Something to Feast the Soul.

Mrs. C. E. TAYLOR.

How sweet are thy words unto my taste!—Ps. 119: 103.

ROBERT LOWRY.

1. Something to feast the soul, O Lord, Something to gath-er from Thy word, Give us to - day;
2. Give us to - day our dai - ly bread, That we, from Thy rich boun-ty fed, May grow with-in;
3. Give us a pa-tient spir-it, Lord, For all the world can-not ac-cord Such bliss-ful rest

That, where-so-e'er our feet may roam, We may be drawing near-er home Each night, we pray.
And, o - ver-com-ing ev - ery foe, The sweet re-ward of faith may know, A rest from sin.
As, when we lean up-on Thy word, Thy precious prom-i - ses af - ford To souls oppressed.

GODFREY THRING.

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving.—Ps. 100: 4.

S. J. VAIL.

1. O sing to the Lord with a psalm of thanksgiving, For great is His wisdom, and great is His love;
2. As brothers in Christ we are band-ed to-geth - er, New light and new life to receive from His love;
3. Then sing to the Lord, for the Lord's name is glorious, Each voice be up - lift - ed to join in the strain,

Your voices raise heavenward, that angels in glo - ry May join in our chorus, and sing it above.
 May God's Ho - ly Spir - it, the heavenly Re - veal - er, Il - lum - ine our hearts with His truth from above.

Jesus, our gracious Lord.

Rev. ROBERT F. SAMPLE.

Beginning at Jerusalem.—Luke 24: 47.

T. FRANK ALLEN.

1. Je - sus, our gracious Lord, We come to Thee, And for our land we plead, Thine let it be;
2. O let Thy kingdom spread Our broad land o'er; From lakes to southern gulf, Where surges roar;
3. And when these fleeting years Are all gone by; When earth and sea shall burn, And fade a - way;

O send the truth abroad, Thou glorious Son of God, Where'er man's foot hath trod, From sea to sea.
And may the distant West With Thine own peace be blessed, To where the wave's white crest Breaks on the shore.
Our coming Thou shalt greet, As, at Thy pier-ced feet, A ransomed world shall meet, No more to die.

O Zion! Lovely Zion!

FANNY J. CROSBY.

The ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion.—Isa. 35: 10.

IRA D. SANKEY.

1. O Zi-on! love-ly Zi-on! thou cit-y of the faithful, How oft-en with rapture thy praises we sing!
2. O Zi-on! love-ly Zi-on! thou carest for the low-ly; Thy banner of mer-cy still waving we see;
3. O Zi-on! love-ly Zi-on! O when shall we behold thee, Thy beauty and splendor for ev-er to share?

Where millions of redeemed ones are dwelling now in brightness, And praising forever our Saviour and King.
Thy watchmen thou art sending with tidings, joy-ful tidings, To gath-er the lost ones and bring them to thee.
Where loved ones who have entered thy bright and shining portals, Are waiting and watching to welcome us there.

Where the loud-swelling cho-rus of triumph e-ter-nal, Rolls down from the region of endless delight,

On we go;
marching, cheer-i-ly on we go; Ti-dings of joy in-vite us, Ech-oes of song de-light us;

The first system of music consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff has a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature. The melody begins with a half note G4, followed by a quarter note A4, and then a half note B-flat4. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

March-ing, marching, Cheer-i-ly on-ward we go.

The second system of music continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. It ends with a double bar line. The treble staff shows a final cadence with a half note G4.

3 Tidings from over the Jordan ;
There is the city of gladness,
End of all weeping and sadness,
Bright with Immanuel's love ;
There are the fold and the Shepherd,
There is the beautiful river,
There may we dwell and forever,
Safe in the pastures above.

Come, ye Children.

Ps. 34: 11.

R. L.

Come, ye children, hearken un-to me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord; fear of the Lord.

The musical notation for 'Come, ye Children' is in 2/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It features a treble and bass staff. The melody in the treble staff starts on a half note D5. The first and second endings are marked above the staff. The first ending leads back to the beginning of the phrase, and the second ending concludes the piece.

Some sweet day, We shall meet our loved ones gone, Some sweet day, by and by.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. The voice part is in a treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a 2/4 time signature. The piano accompaniment is in a bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The melody features a triplet of eighth notes in the final measure.

I take this Pain, Lord Jesus.

FRANCES RIDLEY HAVERGAL.

Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth.—Heb. 12 : 6.

H. W. LANNING.

1. I take this pain, Lord Jesus, From Thine own hand; The strength to bear it bravely Thou wilt command;
 2. I take this pain, Lord Jesus, As proof in-deed That Thou art watching closely My truest need:
 3. 'Tis Thy dear hand, O Saviour, That presseth sore—The hand that bears the nail-prints For ever-more;

 2. Where hast thou been all the long, long day? Why lose the path? It was plain to thee.
 3. What fruit hast thou from the fields so fair? What golden sheaves that thy hands have bound?
 4. What plea hast thou for thy slight-ed Lord, If now His ear He would bend to thee?

2ND VOICE.

A poor wand'r'er lone; it is late—so late; The sun-light has fled from the dy-ing day;
 I wan-dered in search of a bet-ter way, It seemed, ev-er seemed ver-y near to me;
 My heart is oppressed with grief and care, The joy that I sought I have nev-er found;
 The prom-ise He left in His Ho-ly Word, His blood, precious blood He has shed for me.

My locks are so damp with the fall-ing dews, Pray o-pen to me, for the night pur-sues.
 Now wea-ry I come to the wick-et gate, And ven-ture to knock, tho'the hour be late.
 Naught, naught do I bring from my wand'rings wide, But withered, pale leaves at the e-ven-tide.
 O poor wand'ring one from the world of sin, In Je-sus' dear name, wea-ry one, come in.

I marked his smile, 'twas sweet as May; And as his spir-it passed a-way, He whispered, "Christ is all."
 I asked him whence such strength was given, He looked triumphantly to heaven, And answered, "Christ is all."
 Nor hope nor life he counted dear; 'Midst wants and perils owned no fear; He felt that Christ was all.
 Come, He has blood for all your stains; Come, He has balm for all your pains, Come, He is all in all.

HAPPY DAY.

1 O happy day that fixed my choice
On Thee, my Saviour and my God;
Well may this glowing heart rejoice,
And tell its raptures all abroad.

CHO.—Happy day, happy day,
When Jesus washed my sins away;
He taught me how to watch and pray,
And live rejoicing every day;
Happy day, happy day, When &c.

2 Now rest, my long-divided heart;
Fixed on this blissful centre, rest;
Nor ever from Thy Lord depart,
With Him of every good possessed.

That vow renewed shall daily hear,
Till in life's latest hour I bow,
And bless in death a bond so dear.

Rev. Philip Doddridge.

LOVING KINDNESS.

1 Awake, my soul; in joyful lays,
And sing thy great Redeemer's praise;
He justly claims a song from me;
His loving kindness, O how free!
His loving kindness, loving kindness,
His loving kindness, O how free!

2 He saw me ruined by the fall,
Yet loved me, notwithstanding all;
He saved me from my lost estate;
His loving kindness, O how great!

3 I often feel my sinful heart
Prone from my Saviour to depart;
But though I oft have Him forgot,
His loving kindness changes not.

4 Soon shall I pass the gloomy vale,
Soon all my mortal powers must fail;
O may my last, expiring breath
His loving kindness sing in death.

Rev. Samuel Medley.

MARTYN.

1 Jesus, lover of my soul,
Let me to Thy bosom fly,
While the raging billows roll,
While the tempest still is high;
Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide;
O receive my soul at last.

2 Other refuge have I none;
Hangs my helpless soul on Thee;

Leave, O leave me not alone;
Still support and comfort me;
All my trust on Thee is stay'd,
All my help from Thee I bring;
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of Thy wing.

Rev. Charles Wesley.

Let me hide myself in Thee;
Let the water and the blood
From Thy wounded side which flow'd,
Be of sin the double cure—
Save from wrath and make me pure.

Could my zeal no languor know,
These for sin could not atone;
Thou must save, and Thou alone;

To each soul assembled here;
Clothe Thy word with power divine,
Make us willing to be Thine.

Teach the stony heart to weep;
Let the blind have eyes to see,
See themselves, and look to Thee.

1 The morning light is breaking;
The darkness disappears;
The sons of earth are waking
To penitential tears;
Each breeze that sweeps the ocean,
Brings tidings from afar,
Of nations in commotion,
Prepared for Zion's war.

2 See heathen nations bending
Before the God we love,
And thousand hearts ascending
In gratitude above;
While sinners, now confessing,
The gospel call obey,
And seek the Saviour's blessing,
A nation in a day.

3 Blest river of salvation,
Pursue thine onward way;
Flow thou to every nation,
Nor in thy richness stay;
Stay not till all the lowly
Triumphant reach their home;
Stay not till all the holy
Proclaim, "The Lord is come!"

201 BEAUTIFUL RIVER.

1 Shall we gather at the river,
Where bright angel feet have trod—
With its crystal tide forever
Flowing from the throne of God ?

CHO.—

Yes, we'll gather at the river,
The beautiful, the beautiful river—
Gather with the saints at the river
That flows from the throne of God.

2 On the margin of the river,
Washing up its silver spray,
We shall walk and worship ever,
All the happy, golden day.

3 On the bosom of the river,
Where the Saviour-King we own,
We shall meet and sorrow never,
'Neath the glory of the throne.

4 Soon we'll reach the shining river,
Soon our pilgrimage will cease ;
Soon our happy hearts will quiver
With the melody of peace.

Rev. R. Lowry.

1 Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in christian love ;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

2 Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers ;

Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.

Our mutual burdeus bear ;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

Rev. John Fawcett.

203 MISSIONARY HYMN.

1 FROM Greenland's icy mountain
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand—
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.

2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle ;
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile :
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strewn ;
The heathen, in his blindness,
Bows down to wood and stone.

3 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,
Shall we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny ?
Salvation, O salvation !
The joyful sound proclaim,
Thill earth's remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name.

R. Heber. D.D.

204 DYING LOVE.

1 Saviour, Thy dying love
Thou gavest me,
Nor should I aught withhold,
Dear Lord, from Thee ;
In love my soul would bow,
My heart fulfill its vow,
Some offering bring Thee now,
Something for Thee.

2 O'er the blest mercy seat,
Pleading for me,
My feeble faith looks up,
Jesus, to Thee ;
Help me the cross to bear,
Thy wondrous love declare,
Some song to raise, or prayer,
Something for Thee.
