Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your hearts to the Lord. — Col. 3:16.

Ye praise to God, sing praises, sing praises unto our King, sing praises. For God is the King of all the earth: Sing ye praises with understanding. God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne of holiness. — Ps. 47:6-8.

“Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.”—Col. 3:16.

“Sing praises to God, sing praises: sing praises unto our King, sing praises. For God is the King of all the earth: Sing ye praises with understanding. God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne of His holiness.”—Ps. 47:6-8.

PREFACE.

And in that day shall ye say, Praise the Lord, call upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted.

Sing unto the Lord; for he hath done excellent things: this is known in all the earth.

Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.—Isa. 12:4-6.

It is gratifying to know that God is blessing the labor of our hands. We have already brought out two editions of JESUS ONLY, and each time some improvement has been made. A change is made in this edition at No. 46 and new plates with shape notes have been made and put in because so many want mostly the shape note.

With thankful hearts to God for past blessings and trusting for the future, as well as praying the very choicest benedictions upon all who shall sing these songs; indeed praying divine favor on all men, looking for and hastening unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, I commit the third edition of JESUS ONLY (revised) to the public who worship God in Christ.

A WORD TO SINGERS.

To sing the praises of God so as to move the hearts of the children of men and give God glory and the very angels pleasure is a privilege to be highly coveted. There is no such privilege in hell; therefore we should so use it here as to insure ourselves an inheritance among the sanctified, that we may enjoy in eternity the privileges and glory of the Choir Celestial. Sing then! "Sing Praises With Understanding;" sing with the Spirit. Receive Him; abide in Him, that you may by His power sing. Let the very imagination recognize the presence of the King and sing as to please Him. He is with you if you be with Him. He is wherever two or three gather in His name. (Matt. 18:19, 20.)

The instruction on vocal music in the back part of the book, it is hoped will prove of benefit to those who have interest and energy enough to investigate the subject. It is more elaborate than such treatises generally are, and ought to be read through several times and every point proved by reference to the song indicated. The reader will thus arrive at some efficiency in the knowledge of vocal music. God our Savior bless and help you in all things.

Humbly yours in Him,

C. P. JONES.
