mercy courts my Soul With all its heav'nly Charms, This stubborn, this relentless Thing, Would thrust it from my Arms.

5 Against the Thunders of thy Word Rebellious I have stood; My Heart, it shakes not at the Wrath. And Terrors of a God.

6 Dear Saviour, steep this Rock of mine In thine own crimson Sea! None but a Bath of Blood divine Can melt the Flint away.

XCIX. The Book of God's Decrees.

LET the whole Race of Creatures lie Abas'd before their God: Whate'er his Sov'reing Voice has form'd, He governs with a Nod.

Le Ten thousand Ages ere the Skies
Were into Motion brought;
All the long Years and Worlds to come
Stood present to his Thought.

3 There's not a Sparrow, or a Worm,
But's found in his Decrees;
He raises Monarchs to their Thrones,
And finks them as he please.]

4 If Light attends the Course I run, "Tis He provides those Rays;

And

And 'tis his Hand that hides my Sun,
If Darkness cloud my Days.

- 5 Yet I would not be much concern'd,... Nor vainly long to fee The Volumes of his deep Decrees, What Months are writ for me.
- 6 When He reveals the Book of Life; Oh, may I read my Name Amongst the Chosen of his Love, The Poll wers of the Lamb!

C. The Presence of Christ, is the Life of my Soul.

- I HOW full of Anguish is the Thought, How it distracts and tears my Heart, If God at last my Sov'reing Judge, Should frown, and bid my Soul Depart!
- 2 Lord, when I quit this earthly Stage, Where shall I fly but to thy Breast? For I have sought no other Home; For I have learn'd no other Rest.
- 3 I cannot live contented here, Without some Glimpses of thy Face; And Heav'n, without thy Presence there, Would be a dark and tiresome Place.
- 4 When earthly Cares ingross the Day, And hold my Thoughts aside from thee, The shining Hours of chearful Light Are long and tedious Years to me.

۽ نا

5 And

- 5 And if no Ev'ning Visit's paid
 Between my Saviour and my Soul,
 How dull the Night! how sad the Shade!
 How mournfully the Minutes roll!
- This Flesh of mine might learn as foon To live, yet part with all my Blood; To breathe, when vital Air is gone; Or thrive and grow without my Food.
- [7 Christ is my Light, my Life, my Care, My bleffed Hope, my heav'nly Prize; Dearer than all my Passions are, My Limbs, my Bowels, or my Eyes.
- The Strings that twine about my Heart, Tortures and Racks may tear them off; But they can never, never part With their dear Hold of Christ my Love.]
- [9 My God! and can a humble Child, That loves thee with a Flame fo high, Be ever from thy Face exil'd, Without the Pity of thine Eye?
- 10 Impossible! —— For thine own Hands
 Have ty'd my Heart so fast to thee?
 And in thy Book the Promise stands,
 That were thou art, thy Friends must be.]
- CI. The World's Three chief Temptations.
- WHen in the Light of Faith divine We look on Things below,

Honour, and Gold, and fenfual Joy, How vain and dang'rous too!

[2 Honour's a Puff of noify Breath; Yet Men expose their Blood,

And venture everlasting Death,
To gain that airy Good.

3 Whilst others starve the nobler Mind, And feed on shining Dust; They rob the Serpent of his Food, T' indulge a fordid Lust.]

4 The Pleasures that allure our Sense Are dang'rous snares to Souls; There's but a drop of flatt'ring sweet, And dash'd with bitter Bowls.

5 God is mine All fufficient Good, My Portion and my Choice, In Him my vast Desires are fill'd, And all my Pow'rs rejoice.

6 In vain the World accosts my Ear, And tempts my Heart anew; I cannot buy your Bliss so dear, Nor part with Heav'n for you.

CII. A Happy Resurrection.

NO, I'll repine at Death no more, But, with a chearful Gasp, resign To the cold Dungeon of the Grave, These dying, with ring Limbs of mine.

2 Let Worms devour my wasting Flesh, And crumble all my Bones to Dust,

Ms

My God shall raise my Frame anew, At the Revival of the Just.

Break, facred Morning, thro' the Skies, Bring that delightful, dreadful Day, Cut short the Hours, dear Lord, and come, Thy ling'ring Wheels, how long they stay!

[4 Our weary Spirits faint, to see
The Light of thy returning Face,
And hear the Language of those Lips
Where God has shed his richest Grace.]

[5 Haste then upon the Wings of Love, Rouze all the pious sleeping Clay, That we may join in heav'nly Joys, And sing the Triumph of the Day.]

CIII. Christ's Commission. John iii. ver. 16, 17.

COME, happy Souls, approach your God'
With new melodious Songs;
Come, tender to Almighty Grace
The Tributes of your Tongues.

So strange, so boundless was the Love
 That pity'd dying Men,
 The Fathet funt his equal Son
 To give them Life again.

3 Thy Hands, dear Jefus, were not arm'd, With a revenging Rod, No hard Commission to perform The Vengeance of a God.

4 But

4 But all was Mercy, all was mild,
And-Wrath forfook the Throne,
When Christ on the kind Errand came,
And brought Salvation down.

5 Here, Sinners, you may heal your Wounds, And wipe your Sorrows dry; Trust in the mighty Saviour's Name, And you shall never die.

6 See, dearest Lord, our willing Souls Accept thine offer'd Grace; We bless the great Redeemer's Love, And give the Father Praise.

CIV. The same.

R Aife your triumphant Songs
To an immortal Tune,
Let the wide Earth r found the Deeds
Celefial Grace has done.

2 Sing how Eternal Love Its chief Beloved chose, And bid him raife our wretched Race From their Abyss of Woes.

3 His Hand no Thunder bears, Nor Terror clearly his Brow; No Bolts to drive our guilty Souls To fiercer Flames below.

4 'Twas Mercy fill'd the Throne, And Wrath Hood filent by, When Chriff was font with Pardons down To Rebels doom'd to die.

L٥

5 Now, Sinners, dry your Tears, Let hopeless Sorrow cease; Bow to the Sceptre of his Love,

And take the offer'd Peace.

6 Lord, we obey thy Call;
We lay an humble Claim
To the Salvation thou has bro

To the Salvation thou hast brought, And love and praise thy Name.

CV. Repentance flowing from the Patience of God.

A ND are we Wretches yet alive?
And do we yet rebel?
The boundless, 'tis amazing Love,

That bears us up from Hell!

The Burden of our weighty Guilt
Would fink us down to Flames,
And threat'ning Vengeance rolls above

To crush our seeble Frames.

Almighty Goodness cries, Forbear;
And strait the Thunder stays:
And dare we now provoke his Wrath,
And weary out his Grace?

4 Lord, we have long abus'd thy Love, Too long endulg'd our Sin, Our aking Hearts e'en bleed, to fee

What Rebels we have been.

No more, ye Lusts, shall ye command, No more will we obey; Stretch out, O God, thy conqu'ring Hand, And drive thy Foes away.

CVI

CVI. Repentance at the Cross.

- OH, if my Soul was form'd for Woe, How would I vent my Sighs! Repentance should like Rivers flow From both my streaming Eyes.
- 2 'Twas for my Sins my dearest Lord Hung on the cursed Tree, And groan'd away a dying Life For thee, my Soul, for thee,
- 3 Oh, how I hate those Lusts of mine That crucify'd my God, Those Sins that pierc'd and nail'd his Flesh Fast to the fatal Wood.
- 4 Yes, my Redeemer, they shall die, My Heart has so decreed; Nor will I spear the guilty Things
- That made my Saviour bleed.

 5 Whilst with a melting broken Heart
 My murder'd Lord I view,
 I'll raise Revenge against my Sins,
 And slay the Murd'rers too.

CVII. The everlasting Absence of God intolerable.

- That awful Day will furely come, Th' appointd Hour makes hafte, When I must stand before my Judge, And pass the solemn Test.
- Thou lovely Chief of all my Joys, Thou Sov'reign of my Heart,

How

How could I bear to hear the Voice Pronounce the Sound, Depart?

[3 The Thunder of that difmal Word Would so torment my Ear,

Twould tear my Soul afunder, Lord,

With most tormenting Fear.]

[4 What, to be banish'd for my Life, And yet forbid to die?

To linger in eternal Pain, Yet Death for ever fly?]

5 Oh! wretched State of deep Despair, To see my God remove, And fix my doleful Station where I must not taste his Love.

6 Jesus, I throw my Arms around
And hang upon thy Breast;
Without a gracious Smile from thee,
My Spirit cannot rest.

7 Oh! tell me that my worthless Name Is graven on thy Hands, Shew me some Promise, in thy Book,

Where my Salvation flands.

[8 Give me one kind, affuring Word, To fink my Fears again; And chearfully my Soul shall wait Her threescore Years and ten.]

CVIII. Access to the Throne of Graceby a Mediator.

COme, let us lift our joyful Eyes Up to the Courts above,

And

And fmile to fee our Father there Upon a Throne of Love.

2 Once 'twas a Seat of dreadful Wrath, And hot devouring Flame; Our God appear'd consuming Fire,

Our God appear a conjuming Fire, And Vengeance was his Name.

3 Rich were the Drops of Jesus Blood
That calm'd his frowning Face,
That sprinkled o'er the burning Throne,
And turn'd the Wrath to Grace.

4 Now we may bow before his Feet,
And venture near the Lord;
No fiery Cherub guards his Seat,
Nor double-flaming Sword.

5. The peaceful Gates of heav'nly Blifs.

Are open'd by the Son;

High let us raise our Notes of Praise, And reach th' Almighty Throne,

6 To thee ten thousand Thanks we bring, Great Advocate on high; And Glory to th' Eternal King That lays his Fury by.

CIX. The Darkness of Providence.

Th' obscure Abys of Providence, Too deep to sound with mortal Lines, Too dark to view with feeble Sense.

2 Now thou array'st thine awful Face In angry Frowns, without a smile:

We

230 We thro' the Cloud believe thy Grace, Secure of thy Compassion still.

- 3 Thro' Seas and Storms of Deep Distress We fail by Faith, and not by Sight; Faith guides us in the Wilderness, Thro' all the Briars, and the Night.
- 4 Dear Father, if thy lifted Rod Resolve to scourge us here below: Still we must lean upon our God, Thine Arm shall bear us safely thro'.

CX. Triumph over Death, in hope of the Resurrection.

- A ND must this Body die?
 This mortal Frame decay? And must these active Limbs of mine Lie mould'ring in the Clay?
- 2 Corruption, Earth, and Worms Shall but refine this Flesh, 'Till my triumphant Spirits comes, To put it on afresh.
- 3 God my Redeemer lives. And often from the Skies

Looks down, and watches all my Duft, 'Till he shall bid it rife.

4 Array'd in glorious Grace Shall these vile Bodies shine,

And ev'ry Shape and ev'ry Face Look heav'nly and divine.

5 These

5 Thefe lively Hopes we owe To Jefus' dying Love; We would adore his Grace below And fing his Pow'r above.

6 Dear Lord, accept the Praise
 Of these our humble Songs,
 "Till Tunes of nobler Sound we raise
 With our immortal Tongues.

CXI. Thanksgiving for Victory; or, God's Dominion, and our Deliverance.

ZION rejoice and Judah fing;
The Lord assumes his Throne:
Let Britain own the heav'nly King,
And make his Glories known.

2 The Great, the Wicked, and the Proud From their high Seats are hurl'd; Jehovah rides upon a Cloud, And thunders thro'the World.

3 He reigns upon th' eternal Hill, Distributes mortal Crowns; Empires are fix'd beneath his Smiles, And totter at his Frowns.

4 Natives that rule the Ocean wide Are vanquish'd by his Breath, And Legions arm'd with Pow'r and Pride Descend to watry Death.

5 Let Tyrants make no more Pretence To vex our happy Land; Jehovah's Name his our Defence, Our Buckler is his Hand.

[6 Long

[6 Long may the King, our Sov'reign, live
To rule us by his Word;
And all the Honours he can give,
be offer'd to the Lord.]

CXVI. Angels ministring to Christ and Saints.

- Reat God! to what a glorious Height Hast thou advanc'd the Lord thy Son?
 Angels, in all their Robes of Light,
 Are made the Servants of his Throne.
- 2. Before his Peet thine Armies wait, And fwitt as Flames of Fire they move, To manage his Affairs of State In Works of Vengeance, and of Love.
- 3 His Orders run thro' all the Hosts, Legions descend at his Command, To shield and guard the British Coasts, When foreign Rage invades our Land.
- 4. Now they are fent to guide our Feet Up to the Gates of thine Abode,
 Thro' all the Dangers that we meet In travelling the heav'nly Road.
- 5 Lord, when I leave this mortal Ground, And thou shalt bid me rise, and come, Send a beloved Angel down, Safe to conduct my Spirit home.

CXIII.

CXIII. The same.

THE Majesty of Solomon,
How glorious to behold
The Servants waiting round his Throne,
The Iv'ry, and the Gold!

2 But, mighty God! thy Palace shines With far superior Beams; Thine Angel Guards are swift as Winds, Thy Ministers are Flames.

[3 Soon as thine only Son had made His Entrance on the Earth, A shining Army downward sled,

To celebrate his Birth.

4 And when oppress'd with Pains and Fears,
On the cold Ground he lies;
Behold, a heav'nly Form appears,
T' allay his Agonies.]

5 Now to the Hands of Chrift, our King, Are all their Legions giv'n; They wait upon his Saints, and bring His chosen Heirs to Heav'n.

6 Pleasure and Praise run thro' their Host,
To see a Sinner turn;
Then Stage have Commissed

Then Satan has a Caprive lost, And Christ a Subject born.

7 But there's an Hour of brighter Joy,
When He his Angels fends
Obstinate Rebels to de troy,
And gather in his Friends.

8 Oh !

8 Oh! could I say, without a Doubt,
There shall my Soul be found,
Then let the Great Arch-Angel shout,
And the last Trumpet sound.

CXIV. Christ's Death, Victory, and Dominion.

I Sing my Saviour's wondrous Death;
He conquer'd when he fell:
'Tis finish'd, said his dying Breath,
And shook the Gates of Hell.

2 'Tis finish'd, our Emannuel cries,
The dreadful Work is done;
Hence shall his Sov'reign Throne arise.
His Kingdom is begun.

3 His Cross a fure Foundation laid For Glory and Renown, When thro' the Regions of the Dead He pass'd, to reach the Crown.

4 Fxalted at his Father's Side
Sits our victorious Lord;
To Heav'n and Hell his Hands divide
The Vengeance or Reward.

5 The Saints, from his propitious Eye, Await their several Crowns, And all the Sons of Darkness sly The Terror of his Frowns.

CXV.

- CXV. God the Avenger of his Saints; or, His Kingdom Supreme.
- HIgh as the Heav'ns above the Ground, Reigns the Creator, God; Wide as the whole Creation's Bound, Extends his awful Rod.
 - 2 Let Princes of exalted State To him ascribe their Crown, Render their Homage at his Feet, And cast their Glories down.
 - 3 Know that his Kingdom is supreme, Your lofty Thoughts are vain; He calls you Gods, that awful Name, But ye must die like Men.
- 4 Then let the Sov'reigns of the Globe Not dare to vex the Just : ... He puts on Vengeance like a Robe, And treads the Worms to Dust.
- 5 Ye Judges of the Earth, be wife, And think of Heav'n with Fear; The meanest Saint that you despise Has an Avenger there.

CXVI. Mercies and Thanks.

I HOW can I fing with fuch a Prop
As my eternal God,
Who bears the Earth's huge Pillars up,
And spreads the Heav'ns abroad?

2 How

- 2 How can I die while Jesus lives, Who rose and left the Dead? Pardon and Grace my Soul receives From mine exalted Head.
- 3 All that I am, and all I have, Shall be for ever thine; Whate'er my Duty bids me give, My chearful Hands refign.
- 4 Yet if I might make some Reserve, And Duty did not call, I love my God with Zeal so great, That I should give him All.

CXVII. Living and dying with God prefent

- I Cannot bear thine Absence, Lord, My Life expires if thou depart: Be thou, my Heart, still near my God, And thou, my God, be near my Heart.
- 2 I was not born for Earth and Sin, Nor can I live on Things so vile; Yet I would stay my Father's Time, And Hope and wait for Heav'n a while.
- Then, dearest Lord, in thine Embrace Let me resign my fleeting Breath, And, with a Smile upon my Face, Pass the important Hour of Death.

CXVIII.

CXVIII. The Priesthood of Christ.

BLood has a Voice to pierce the Skies, Revenge, the Blood of Abel cries: But the dear Stream, when Christ was slain, Speaks Peace as loud from ev'ry Vein.

2 Pardon and Peace from God on high; Behold, he lays his Vengeance by; And Rebels that deferve his Sword, Become the Pav'rites of the Lord.

3 To Jesus let our Praises rise, Who gave his Life a Sacrifice; Now he appears before his God, And, for our Pardon, pleads his Blood.

CXIX. The Holy Scriptures.

Aden with Guilt, and full of Fears,
I fly to thee, my Lord,
And not a Glimpse of Hope appears,
But in thy written Word.

2 The Volume of my Father's Grace Does all my Griefs affwage; Here I behold my Saviour's Face Aimoit in ev'ry Page.

[3 This is the Field where hidden lies The Pearl of Price unknown, That Merchant is divinely wife, Who makes the Pearl his own.

4 Here

4 Here consecrated Water flows,
To quench my Thirst of Sin;
Here the fair Tree of Knowledge grows,
Nor Danger dwells therein.

5 This is the Judge that ends the Strife Where Wit and Reason fail; My Guide to everlasting Life, Thro' all this gloomy Vale.

6 Oh, may the Counfels, mighty God, My roving Feet Command; Nor I forfake the happy Road That leads to thy Right Hand.

CXX. The Law and Gospel joined in Scripture.

THE Lord declares his Will, And keeps the World in Awe; Amidst the Smoke on Sinat's Hill, Breaks out his fiery Law.

2 The Lord reveals his Face, And, fmiling from Above, Sends down the Gospel of his Grace, Th' Epistles of his Love.

3 These sacred Words impart
Our Maker's just Commands;
The Pity of his melting Heart,
And Vengeance of his Hands.

[4 Hence we awake our Fear, We draw our Comfort hence;

The

The Arms of Grace are treasur'd here, And Armour of Defence.

5 We learn Christ crucify'd, And here behold his Blood; All Arts and Knowledges beside

Will do us little Good.]

6 We read the heav'nly Word,

We take the offer'd Grace, Obey the Statutes of the Lord, And trust his Promises.

7 In vain shall Satau rage
Against a Book divine,
Where Wrath and Lightning guards the Page,
Where Beams of Mercy shine.

CXXI. The Law and Gospel distinguished.

THE Law commands, and makes us know What Duties to our God we owe; But 'tis the Gospel must reveal Where lies our Strength to do his Will.

2 The Law discovers Guilt and Sin,
And shews how vile our Hearts have been:
Only the Gospel can express
Forgiving Love, and cleansing Grace.
2 What Curses doth the Law denounce

3 What Curses doth the Law denounce Against the Man that fails but once? But, in the Gospel, Christ appears Pard'ning the Guilt of num'rous Years.

4 My

4 My Soul, no more attempt to draw
Thy Life and Comfort from the Law;
Fly to the Hope the Gospel gives:
The Man that trusts the Promise, lives.

CXXII. Retirement and Meditation.

- MY God, permit me not to be A Stranger to myfelf and Thee; Amidst a thousand Thoughts I rove, Forgetful of my highest Love.
- 2 Why should my Passions mix with Earth, And thus debase my heavinly Birth? Why should I cleave to things below, And let my God, my Saviour, go?
- 3 Call me away from Flesh and Sense, One Sov'reign Word can draw me thence; I would obey the Voice divine, And all interior Joys refign.
- 4 Be Earth, with all her Scenes, withdrawn;
 Let Noise and Vanity be gone:
 In secret Silence of the Mina,
 My Heav'n, and there my God, I find.

CXXIII. The Benefit of publick Or-

A Way from ev'ry mortal Care,

Away from Earth our Souls retreat;

We leave this worthless World afar,

And wait and worship near thy Seat.

2 Lord,

- 2 Lord, in the Temple of thy Grace
 We see thy Feet, and we adore;
 We gaze upon thy lovely Face,
 And learn the Wonders of thy Pow'r.
- While here our various Wants we mourn, United groans ascend on high; And Prayer bears a quick Return Of Blessings in Variety.
- [4 If Saran rage, and Sin grow strong, Here we receive some chearing Word; We gird the Gospel-Armour on, To fight the Battels of the Lord.
- Or if our Spirit faint and dies (Our Conscience gall'd with inward Strings) Here doth the righteous Sun arise With healing Beams beneath his Wings.]
- Father! my Soul would still abide Within thy Tempel, near thy Side: But if my Feet must hence depart, Still keep thy Dwelling in my Heart.

CXXIV. Moses, AARON, and Joshua.

- T IS not the Law of Ten Commands
 On holy Strai given,
 Or sent to Men by Moses Hands,
 Can bring us safe to Heav'n.
- 2 Tis not the Blood which Aaron spilt, Nor smoke of sweetest Smell,

Can buy a Pardon for our Guilt, Or fave our Souls from Hell,

Aaron the Priest refigns his Breath, At God's immediate Will; And in the Defart yields to Death, Upon th' appointed Hill.

4. And thus on Fordan's yonder Side The Tribes of Hrael stand; While Moses bow'd his Head and dy'd Short of the promis'd Land.

5 Isr'el, rejoice, now * Joshua leads, He'll bring your Tribes to rest; So far the Saviour's Name exceeds The Ruler and the Priest

CXXV. Faith and Repentance, Unbelief and Impenitence.

- IFE and immortal Joys are giv'n
 To Souls that mourn the Sins they've done; Children of Wrath made Heirs of Heaven. By Faith in God's Eternal Son.
- 2 Woe to the Wretch that never felt The inward Pangs of pious Grief, But adds to all his crying Guilt The stubborn Sin of Unbelief.
- 3 The Law condemns the Rebel dead, Under the Wrath of God he lies;

Joshua the same with Jesus, and signifies a Saviour.

He seals the Curse on his own Head, And with a double Vengance dies.

CXXVI. God glarified in the Gospel.

- THE Lord, descending from above, Invites his Children near; While Pow'r and truth, and boundless Love Display their Glories here.
- 2 Here, in thy Gospel's wond'rous Frame, Fresh Wisdom we pursue; A thousand Angels learn thy Name, Beyond whate'er they knew.
- 3 Thy Name is writ in fairest Lines, Thy Wonders here we trace; Wisdom thro' all the Myst'ry shines, And shines in Jesus' Face.
- 4 The Law its best Obedience owes
 To our incarnate God;
 And thy revenging Justice shows
 Its Honours in his Blood.
- 5 But still the Lustre of thy Grace Our warmer Thoughts employs, Gilds the whole Scene with brighter Rays, And more exalts our Joys.
- CXXVII, Circumcifion and Baptism,

(Written only for those who practise the Baptism of Infants).

Thus did the Sons of Abrah'm pass Under the bloody Seal of Grace; M 2

The

The young Disciples bore the Yoke, 'Till Christ the painful Bondage broke.

2 By milder Ways doth Jesus prove His Father's Cov'nant, and his Love; He seals to Saints his glorious Grace, And not forbids their Infant-Race.

Their Seed is sprinkled with his Blood, Their Children set apart for God; His Spirit on their Off-spring shed, Like Water pour'd upon the Head.

4 Let ev'ry Saint with chearful Voice In this large Covenant rejoyce; Young Children in their early Days Shall give the God of Abrah'm Praise.

CXXVIII. Corrupt Nature from Adam.

BLess'd with the Joys of Innocence
Adam, our Father Rood,
'Till he debas'd his Soul to Sense,
And eat th' unlawful Food.

Now we are born a fenfual Race,
To finful Joys inclin'd;
Reason has lost its native Place,
And Flesh inflaves the Mind,

While Ploth, and Sente, and Pattions reigns.
Sin is the fweetaft Good:
We fancy Musick in our Chains,

We fancy Musick in our Chair And so forget the Load,

i Great

4 Great God! renew our ruin'd Frame, Our broken Pow'rs restore, Inspire us with a heav'nly Flame, And Flesh shall reign no more.

5 Eternal Spirit! write thy Law
Upon our inward Parts,
And let the second Adam draw
His Image on our Hearts.

CXXIX. We walk by Faith, not by Sight.

- TIS by the Faith of Joys to come
 We walk thro' Defarts dark as Night,
 'Till we arrive at Heav'n our Home,
 Faith is our Guide, and Faith our Light.
- 2 The Want of Sight she well supplies, She makes the Pearly Gates appear; Far into distant Worlds she pries, And brings eternal Glories near.
- 3 Chearful we tread the Defart thro', While Faith inspires a heav'nly Ray, Tho' Lions roar, and Tempest blow, And Rocks and Dangers fill the Way.
- 4 So Abrah'm, by divine Command, Left his own House to walk with God; His Faith beheld the promis'd Land, And fir'd his Zeal along the Road.

CXXX. The New Creation.

- A Ttend, while God's exalted Son
 Doth his own Glories shew:
 Behold, I sit upon my Throne,
 Creating all Things now,
- 2 Nature and Sin are pass'd away, And the old Adam dies; My Hands a new Foundation lag See the new World arise.
- 3 I'll be a Sum of Righticusness To the new Heavins I make; None but the Newborn Heirs of Grass, My Glories shall partake.
- 4 Mighty Redeemer! fet me free
 From my old State of Sin;
 Oh, make my Soul alive to thee,
 Create new Pow'rs within,
- 5 Renew mine Eyes, and form mine Ears, And mould my Heart afresh; Give me new Passions, Joys, and Fears, And turn the Stone to Flesh.
- Far from the Regions of the Dead,
 From Sin, and Earth, and Hell;
 In the new World that Grace has made,
 I would for ever dwell.

CXXXI. The Excellency of the Christian Religion.

- I ET everlasting Glories crown
 Thy Head, my Saviour and my Lord;
 Thy Hands have brought Salvation down,
 And writ the Blessings in thy Word.
- [2 What if we trace the Globe around, And fearch from Britain to Japan. There shall be no Religion found So just to God, so safe for Man.]
- In vain the trembling Conscience seeks Some solid Ground to rest upon; With long Despair the Spirit breaks, "Till we apply to Christ alone.
- 4 How well thy bleffed Truths agree!
 How wife and holy thy Commands!
 Thy Promifes, how firm they be!
 How firm our Hope and Comfort stands!
- [5 Nor the feign'd Fields of Heath'nish Bliss Could raise such Pleasures in the Mind; Nor does the Turkish Paradise Pretend to Joys so well refin'd.]
- 6 Should all the Forms that Men devise Assault my Faith with treach'rous Art, I'd call them Vanity and Lies, And bind the Gospel to my Heart.

CXXXII. The Offices of Christ.

- WE bless the Prophet of the Lord, That comes with truth and Grace; Jesus, thy Spirit and thy Word Shall lead us in thy Ways,
- 2 We rev'rence our High-Priest above, Who offer'd up his Blood; And lives to carry on his Love, By pleading with our God.
- We Honour our exalted King;
 How fweet are his Commands!
 He guards our Souls from Hell and Sin,
 By His Almighty Hands.
- 4 Hojauna to his glorious Name, Who faves by different Ways; His Mercies lay a fov'reign Claim To our immortal Praise.

CXXXIII. The Oparations of the Holy Spirit.

- E Ternal Spirit! we confess,
 And fing the Wonders of thy Grace;
 Thy Pow'r conveys our Bleffings down
 From God the Father and the Son.
- 2 Inlighten'd by thine heav'nly Ray, Our Shades and Darkness turn to Day; Thine inward Teachings make us know Our Danger, and our Resuge too.

3 Thy

3 Thy Pow'r and Glory works within, And breaks the Chains of reigning Sin; Doth our imperious Lusts subdue, And forms our wretched Hearts anew.

4 The Troubled Conscience knows thy Voice, Thy chearing Words awake our Joys; Thy Words allay the Stormy Wind, And calm the Surges of the Mind.

CXXXIV. Circumcifion abolished.

THE Promise was divinely free, Extensive was the Grace; I will the God of Abrah'm be, And of his num'rous Race.

2 He said, and with a bloody Seal Confirm'd the Words he spoke; Long did the Sons of Abrah'm seel The sharp and painful Yoke.

3 'Till God's own Son, descending low, Gave his own Flesh to Bleed; And Gentiles taste the Blessings now, From the hard Bondage freed.

4 The God of Abrah'm claims our Praise,
His Promises endure;

And Christ the Lord, in gentler Ways, Makes the Salvation sure.

CXXXV. Types and Prophecies of Christ.

Behold the Woman's promis'd Seed, Behold the Great Messab come; Behold the Prophets all agreed To give him the superior Room.

Abra'm the Saint rejoye'd of old When Visions of the Lord he saw; Moses, the Man of God, foretold This great fulfiller of his Law

The Types bore Witness to his Name, Obtain'd their chief Design and ceas'd; The Incense, and the bleeding Lamb. The Ark, the Altar, and the Prices.

4 Predictions in abundance meet, To join their Bleffings on his Head; fefus, we worship at thy Feet, And Nations own the promis'd Seed.

CXXXVI. Miracles at the Birth of Christ.

THE King of Glory sends his Son
To make his Entrance on this Earth;
Behold, the Midnight bright as Noon,
And heav'nly Hosts declare his Birth!
About the young Redeemer's Head

What Wonders and what Glories meet!

An

An unknown Star arose, and led The Eastern Sages to his Feet,

- 3 Simeon and Anna both conspire
 The Infant Saviour to proclaim;
 Inward they selt the facred Fire,
 And bless'd the Babe, and own'd his Name.
- 4 Let Jews and Greeks blaspheme aloud, And treat the holy Child with Scorn; Our Souls adore th' eternal God Who condescended to be born.

CXXXVII. Miraclesinthe Life, Death, and Refurrection of Christ.

- BEhold, the Blind their Sight receive;
 Behold, the Dead awake, and live!
 The Dumb fpeak Wonders! and the Lame
 Leap like the Hart, and bless his Name,
- 2 Thus doth th' Eternal Spirit own And feal the Mission of his Son; The Father vindicates his Cause, While He hangs bleeding on the Cross
- 3 He dies; the Heav'ns in Mourning flood; He rifes, and appears a God: Behold the Lord afcending high, No more to bleed, no more to die.
- 4 Hence and for ever from my Heart
 I bid my Doubts and Fears depart;
 And to those Hands my Soul resign,
 Which bear Credentials so divine

CXXXVIII. The Power of the Gospel.

- This is the Word of truth and Love, Sent to the Nations from above; Jehovah here resolves to shew What his Almighty Grace can do.
- This Remedy did Wisdom find,
 To heal Diseases of the Mind;
 This sov'reign Balm, whose Virtues can Restore the ruin'd Creature, Man.
- 3 The Gospel bids the Dead revive, Sinners obey the Voice, and live of Dry Bones are rais'd, and cloath'd asresh, And Hearts of Stone are turn'd to Flesh.
- [4 Where Satan reign'd in Shades of Night, The Gospel strikes a heav'nly Light; Our Lusts its wond'rous Pow'r controuls And calms the Rage of angry Souls.]
- [5 Lions and Beafts of favage Name Put on the Nature of the Lamb; While the wide World effects it strange, Gaze, and admire, and hate the Change.]
- 6 May but this Grace my Soul renew, Let Sinners gaze and hate me to; The World that faves me does engage A fure Defence from all their Rage.

CXXXIX.

CXXXIX. The Example of Christ.

- MY dear Redeemer, and my Lord, I read my Duty in thy word; But in thy Life the Law appears, Drawn out in living Characters.
- 2 Such was thy Truth, and fuch thy Zeal, Such Defrence to thy Father's Will, Such Love, and Meekness so divine, I would transcribe, and make them mine.
- 3 Cold Mountains, and the Midnight Air, Witness'd the Fervour of thy Pray'r; The Desart thy Temptations knew, Thy Conslict, and thy Vict'ry too.
 4 Be thou my Pattern; make me bear More of thy gracious Image here; Then God, the Judge, shall own my Name Amongst the Foll'wers of the Lamb.

CXL. The Examples of Christ and the Saints.

- I G Ive me the Wings of Faith, to rife
 Within the Veil, and fee
 The Saints above, how great their Joya,
 How bright their Glories be.
- 2 Once they were mourning here below, And wet their Couch with Tears; They wrestle hard, as we do now, With Sins, and Doubts, and Fears.

I ask them whence their Vict'ry came?
They, with united Breath,
Ascribe their Conquest to the Lamb;
Their Triumph, to his Death.

They mark'd the Footsteps that he trod,
(His Zeal inspir'd their Breast):
And, following their incarnate God

And, following their incarnate God, Possess the promis'd Rest.

5 Our glorious Leader claims our Praise, For his own Pattern giv'n, While the long Croud of Witnesses, Shew the same Path to Heav'n.

CXLI. Faith affifted by Sense; or, Preaching, Baptism, and the Lord's Supper.

MY Saviour God, my Sov'reign Prince, Reigns far above the Skies! But brings his Graces down to Sense And helps my Faith to rife.

2 My Eyes and Ears shall bless his Name, They read and hear his Word: My Touch and Taste shall do the same,

When they receive the Lord.

Baptismal Water is design'd
To seal his cleansing Grace;
While at his Feast of Bread and Wine
He gives his Saints a Place,

4 But

- 4 But not the Waters of a Flood
 Can make my Flesh so clean,
 As by his Spirit and his Blood
 He'll wash my Soul from Sin.
- 5 Not choicest Meats, or noblest Wines So much my Heart refresh, As when my Faith goes thro' the Signs, And Feeds upon his Flesh.
- 6 I Love the Lord, that stoops so low,
 To give his Word a Seal:
 But the rich Grace his Hands bestow,
 Exceeds the Figures still.

CXLII. Faith in Christ our Sacrifice.

- On Jewish Altars slain,
 Could give the guilty Conscience Peace,
 Or wash away the Stain.
- But Christ, the Heav'nly Lamb, Takes all our Sins away;
 A Sacrifice of nobler Name, And richer Blood then they.
- 3 My Faith would lay her Hand On that dear Head of thine, While like a Penitent I stand, And there confess my Sin.
 - 4 my Soul looks back to fee
 The Burdens thou didft bear,

When

When hanging on the curfed Tree, And hopes her Guilt was there.

5 Believing, we rejoice
To fee the Curfe remove;
We blefs the Lamb with chearful Voice,
And fing his bleeding Love.

CXLIII. Flesh and Spirit.

- WHat different Powers of Grace and Sin Attend our mortal State?
 I hate the Thoughts that work within, And do the works I hate.
- Now I complain, and groan, and die, While Sin and Satan reign: Now raife my Songs of Triumph high, For Grace prevails again.
- 3 So Darkness Aruggles with the Light,
 "Till perfect Day arise;
 Water and Fire maintain the Fight
 Until the weaker dies.
- 4 Thus will the Flesh and Spirit strive,
 And vex and break my Peace;
 But I shall quit this mortal Life,
 And Sin for ever cease.

CXLIV. The Effusion of the Spirit; or, The Success of the Gospel.

Reat was the Day, the Joy was great,
When the divine Disciples met;
Whilst on their Heads the Spirit came,
And sate like Tongues of cloven Flame.

2 What Gifts, what Miracles he gave!
And Pow'r to give, and Pow'r to fave!
Furnish'd their Tongues with wond'rous Words,
Inflead of shields, and Spears and Swords.

Thus arm'd, he fent the Champions forth, From East to West, from South to North: Go, and assert your Saviour's Cause; Go, spread the Mist'ry of his Cross.

4 These Weapons of the holy War.
Of what Almighty Force they are,
To make our stubborn Passions bow,
And lay the proudest Rebel low!

Nations, the learned and the rude; Are by these heavinly Arms subdu'd; While Saran rages at his Loss, And hates the Doctrine of the Cross.

Great King of Grace, my Heart subdue;
I would be led in Triumph too,
A willing Captive to my Lord,
And fing the Vict'ries of his Word,

CXLV. Sight through a Glass, and Face to Face,

- Love the Windows of thy Grace Thro' which my Lord is feen, And long to meet my Savour's Face, Without a Glass between.
- 2 Oh, that the happy Hour were come,
 To change my Faith to Sight!
 I shall behold my Lord at Home
 In a diviner Light.
- 3 Haste, my beloved, and remove
 These interposing Days;
 Then shall my Passions all be Love,
 And all my Pow'rs be Praise.

CXLVI. The Vanity of Creatures; or, No Rest on Earth.

- MAN has a Soule of vast Defires, He burns within with restless Fires Tost to and fro, his Passions fly From Vanity to Vanity.
- 2 In vain on Earth we hope to find Some folid Good to fill the Mind: We try new Pleasures; but we feel The inward Thirst and Torment still.
- 3 So when a raging Fever burns, He shift from Side to Side by Turns;

And

And 'tis a poor Relief we gain, To change the Place, but keep the Pain.

4 Great God! Subdue this vicious Thirst, This Love to Vanity and Dust; Cure the vile Fever of the Mind, And seed our Souls with Joys resin'd.

CXLVII. The Creation of the World. Gen. i.

Now let a spacious World arise,
Said the Creator-Lord:
At once th' obedient Earth and Skies
Rose at his Sov'reign Word.

[2 Dark was the Deep; the Waters lay
Confus'd and drown'd the Land:
He call'd the Light; the new-born Day
Attends on his Command.

He bids the Clouds afcend on high; The Clouds afcend, and bear A watry Treasure to the Sky, And float on softer Air.

4 The liquid Element below
Was gather'd by his Hand;
The rolling Seas together flow,
And leave the folid Land.

With Herbs and Plants (a flow'ry Birth)
The naked Globe he crown'd,
E're there was Rain to blefs the Earth,
Or Sun to warm the Ground.

The Moon and Stars in Order rife,

To Mark out Months and Years.

7 Out of the Deep th' Almighty King Did vital Beings frame,

The painted Fowls of ev'ry Wing,

And Fish of every Name.]

8 He gave the Lion and the worm At once their wond rous Birth,

And gazing Beafts of various Form Role From the teeming Earth.

- 9 Adam was fram'd of equal Clay, The' Sov'reign of the rest, Design'd for nobler Ends than they: With God's own Image bles'd.
- The young Creation flood;
 He saw the Building from on high,
 His Word pronounc'd it good.
- Thy Praise shall fill my Tongue:
 But the new World of Grace demands
 A more exalted Song.

4 But if Immanuel's Face appear,
My Hope, my Joy begins;
His Name forbids my stavish Fear,
His Grace removes my Sins.

Mhile Jews on their own Law rely,
And Greeks of Wisdom boass,
I love th' Incarnate Mystery,
And there I fix my Trust.

CXLIX. Honour to Magistrates; or, Government from God.

Ternal Sov'reign of the Sky.

And Lord of all below,

We Mortals to thy Majesty

Our first Obedience owe.

Our Souls adore thy Throne supreme, And hess thy Providence, For Magistrates of meaner Name, Our Glory and Defence.

[3 The Crowns of British Princes shine With Rays above the rest,

Where

Where Laws and Liberties combine To make the Nation blest.]

4 Kingdoms on firm Foundations stand,
While Virtue finds Reward;
And Sinners perish from the Land,
By Justice and the Sword.

5 Let Cesar's Due be ever paid
To Cesar and his Throne;
But Consciences and Souls were made
To be the Lord's alone.

CL. The Deceitfulness of Sin.

- To practife on the Mind;
 With flatt'ring Looks she tempts our Hearts,
 But leaves a Sting behind.
 - 2 With Names of Virtue she decieves The Aged and the Young: And while the heedless Wretch believes, She makes his Fetters strong
 - 3 She pleads for all the Joys she brings.
 And gives a fair Pretence;
 But cheats the Soul of heav'nly Things,
 And chairs it down to Sense.
 - 4 So on a Tree divinely fair

 Our Mother took the Poison there,
 And tainted all her Blood.

CLI. Prophecy and Inspiration.

T Was by an Order from the Lord, The ancient Prophets spoke his Word; His Spirit did their Tongues inspire, And warm'd their Hearts with heav'nly Fire

2 The Works and Wonders which they wrought, Confirm'd the Messages they brought; The Prophet's Pen succeeds his Breath, To save the holy words from Death:

3 Great God! mine Eyes with Pleasure look On the dear Volume of thy Book; There my Redeemer's Face I see, And read his Name, who dy'd for me.

4 Let the false Raptures of the Mind Be lost and vanish in the Wind; Here I can fix my Hope secure; This is thy Word, and must endure.

CLIII. The Distemper, Folly and Madness of Sin.

- 2 Our Beauty and our Strength are fled, And we draw near to Death; But Christ the Lord recalls the Dead With his Almighty Breath.

6 Thus he supports his cruel Throne
By Mischief and Deceit;
And drags the Sons of Adam down
To Darkness and the Pit.

7 Almighty God, cut short his Pow'r, Let him in darkness dwell; And, that he vex the Earth no more, Confine him down to Hell.

CLVII. The same,

And threatens to destroy;

He worries whom he can't devour,

With a malicious Joy.

Ye Sons of God, oppose his Rage, Refist, and he'll be gone; Thus did our dearest Lord engage And vanquish him alone.

3 Now he appears almost Divine, Like Innocence and Love; But the old Serpent lurks within, When he assumes the Dove.

4 Fly from the false Deceiver's Tongue,
Ye Sons of Adam, fly;
Our Parents found the Snare too strong,
Nor should the Children try.

CLVIII. Few faved: or, The almost Christian, the Hypocrite, and Apostate.

- BRoad is the Road that leads to Death, And Thousands walk together there; But Wisdom shews a narrower Path. With here and there a Traveller.
- 2 Deny thy Self, and take thy Cross, Is the Redeemer's great Command! Nuture must count her Gold but Dross. If she would gain this heav'nly Land.
 - 3 The fearful Soul that tries and faints, And walks the ways of God no more, Is but esteem'd almost a Saint, And makes his own Destruction sure.
- Lord let not all my Hopes be vain, Create my Heart intirely new; Which Hypocrites could ne'er attain, Which false Apostrates never knew.

CLIX. An Unconverted State; or, Converting Grace,

How vile is our degen'rate Race,
And our first Father's Name.]

2 From Adam flows our tainted Blood, The Poison reigns within, Makes us averse to all that's Good, And willing Slaves to Sin.

[3 Daily we brake thy holy Laws,
And then reject thy Grace?
Engag'd in the old Serpent's Cause,
Against our Maker's Face.]

And love the Distance well;
With Hast we run the dang'rous Road,
That leads to Death and Hell.

5 And can such Rebels be restor'd!
Such Natures made divine!
Let Sinners see thy Glory, Lord,
And seel this Pow'r of thine.

Who his own Spirit fends
To bring rebellious Strangers nigh,
And turn his Foes to Friends.

CLX. Custom in Sin.

LET the wild Leopards of the Wood
Put off the Spots that Nature gives?
Then may the Wicked turn to God,
And change their Tempers, and their Lives.

The Dead as well may leave their Graves; As old Transgressors-cease to sin.

- 4 Great God! I own thy Pow'r Divine,
 That works to change this Heart of mine;
 I would be form'd anew, and blefs
 The Wonders of Creating Grace.

CLXI. Christian Virtues; or, The Difficulty of Conversion.

- That leads to Joys on high;
 'Tis but a few that find the Gate,
 While Crowds mistake, and die.
- 2 Beloved Self must be deny'd,
 The Mind and Will renew'd,
 Passion suppress'd, and Passence try'd,
 And vain defires subdu'd.
- [3 Flesh is a dang'rous Foe to Grace,
 Where it prevails and rules;
 Flesh must be humbled, Pride abas'd,
 Lest they destroy our Souls.

CLXII. Meditation of Heaven; or, The Joy of Faith.

- MY Thoughts furmount these lower Skies,
 And look within the Veil;
 There Springs of endless Pleasure rise,
 The Waters never fail.

 The bleffed Three in One;
 And firong Affections fix my Sight
 On God's incarnate Son.

Our Sins attempt to reign;

CLXIV. The End of the World.

WHY should this Earth delight us so?
Why should we six our Eyes
On these low Grounds where Sorrows grow,
And ev'ry Pleasure dies?

2 While Time his sharpest Teeth prepares
Our Comforts to devour,
There is a Land above the Stars.

There is a Land above the Stars, And Joys above his Pow'r.

3 Nature shall be diffoly'd and die, The Sun must end his Race, The Earth and Sea for ever fly Before my Saviour's Face.

When will that glorious Morning rife?

When the last Trumpet found,

And call the Nations to the Skies,

From underneath the Ground?

 My holy Fear, my humble Joy;
 My Lips in Songs of Honour bring
 Their Tribute to th' Eternal King.
- [2 Earth and the Stars, and Worlds unknown, Depend precarious on his Throne; All Nature hangs upon his Word, And Grace and Glory own their Lord.]
- [3 His Sov'reign Pow'r what Mortal knows? If he command, who dares oppose? With Strength he girds himself around. And treads the Rebels to the Ground.]
- [4 Who shall pretend to teach him Skill? Or guide the Counsels of his Will? His Wisdom, like a Sea divine, Flows deep and high beyond our Line.]
- [5 His Name is Holy, and his Eye Burns with immortal Jealoufy; He hates the Sons of Pride, and sheds His firy Vengeance on their Heads.]

 His Glory shines with Beams so bright,
 No mortal can sustain the Sight.
- 2 His Terrors keep the World in awe, His Justice guards his holy Law, His Love reveals a smiling Face, His Truth and Promise seal the Grace.

His Throne is built on high;
The Garments he affumes,

His Glories shine
With Beams so bright,
No mortal Eye
Can bear the Sight.

 Keep the wide World in Awe;
 His Wrath and Justice stand
 To guard his holy Law;
 And where his Love

 His Truth confirms
 And seals the Grace.
- 3 Thro' all his ancient Works
 Surprizing Wisdom shines,
 Confounds the Pow'rs of Hell.
 And breaks their curs'd Designs:

 And shall fulfil
 His Great Decrees,
 His Sov'reign Will.

 Of Glory condescend?

And

And will he write his Name,
My Father and my Friend?
I love his Name,
I love his Word;
Join all my Pow'rs,
And praise the Lord.

Prepared for the Holy Ordinance of the LORD'S SUPPER.

I. The Lord's Supper Instituted.
1 Cor. xi. 23, &c.

WAS on that dark, that doleful Night,
When Pow'rs of Earth and Hell arose
Against the Son of God's Delight,
And Friends betray'd him to his Foes:

2 Bc-

283

Before the mournful Scene began,
He took the Bread, and bless'd, and brake:
What Love thro' all his Actions ran!
What wondrous Words of Grace he spake!

3 This is my Body, broke for Sin, Receive and eat the living Food: Then took the Cup, and bless'd the Wine; 'Is the New Cov'nant in my Blood.

[4 For us his Flesh with Nails was torn, He bore the Scourge, he felt the Thorn; And Justice pour'd upon his Head Its heavy Vengeance, in our Stead.

5 For us his vital Blood was fpilt, To buy the Pardon of our Guilt; When, for black Crimes of biggest Size, He gave his Soul a Sacrifice.]

6 Do this (he cry'd) 'till Time shall end, In Mem'ry of your dying Friend; Meet at my Table and record The Love of your departed Lord.

[7 Jesus, thy Feast we celebrate, We shew thy Death, we sing thy Name, 'Till thou return, and we shall eat The Marriage Supper of the Lamb.] II. Communion with Christ, and with Saints. 1 Cor. x. 16, 17.

To meet around his Board;
Here pardon'd Rebels sit and hold
Communion with their Lord.

2 For Food he gives his Flesh; He bids us drink his Blood: Amazing Favour! matchless Grace Of our descending God!]

3 This holy Bread and Wine Maintains our fainting Breath, By Union with our living Lord, And Int'rest in his Death.

Christ and his Members one;

We the young Children of his Love,

And he the first-born Son.

of the same broken Bread;
One Body hath its sev'ral Limbs,
But Jesus is the Head.

6 Let all our Powr's be join'd, His glorious Name to raise; Pleasure and Love fill ev'ry Mind, And ev'ry Voice be Praise,

- III. The New Testament in the Blood of Christ; or, The New Covenant sealed.
- THE Promise of my Father's Love Shall stand for ever good: He said; and gave his Soul to Death, And seal'd the Grace with Blood.
- 2 To this dear Cov'nant of thy Word I fet my worthless Name; I feal th' Engagment to my Lord,

And make my humble Claim.

- 3 The Light, and Strength, and pard'ning Grace, And Glory, shall be mine; My Life and Soul, my Heart and Plesh, And all my Pow'rs, are thine.
- 4 I call that Legacy my own
 Which Jefus did bequeath;
 "Twas purchas'd with a dying Groan,
 And ratify'd in Death.
 - 5 Sweet is the Mem'ry of his Name Who bless'd us in his Will, And to his Testament of Love Made his own Life the Seal.
- IV, Christ's dying Love; or Our Pardon bought at a dear Price.

Our Mis'ry reach'd his heav'nly Mind, And Pity brought him down.

[2 When Justice, by our Sins provok'd, Drew forth its dreadful Sword.

He gave his Soul up to the Stroke, Without a murm'ring Word.]

[3 He funk beneath our heavy Woes, To raise us to his Throne: There's ne'er a Guift his Hand bestows, But cost his Heart a Groan.]

4 This was Compassion like a God, That when the Saviour knew The Price of Pardon was his Blood, His Pity ne'er withdrew.

5 Now tho' he reigns exalted high, His Love is still as great:

Well he remembers Calvary, Nor lets his Saints forget,

16 Here we behold his Bowels roll As kind as when he dy'd; And see the Sorrows of his Soul

Bleed thro' his wounded Side. 1

[7 Here we receive repeated Seals Of Jestus' dying Love: Hard is the Wretch that never feels

One foft Affection move.

V. Christ the Bread of Life. John vi. ver. 31, 35, 39.

LET us adore th' Eternal Word,
'Tis He our Souls hath fed:
Thou art our living Stream, O Lord,
And thou th' immortal Bread.

[2 The Manna came from lower Skies, But Jesus from above, Where the fresh Springs of Pleasure rise, And Rivers slow with Love.

3 The Jews the Fathers dy'd at last, Who eat that heav'nly Bread; But these Provisions which we taste, Can raise us from the Dead.]

- Bless'd be the Lord, that gives his Flesh To nourish dying Men; And often spreads his Table fresh, Lest we should faint again.
- our Souls shall draw their heav'nly Breath,
 Whilst Jesus finds Supplies;
 Nor shall our Graces fink to Death,
 For Jesus never dies.
- Daily our mortal Flesh decays, But Christ our Life shall come; His unresisted Pow'r shall raise Our Bodies from the Tomb.]

- VI. The Memorial of our abscent Lord. John xvi. 16. Luke xxii. 19. John xiv. 3.
- JESUS is gone above the Skies,
 Where our weakSenfes reach him not;
 And carnal Objects court our Eyes,
 To thrust our Saviour from our Thought.
- 2 He knows what wand'ring Mearts we have, Apt to forget his lovely Face; And, to refresh our Minds, he gave These kind Memorials of his Grace.
- 3 The Lord of Life this Table spread With his own Flesh, and dying Blood; We on the rich Provision seed, And taste the Wine and bless the God.
- 4 Let finful Sweets be all forgot,
 And Earth grow less in our Esteem;
 Christ and his Love fill ev'ry Thought,
 And Faith and Hope be fix'd on him.
- 5 While he is abscent from our Sight,
 'Tis to prepare our Souls a Place,
 That we may dwell in heav'nly Light.
 And live for ever near his Face.
- [6 Our Eyes look upwards to the Hills Whence our returning Lord shall come; We wait thy Chariots awful Wheels, To fetch our longing Spirits home.]

VII. Crucifixion to the World, by the Cross of Christ. Gal. vi. 14.

- When I survey the wond'rous Cross
 On which the Prince of Glory dy'd,
 My richest Gain I count but Loss,
 And pour Contempt on all my Pride,
- 2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, Save in the Death of Christ my God: All the vain Things that Charm me most, I Sacrifice them to his Blood.
- 3 See from his Head, his Hands, his Feet, Sorrow and Love flow mingled down! Did e'er such Love and Sorrow meet? Or Thorns compose so rich a Crown?
- [4 His dying Crimson, like a Robe, Spreads o'er his Body on the Tree; Then am I dead to all the Globe, And all the Globe is dead to me.]
- 5 Were the whole Realm of Nature mine. That were a Present far too small: Love so amazing, so divine, Demands my Soul, my Life, my All,

VIII. The Tree of Life.

[r COme, let us join a joyful Tune To our exalted Lord, Ye Saints on high around his Throne, And we around his Board.

While once upon this lower Ground
Weary and faint ye stood,
What dear Refreshment here ye found
From this immortal Food!

3 The Tree of Life, that near the Throne In Heav'ns high Garden grows, Laden with Grace, bends gently down Its ever-smiling Boughs.

[4 Hov'ring amongst the Leaves, there stands, The sweet Celestial Dove, And Jesus on the Branches hangs

The Banner of his Love.]

[5 'Tis a young Heav'n of strange Delight
While in his Shade we sit;
His Fruit is pleasing to the Sight,
And to the Taste as sweet.

6 New Life it spreads thro' dying Hearts, And chears the drooping Mind; Vigour and Joy the Juice imparts, Without a Sting behind.]

7 Now let the flaming Weapon stand, And guard all Eden's Trees: There's ne'er a Plant in all that Land That bears such Fruit as these.

Infinite Grace our Souls adore,
Whose wond'rous Hand has made
This living Branch of Sov'reign Pow'r
To raise and heal the Dead.

IX. The Spirit, the Water, and the Blood. 1 John v. 6.

To praise our God on high,
Who from his Bosom sent his Son,
To fetch us Strangers nigh.

2 Nor let our Voices cease To fing the Saviour's Name; Jesus, th' Embassador of Peace, How chearfully he came!

3 It cost him Cries and Tears
To bring us near to God;
Great was our Debt, and he appears
To make the Payment Good.]

[4 My Saviour's pierced Side Pour'd out a double Plood; By Water we are purify'd, And pardon'd by the Blood.

5 Infinite was our Guilt,
But He, our Priest, atones
On the cold Ground his Life was spilt,
And offer'd with his Groans.

6 Look up, my Soul, to Him Whose Death was thy Desert, And humbly view the living Stream Flow from his breaking Heart,

7 There, on the curfed Tree, In dying Pangs he lies,

B.III.

Fulfills his Father's great Decree, And all our Wants supplies.

8 Thus the Redeemer came, By Water, and by Blood:

And when the Spirit speaks the same, We feel his Witness good.

9 While the Eternal Three Bear their Record above,

Here I believe He dy'd for me, And feal my Saviour's Love.

[10 Lord, cleanse my Soul from Sin, Nor let thy Grace depart; Great Comforter! abide within, And witness to my Heart.]

X. Christ Crucify'd; the Wifdom and Power of God.

- To fpread her Maker's Praise abroad;
 And ev'ry Labour of his Hands
 Shews something worthy of a God.
- 2 But in the Grace that rescu'd Man, His brightest Form of Glory shines; Here, on the Cross, 'tis fairest drawn In precious Blood, and Crimson Lines,
- [3 Here his whole Name appears complete;
 Nor Wit can guess, nor Reason prove,
 Which of the Letters best is writ,
 The Pow'r, the Wisdom, or the Love.]

 4 Here

 Where Grace and Vengeance strangely join,
 Piercing his Son with sharpest Smart,
 To make the purchas'd Pleasures mine.
- 5 O! the sweet Wonders of that Cross Where God the Saviour lov'd, and dy'd! Her noblest Life my Spirit draws From his-dear Wounds, and bleeding Side.
- 6 I would for ever speak his Name In Sounds to mortal Ears unknown, With Angels join to praise the Lamb, And worship at his Father's Throne.

 How heav'nly is the Place
 Where Jesus fpreads the facred Feast
 Of his redeeming Grace!

- The Fruits of Life o'erfpread the Board,
 The Cup o'erflows with heav'nly Love.
- Thine ancient Family, the Jews, Were first invited to the Feast: We humbly take what they refuse, And Gentil's thy Salvation taste.

- 6 It cost him Death, to save our Lives; To buy our Souls, it cost his own: And all the unknown Joys he gives, Were bought with Agonies unknown.
- 7 Our everlasting Love is due
 To Him that ransom'd Sinners lost;
 And pity'd Rebels, when he knew
 The vast Expence his Love would cost.]
- XIII. Divine Love making a Feast, and calling in the Guests. Luke xiv. 17. 22, 23.
 - With Christ within the Doors,
 While everlasting Love displays
 The choicest of her Stores!
 - 2 Here ev'ry Bowel of our God With foft Compaffion rolls; Here Peace and Pardon bought with Blood, is Food for dying Souls.
 - Join to admire the Feaft,

 Each

Each of us cry, with thankful Tongues, "Lord, Why was I a Guest?

4 "Why was I made to hear thy Voice,

"And enter while there's Room;
"When thousands make a wretched Choice,

" And rather starve than come "?]

5 'Twas the same Love that spread the Feast,
That sweetly forc'd us in;
Else we had still refus'd to taste,

And perish'd in our Sin,

[6 Pity the Nations, O our God, Constrain the Earth to come; Send thy victorious Word abroad, And bring the Strangers home.

7 We long to fee thy Churches full,
 That all the chosen Race
 May with one Voice and Heart, and Soul
 Sing thy redeeming Grace.

XIV. The Song of Simeon; Luke ii. 28, or, A Sight of Christ makes Death easy.

NOW have our Hearts embrac'd our God We would forget all earthly Charms, And wish to die, as Simeon wou'd With his young Saviour in his Arms,

2 Our Lips should learn that joyful Song, Were but our Hearts prepar'd like his;
"Our Souls still willing to be gone

" And, at thy Word, depart in Peace.

2 " Here

3 " Here we have feen thy Face, O Lord, "And view Salvation with our Eyes

" Tasted and felt the living Word,

" The Bread descending from the Skies.

"Thou hast prepar'd this dying Lamb, "Hast fet his Blood before our Face,

"To teach the Terrors of thy Name,
"And shew the Wonders of thy Grace.

5 " He is our Light, our Morning-Star
" Shall hine on Nations yet unknown;

" The Glory of thine Israel here,

"And Joy of Spirits near the Throne."

XV. Our Lord Jesus at his own Table.

THE Mem'ry of our dying Lord
Awakes a thankful Tongue:
How rich he fpread his Royal Board,
And bless'd the Food, and sung.

2 Happy the Men that eat this Bread, But double-blefs'd was he That gently bow'd his loving Head, And lean'd it, Lord, on Thee.

3 By Faith, the same Delights we taste

As that great Fav'rite did,

And sit and lean on Jesus' Breast,

And take the heav'nly Bread.]

4 Down from the Palace of the Skies.

Hither the King descends!

O 5 "Come,

" Come, my Beloved, eat (he cries)
" And drink Salvation, Friends.

5" My Flesh is Food and Physick too,
A Balm for all your Pains:

" And the red Streams of Pardon flow "From these my pierced Veins."]

6 Hosanna to his bounteous Love,
For such a Feast below!
And yet he feeds his Saints above
With nobler Blessings too.

[7 Come, the dear Day, the glorious Hour,
That brings our Souls to Rest!
Then we shall need these Types no more,
But dwell at th' heav'nly Feast.]

XVI. The Agonies of Christ.

Our Hearts no more repine;
Our Suffrings are not worth a Thought,
When, Lord, compar'd with thine.

2 In lively Figures here we fee The bleeding Prince of Love; Each of us hope, He dy'd for me, And then our Griefs remove.

[3 Our humble Faith here takes her Rife, While fitting round his Board; And back to Calvary she slies, To view her groaning Lord.

4 His Soul, what Agonies it felt When his own God withdrew;

And

And the large Load of all our Guilt.

Lay heavy on him too.
5 But the Divinity within

Supported him to bear:

Dying, He conquer'd Hell and Sin,
And made his Triumph there.]

6 Grace, Wisdom, Justice join'd and wrought The Wonders of that Day:

No mortal Tongue nor mortal Thought Can equal Thanks repay.

Our Hymns should sound like those above,
 Could we our Voices raise;
 Yet, Lord, our Hearts shall all be Love,
 And all our Lives be Praise;

XVII. Incomparable Food; or, The Flesh and Blood of Christ.

That Grace divine performs;
Th' Eternal God comes down, and bleeds,
To nourish dying Worms.

2 This Soul-reviving Wine,
Dear Saviour, 'tis thy Blood;
We thank that facred Flesh of thine,
For this immortal Food.]

3 The Banquet that we eat
Is made of heav'nly Things;
Earth hath no Dainties half so sweet
As our Redemer brings.

4.1

4 In vain had Adam fought, And fearch'd his Garden round; For there was no fuch bleffed Fruit In all the happy Ground.

'5 Th' Angelick Host above
Can never taste this Food;
They feast upon their Maker's Love,
But not a Saviour's Blood.

6 On us th' Almighty Lord
Bestows this matchless Grace,
And meets us with some chearing Word,
With Pleasure in his Face.

7 Come, all ye drooping Saints,
 And banquet with the King;
 This Wine will drown your fad Complaints,
 And tune your Voice to fing.

8 Salvation to the Name Of our adored Christ:

Thro' the wide Earth his grace proclaim, His Glory in the High'st.

XVIII. The same.

JESUS! we how before thy Feet! Thy Table is divinely flor'd; Thy facred Flesh our Souls have eat, 'Tis living Bread; we thank thee Lord!

2 And here we drink our Saviour's Blood; We thank thee, Lord; 'tis gen'rous Wine, Mingled with Love, the Fountain flow'd From that dear bleeding Heart of thine.

3 On.

- 3 On Earth is no fuch Sweetness found, For the Lamb's Flesh is heav'nly Food: In vain we search the Globe around For Bread so fine, or Wine so good.
- 4 Carnal Provisions can at best But chear the Heart, or warm the Head; But the rich Cordial that we taste, Gives Life Eternal to the Dead.
- 5 Joy to the Master of the Feast, His Name our Souls for ever bless; To God the King and God the Priest A loud Hosanna round the Place.

XIX. Glory in the Cross; or, Not ashamed of Christ Crucified.

- T thy Command, our dearest Lord, Here we attend thy dying Feast; Thy Blood, like Wine, adorns thy Board, And thine own Flesh feeds ev'ry Guest,
- 2 Our Faith adores thy bleeding Love, And trufts for Life in one that dy'd; We hope for heav'nly Crowns above, From a Redeemer Crucify'd.
- 3 Let the vain World pronounce it Shame, And fling their Scandals on the Cause; We come to boast our Saviour's Name, And make our Triumphs in his Cross.
- 4 With Joy we tell the scoffing Age, He that was dead has left his Tomb;

He lives above their utmost Rage, And we are waiting till he come.

XX. The Provisions for the Table of our Lord; or, I be Tree of Life, and River of Love.

LORD, we adore thy bounteous Hand,
And fing the folemn Feast
Where sweet celestial Dainties stand.
For ev'ry willing Guest.

[2 The Tree of Life adorns the Board with rich immortal Fruit, And ne'er an angry flaming Sword

To guard the Passage to't.

3 'The Cup stands grown'd with living Juice;

The Fountain flows above,

And runs down streaming, for our Use, In Rivulets of Love.

4 The Food's prepar'd by hea'vnly Art,
The Pleasure's well refin'd:

The Pleasure's well refin'd;
They spread new Lite thro ev'ry Heart,
And chear the drooping Mind.

5 Shout and proclaim the Saviour's Love, Ye Saints that tafte his Wine; Join with your Kindred Saints above, In loud Hofanna's join.

That gives fuch Joys as this;

Hosama! let it sound abroad,

And reach where Jesus is.

XXI.

- XXI. The Triumphal Feast for Christ Victory over Sin, and Death, and Hell.
- Come, let us lift our Voices high, High as our Joys arife, And join the Songs above the Sky, Where Pleafure never dies.
- 2 Jesus, the God that sought and bled, And conquer'd when he fell, That rose, and at his Chariot Wheels Drag'd all the Pow'rs of Hell]
- [3 Jesus the God invites us here, To this triumphal Feast, And brings immortal Blessings down For each redeemed Guest.]
- 4 The Lord! how glorious is his Face!
 How kind his Smiles appear!
 And, oh, what melting Words he fays
 To ev'ry humble Ear!
 - f "For you, the Children of my Love,
 "It was for you I dy'd;

"Behold my Hands, behold my Feet,
"And look into my Side.

"These are the Wounds for you I bore,

"The Tokens of my Pains,
"When I came down to free your Souls

" From Misery and Chains.

[7 "Justice unsheath'd its fi'ry Sword, "And plung'd it in my Heart;

Infin

B. III

" Infinite Pangs for you I bore,
" And most tormenting Smart.

8 "When Hell and all its spiteful Pow'rs
"Stood dreadful in my Way,

"To refcue those dear Lives of yours,

" I gave my own away.

"But while I bled, and gron'd, and dy'd,
"I ruin'd Satan's Throne;

" High on my Cross I hung, and spy'd "The Monner tumbling down

" Now you must triumph at my Feast,
" And tast my Flesh, my Blood,

" And live eternal Ages blefs'd, "For 'tis immortal Food."

II Victorious God! what can we pay For Favours fo divine?

We would devote our Hearts away

To be for ever thine.]

12 We give thee, Lord, our highest Praise,
The Tribute of our Tongues;
But Themes so infinite as these
Exceeds our noblest Songs,

XXII. The Compassion of a dying Christ,

OUR Spirits join t' adore the Lamb; Oh, that our feeble Lips could move In Strains immortal as his Name, And melting as his dying Love!

2 Was

- 2 Was ever equal Pity found?
 The Prince of Heav'n refigns his Breath,
 And pours his Life out on the Ground,
 To ransom guilty Worms from Death.
- [3 Rebels, we broke our Maker's Laws; He from the Threatning fet us free, Bore the full Vengeance on his Cross, And nail'd the Curses to the Tree.]
- [4 The Law proclaims no Terror now, And Sinai's Thunder roars no more; From all his Wounds new Bleffings flow, A Sea of Joy without a Shore.
 - 5 Here we have wash'd our deepest Stains, And heal'd our Wounds with heav'nly Blood: Bless'd Fountain! springing from the Veins Of Jesus our incarnate God.]
 - 6 In vain our mortal Voices strive
 To speak Compassion so divine:
 Had we a thousand Lives to give,
 A thousand Lives should all be thine.

XXIII. Grace and Glory by the Death of Christ.

[1 S Itting around our Father's Board, We raise our tuneful Breath; Our Faith beholds her dying Lord, And dooms our Sins to Death.] "We fee the Blood of Fesus shed,
Whence all our Pardons rise;
The Sinner views th' Atonement made,
And loves the Sacrifice.

Thy cruel Thorns, thy fhameful Crofs,
Procure us heav'nly Crowns:
Our highest Gain springs from thy Loss;

Our Healing, from thy Wounds.
4 Oh! 'tis impossible that we,
Who dwell in feeble Clay,
Should equal Suff'rings bear for Thee,
Or equal Thanks repay.

XXIV. Pardon and Strength from Christ.

TATHER, we wait to feel thy Grace,
To fee thy Glories shine;
The Lord will his own Table bless.
And make the Feast divine.

2 We touch, we taste the heav'nly Bread, We drink the facred Cup; With outward Forms our Sense is fed,

With outward Forms our Sense is sed Our Souls rejoice in Hope.

Of our forgiving God,
Drefs'd in the Garments of his Son,
And sprinkled with his Blood.

4 We shall be strong to run the Race, And climb the upper Sky;

Christ

Christ will provide our Souls with Grace, He bought a large Supply.

[5 Let us indulge a chearful Frame, For Joy becomes a Feast; We love the Mem'ry of his Name, More than the Wine we taste.]

Divine Glories, and Graces.

HOW are thy Glories here display'd Great God! how bright they shine, While, at thy Word, we break the Bread, And pour the flowing Wine!

2 Here thy revenging Justice stands And pleads its dreatiful Cause: Here faving Mercy spreads her Hands.

Like Jesus on the Cross.

3 Thy Saints attend with ev'ry Grace On this great Sacrifice; And Love appears with chearful Face, And Faith with fixed Eyes.

4 Our Hope in waiting Posture sits. To Heav'n directs her Sight; Here ev'ry warmer Passion meets, And warmer Pow'rs unite.

Zeal and Revenge perform their Parr, And rifing Sin destroy;

Repentance comes with aking Heart, Yet not forbids the Joy.

6 Dear

6 Dear Saviour, change our Faith to Sight,
Let Sin for ever die;
Then shall our Souls be all Delight,
And ev'ry Tear be dry.

Cannot persuade myself to put a full Period to these Divine Hymns, 'till I have adress'd a special Song of Glory to God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Tho' the Latin Name of it, Gloria Patri, be retained in our Nation from the Roman Church; and tho there may be some Excesses of superstitious Honour paid to the Words of it, which may have wrought some unhappy Prejudices in weaker Christians, yet 1 believe it still to be one of the noblest Parts of Christian Worship. The Subject of it is the Doctrine of the Trinity, which is that peculiar Glory of the Divine nature, that our Lord Jesus Christ has so clearly revealed unto Men, and is so necessary to true Christianity, The Action is Praise, which is one of the most complete and exalted Parts of heavenly Worship. I have cast the Song into a Variety of Forms, and bave fitted it by a plain Version, or a larger Paraphrase to be sung either alone, or at the Conclusion of another Hymn. I have added also a few Hosanna's, or Ascriptions of Salvation to Christ, in the same manner, and for the same End,

A Sorg

A Song of Praise to the Ever-blessed Trinity, God the Father, Son, and Spirit.

XXVI. 1th Long Metre,

- BLess'd be the Father, and his Love,
 To whose celestial Source we owe
 Rivers of endless Joy above,
 And Rills of Comfort here below.
- 2 Glory to Thee, Great Son of God, From whose dear wounded Body rolls A precious Stream of vital Blood, Pardon and Life for dying Souls.
- 3 We give thee facred Spirit Praise, Who, in our Hearts of Sin and Woe, Makes living Springs of Grace arise, And into boundless Glory flow.
- 4 Thus God the Father, God the Son, And God the Spirit we adore, That Sea of Life and Love unknown, Without a Bottom, or a Shore.

XXVII. 1ª Common Metre.

Lory to God the Father's Name, Who, from our finful Race, Chofe out his Favirites to proclaim
The Honours of his Grace.

2 Glory

2 Glory to God the Son be paid,
Who dwelt in humble Clay,
And, to redeem us from the Dead,
Gave his own Life away.

310

Glory to God the Spirit give, From whose Almighty Pow'r Our Souls their heav hly Birth derive, And bless the happy Hour.

4 Glory to God that reigns above, Th' Eternal three and One, Who, by the Wonders of his Love-Has made his Nature known

XXVIII. 1ª Short Metre.

I LET God the Father live.
For ever on our Tongues;
Sinners from his first Love derive
The Ground of all their Songs.

2 Ye Saints, employ your Breath
In Honour to the Son,
Who bought your Souls from Hell and Death
By off ring up his own.

3 Give to the Spirit Praise
Of an immortal Strain,
Whose Light, and Pow'r, and Grace conveys
Salvation down to Men.

4 While God the Comforter Reveals our pardon'd Sin, O may the Blood and Water bear The fame Record within.

5 To

5 To the Great Ope and Three
That feal this Grace in Heav'n,
The Father, Son, and Spirit, be Eternal Glory giv'n.

XXIX. 2d Long Metre.

Lory to God the Trinity,
Whose Name has Mysteries unknown;
In Essence One, in Person Three;
A social Nature, yet alone.

2 When all our noblest Pow'rs are join'd, The Honours of thy Name to raise; Thy Glories over match our Mind, The Angels saint beneath the Praise.

XXX. 2ª Common Metre.

THE God of Mercy be ador'd,
Who calls our Souls from Death,
Who faves by his redseming Word,
And new-creating Breath.

To praise the Father and the Son,
 And Spirit, all Divine,
 The One in Three, and Three in One,
 Let Saints and Angels join.

XXXI.

XXXI. 2ª Short Metre.

TET God the Maker's Name
Have Honour, Love, and Fear,
To God the Saviour pay the fame,
And God the Comforter.

2 Father of Lights above,
 Thy Mercy we adore,
 The Son of thy Eternal Love,
 And Spirit of thy Pow'r.

XXXII. 3d Long Metre.

TO God the Father, God the Son, And God the Spirit, Three in One, Be Honour, Praise, and Glory giv'n, By all on Earth, and all in Heav'n,

XXXIII. Or thus:

ALL Glory to thy wond'rous Name, Father of Mercy, God of Love, Thus we exalt the Lord the Lamb, And thus we praise the heav'nly Dove.

XXXIV. 3d Common Metre.

NOW let the Father and the Son And Spirit be ador'd, Where there are Works to make him known, Or Saints to Love the Lord.

XXXV. Or thus.

And everlafting One;
All Glory to the Father be,
The Spirit, and the Son.

XXXVI. 3ª Short Metre

YE Angels round the Throne, And Saints that dwell below, Worship the Father, love the Son, And bless the Spirit too.

XXXVII. Or thus,

GIVE to the Father Praise, Give Glory to the Son, And to the Spirit of his Grace Be equal Honour done,

XXXVIII. A Song of Praise to the Blessed Trinity. The 1th as the extension Psalm.

To God the Father's Love,
For all my Comforts here,
And better Hopes above:
He fent his own
Eternal Son,
To die for Sins
That Man had done,

2 Te

B. III.

2 To God the Son belongs Immortal Glory too, Who bought us with his Blood From everlasting Woe:

And now he lives,
And now he reigns
And fees the Fruit
Of all his Pains.

To God the Spirit's Name
Immortal Worship give,
Whose new creating Power
Makes the dead Sinner live:
His Work compleats
The Great Design.

The Great Defign And fills the Soul With Joy Divine.

A Almighty God, to Thee,
Be endless Honours done;
The Undivided Three,
And the Mysterious One:
Where Reason fails
With all her Pow'rs,
Their Faith prevails,
And Love adores.

XXXIX. The iid as the exlviiith Pfalm.

TO him that chose us first,
Before the World began,
To him that bore the Curse
To save rebellious Man,

To

To him that form'd Our Hearts anew, Is endless Praise And Glory due.

The Father's Love shall run Thro' our immortal Songs, We bring to God the Son Hosannas on our Tongues: Our Lips address

The Spirit's Name With equal Praise,

And Zeal the same.

3 Let ev'ry Saint above

And Angel round the Throne,
For ever blefs and love
The facret Three in One:
Thus Heav'n shall raise
His Honours high

When Earth and Time Grow old and die.

XL. The iiid as the cxlviiith Pfalm.

TO God the Father's Throne
Perpetual Honours raise;
Glory to God the Son,
To God the Spirit Praise:
And while our Lips
Their Tribute bring,
Our Faith adores
The Name we sing.

XLI

Hymns and

XLI. Or thus.

TO our Eternal God,
The Father and the Son,
And Spirit all divine,
Three Mysteries in One,
Salvation, Pow'r,
And Praise be giv'n,
By all on Earth,
And all in Heav'n.

The HOSANNA; or, Salvation ascrib'd to Christ.

XLII. Long Metre.

HOsanna to King David's Son,
Who reigns on a superior Throne;
We bless the Prince of Heav'nly Birth,
Who brings Salvation down to Earth.

2 Let ev'ry Nation, ev'ry Age, In this delightful Work engage; Old Men and Babes in Sion fing The groing Glories of her King.

XLIII. Common Metre.

I Hosanna to the Prince of Grace, Sion, behold thy King; Proclaim the Son of David's Race, And teach the Babes to fing.

2 Hosanna to th' Incarnate Word, Who from the Father came; Ascribe Salvation to the Lord, With Blessings on his Name.

XLIV.

XLIV. Short Metre.

I HOsanna to the Son
Of David and of God,
Who brought the News of Pardon down,
And bought it with his Blood.

2 To Christ th' anointed King
Be endless Blessings giv'n;
Let the whole Earth his Glory sing,
Who made our Peace with Heav'n.

XLV. As the cxlviiith Psalm.

HOjanna to the King
Of David's ancient Blood:
Behold he comes to bring
Forgiving Grace From God:
Let Old and Young
Attend his Way,
And at his Feet
Their Honours lay.

2 Glory to God on high,
Salvation to the Lamb;
Let Earth, and Sea, and Sky,
His wond'rous Love proclaim:
Upon his Head
Shall Honours reft,
And ev'ry Age
Pronounce him blefs'd.

PROPOSALS.

For Printing by Subscription, in Two Volumes, in Folio, a very beautiful and Correct EDITION, of the whole WORKS of the Reverend

Mr. $\mathcal{F}OHN$ FLAVEL,

Late Minister at Dartmouth in Devon.

o which is prefixed the Author's Life.

The Fourth Edition carefully Corrected; with Alphabetical Tables of the Text of Scripture Explained in, and Copious and Correct Indexes to the Whole Work.

A S the Works of the Reverend Mr. FLAVEL are so well known, and greatly esteemed, it is wholly unnecessary to say any thing of them, here, by way of Encomium. But as there have been formerly published several very mean and incorrect Editions of this Valuable Collection, many piously disposed Persons have been very desirous of having a correct and well printed Edition of it, upon as easy Terms as possible,

Proposals, &c.

in order to render it more extensively useful: The PROPRIETORS, therefore, propose to publish it, by Subscription, in the tollowing Manner ; viz.

That eleven Sheets (of the same Paper and Character with the Specimen of the Work annexed to the Proposals) be delivered every Saturday to the Subscribers at the Price of One Shilling only; which will render it one of the cheapest, and best printed Books, that has been proposed, in this Way, to the Publick.

And that the Subscribers may be at a Certainty, as to the Price of the Whole Work, the PROPRIETORS doengage that they shall not be oblig'd to pay for more than Thirty-five Numbers: And as it will be brought into as narrow a Compass as the Beauty and Largeness of the Character will admit; fo, if the Number of Sheets shall not amount to that Quantity, a proportionable Abatement will be made to every Subscriber.

If any Persons are willing to become Subfcribers for the Whole at once, they may pay down Half a Guinea upon the delivering in their Names; the fame upon the Delivery of the First Volume; and the Remainder upon the compleating the Whole.

The Author's Effigies, curiously engraven, and the Title-Page to the First Volume, together with his Life, will be delivered with the last Number.

Note, The First Number was publish'd on Saturday, the 4th of August, 1739.
